McCASKEY
CHAIRMAN

George Halas McCaskey became the fourth Chairman in Chicago Bears team history on May 5, 2011, following in the footsteps of his grandfather, George Halas, father, Edward W. McCaskey and brother, Michael.

George is one of the 13 grandchildren – and namesake – of George Halas, the founder and patriarch of the Chicago Bears. Like his brothers and sisters, he grew up around the Bears. His first part-time job, at age 14, was as an office assistant at the team's headquarters in Chicago's Loop. He later worked for several summers as a ball boy at Bears training camp, calling it one of the best experiences of his life.

George has worked to carry on the storied tradition of the Bears with a yearly goal of winning the NFL Championship, uphold the integrity and values established in the previous 104 years of the club and oversee the franchise's leadership role in the Chicagoland community. One of the club's recent developments and accomplishments has been the addition of the Bears Diversity, Equity and Inclusion department within the front office. Started in 2021, the DEI department continues to form an integrated approach to all DEI efforts that will permeate throughout the club while also advancing a culture of inclusivity and belonging resulting in more equitable outcomes.

Prior to his role as the club's Chairman, George previously served as the team's senior director of ticket operations, working in the ticket office for 20 seasons, joining the Bears in 1991 as ticket manager. He has been a member of the Bears' Board of Directors since 2004.

George attended Arizona State University, where he earned his bachelor's degree in Broadcasting in 1978, his law degree in 1981 and a Master of Laws (LL.M.) degree in 2021. He passed the Illinois bar exam in 1981, but now describes himself as a "recovering lawyer." He worked in television news in Phoenix, Peoria, Tulsa and Chicago, before serving as an Assistant State's Attorney in Lee County and DeKalb County, Ill.

Kevin WARREN PRESIDENT AND CEO

Kevin Warren was named President and Chief Executive Officer of the Chicago Bears on January 12, 2023, and formally assumed the role on April 17, 2023. In his role, Warren is responsible for all business operations and football operations, while also overseeing the team's transformative stadium development project.

Warren is the first Black President and CEO in club history and the first President and CEO hired from outside the organization. Warren succeeded Ted Phillips, who served in the same capacity since February 10, 1999, becoming just the fifth President in Bears history, following George S. Halas, George "Mugs" Halas, Jr., Michael McCaskey and Phillips.

Warren was honored at the 2025 NFL Women's Forum with the second-annual Buddy Teevens Forward Progress Award, presented to an individual who champions and advocates for the inclusion of women in football. NFL Women's Forum founder Sam Rapoport lauded Warren's progression and advancements, including assembling 'one of the most diverse leadership teams in sports,' since joining the Bears in 2023.

A veteran executive of 24 years in the NFL, Warren joined the Bears in 2023 after spending nearly four years as Commissioner of the Big Ten Conference. Warren served as the sixth commissioner in the 127-year history of the conference. He was the first Black leader to serve as commissioner of any Power Five conference. In his time with the Big Ten, Warren guided the conference to an expansion to 16 schools beginning in 2024, adding the University of Southern California and the University of California Los Angeles, as well as leading the negotiation of an unprecedented media rights deal that will generate over $7 billion during a seven-year period, and generates $1 billion annually. Warren also substantially increased the talent of color represented in Big Ten Conference office staff, introduced the first basketball media day that featured both men's and women's teams and players equally, created the Big Ten Equality Coalition, a nonpartisan group representing all 14 member institutions committed to combat racism, and developed a mental health and wellness cabinet.

Prior to his nearly four years at the Big Ten Conference, Warren served as the Chief Operating Officer of the Minnesota Vikings (2015-19), one of the most influential, progressive, and profitable periods in the organization's history. As COO of the Vikings, Warren oversaw all aspects of the business operations of the franchise. Warren, who spent a decade-and-a-half in Minnesota, joined the organization in 2005, and throughout his tenure, served in a variety of senior leadership capacities for the club.

While in Minnesota, Warren played a critical role in all business, financial, legal and operational aspects related to U.S. Bank Stadium and was involved in the design, construction, business, legal and operational components of the stadium which hosted Super Bowl LII. He also played a key role in the design, development and planning of Twin Cities Orthopedics Performance Center, the Vikings Headquarters in Eagan, Minnesota, in addition to the ancillary real estate development of Viking Lakes. Under Warren's leadership, the Vikings restructured the organization with an emphasis on promoting women to key executive positions.

Prior to working for the Vikings, he represented the Vikings' current ownership group, led by the Wilf Family, in their purchase of the team in 2005. In September of 2013, Warren was named a member of the NFL Committee on Workplace Diversity. Since joining the Bears in 2023, Warren has served as a member of the NFL's Diversity Committee.

Prior to his tenure with Minnesota, Warren served as Vice President of Player Programs & Football Legal Counsel for the St. Louis Rams from 1997-99, contributing to a franchise that secured a World Championship with a victory in Super Bowl XXXIV. Additionally, Warren held the roles of Vice President of Football Administration with the Rams (2000) and Senior Vice President of Business Operations & General Counsel for the Detroit Lions (2001-03).

For undergraduate studies, Warren attended the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia, playing basketball for the Quakers' 1981-82 Ivy League Championship team, before earning his undergraduate degree in Business Administration from Grand Canyon University in 1986, where he was a member of the basketball team. Following his graduation from Grand Canyon University, Warren attended Arizona State University, earning his Master of Business Administration in 1988, before attending the University of Notre Dame Law School, earning his Juris Doctor in 1990.

In recognition of his contributions on the basketball court, Warren was inducted into the GCU Athletic Hall of Fame in 2012.

Warren and his wife, Greta, currently reside in the Chicagoland area and have two children – daughter, Peri, and son, Powers.

Ted CREWS

SPECIAL ADVISOR TO THE PRESIDENT/
CEO & CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER

In his role, Crews works closely with President and CEO Kevin Warren and the club's Executive Leadership Team on developing and implementing strategic operational procedures to advance the Chicago Bears, honoring the legacy and integrity of the storied franchise through exemplary representation in day-to-day proceedings. In his first season as a member of the Bears, Crews played a pivotal role in the development and evolution of various operations, including those in the football and business sectors, as well as stadium development.

Crews, with his experience, a forward-thinking outlook and a perspective developed over 27 years working in the National Football League, oversees all in-house content and production ventures, including the digital and social media arms of the Chicago Bears, brand initiatives and the club's corporate and football communications efforts. An award-winning figure over his two-plus decades in the NFL, Crews has been recognized on three separate occasions at the Fritz Pollard Alliance Foundation's Salute to Excellence Awards for his outstanding work and success as an African American in an executive position in the NFL.

Prior to joining the Bears in 2024, Crews spent 12 years leading all communications efforts for the Kansas City Chiefs, providing guidance and oversight throughout the development of his innovative and strategic communications operation. Crews, as spokesperson and primary contact on all communications efforts for the Chiefs, served as the liaison between the club and all levels of external media – local, national and international. Crews worked closely with Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt, Head Coach Andy Reid, General Manager Brett Veach, President Mark Donovan and the club's key players on problem-solving measures and best practices, providing optimal representation of the club and brand. Crews oversaw numerous high-profile and progressive organizational projects during his time in Kansas City, including working with club executives on the development of the Chiefs' corporate communications arm, which led to unprecedented off-field success as the franchise achieved sustained prominence on the global stage.

Over his decade-plus in Kansas City, Crews led a staff that was instrumental in capitalizing on on-field success through their communications operation and strategy during a span that included three World Championships, four Super Bowl appearances, six-straight AFC Championship Game berths and eight-consecutive AFC West Division titles. Crews' leadership during the COVID-19 pandemic was pivotal, as the Chiefs were at the forefront of providing regular access to the club's players, coaches and executives, as the consistency provided by professional sports aided the world during a challenging time for all. Off the field, Crews implemented tactical and deliberate ventures for the betterment of the franchise and the club's impact on the surrounding community, starting with the development of a corporate communications department designed to better serve the needs of the club's budding business operations. In consultation and partnership with Donovan and the organization's leadership, Crews spearheaded the creation of the club's corporate communications department, an extension of his staff that provided publicity and support to all of the Chiefs' off-field ventures, including growth in the international market, guidance on publication and branding with prominent corporate partnerships and the hosting of world-class events at Arrowhead Stadium, such as concerts and World Cup matches that reach audiences of global proportions.

Crews joined the Chiefs after spending three seasons as the Senior Director of Communications for the St. Louis Rams (2009-11), where he served as the primary contact on all football matters for ownership, as well as the club's general manager and head coach, in addition to being the team's official spokesperson. Before his time with the Rams, Crews held the role of Football Communications Manager for the Atlanta Falcons from 2005 to 2008, a tenure during which he provided media support and organization for the general manager, head coach, coaching staff and full player roster.

Crews entered the NFL as an intern with the Carolina Panthers, gaining experience in the profession during his time as an undergraduate at South Carolina State University. Following two years as an intern, Crews spent five seasons as the Media Relations Assistant for Carolina (2000-04), learning under Charlie Dayton, former Panthers PR Director and Pro Football Hall of Fame Awards of Excellence honoree.

A proud graduate of South Carolina State University (1999), Crews was recognized with one of the school's highest honors in 2014, as he received the Distinguished Young Alumnus Award. Crews returned to his alma mater in 2024 to serve as the keynote speaker for the Fall 2024 Commencement Convocation, and was presented with an Honorary Doctorate from the university.

Additionally, Crews has also been invited by the NFL to help lead the league's Super Bowl communications staff on 10 occasions, in addition to numerous Pro Bowls.

Liz GEIST

EVP OF PEOPLE AND CULTURE & CHIEF HR OFFICER

Liz Geist enters her 12th season as a member of the Chicago Bears in 2025. Geist was named to the newly created position of Executive Vice President of People and Culture & Chief Human Resources Officer on April 10, 2024.

Geist serves as a key strategic partner to President & CEO Kevin Warren, supporting a unified vision for organizational excellence, while building a world-class culture and developing strategies for sustained success.

Additionally, Geist leads the organization's Human Resources sector, focusing on creating a supportive and empowering workplace culture that enables employees to thrive. Geist collaborates with Warren and the Executive Leadership Team to align initiatives with strategic objectives, while fostering a culture of excellence and innovation.

Geist's journey with the Bears began in 2014, joining the organization as the sole member of the HR department. Over the past decade, Geist's visionary leadership and dedication have been instrumental in transforming the HR department into a robust team that serves the Bears. Her commitment to fostering a supportive and empowering workplace culture has left an indelible mark on the organization, solidifying its reputation as a leader in progressive HR practices within the sports industry.

Before her tenure with the Bears, Geist navigated through various industries, including non-profit and transportation and logistics. Her experiences in these diverse environments deepened her understanding of the often complex nature withing HR leadership. During this time, Geist developed her unique approach to fostering dignity, respect and humanity in the workplace, setting her on a trajectory towards success.

Upon joining the Bears, Geist was at the forefront of leading initiatives to standardize hiring processes, establish comprehensive professional development programs, and prioritize mental health support for all staff members. Geist's innovative approach and tireless advocacy have not only elevated the Bears' organizational culture and values but have also positioned the team as a trailblazer in progressive HR practices within the sports industry.

In addition, Geist made significant contributions to major projects for the Bears. Geist served on the design committee for the expansion and renovation of Halas Hall in 2019, leveraging insights gained from touring top-tier facilities with the general manager and architects to create what is now considered one of the best practice facilities in the NFL. Additionally, with the support of the CFO, Geist played a key role in establishing an office in downtown Chicago that better suited the needs of staff members and executives.

In 2023, the club selected Geist to participate in the NFL League of Leaders Executive Education Program at Stanford University.

Beyond her professional achievements, Geist serves on the Pro Sports Assembly's Board of Directors, remaining committed to the power of inclusivity and uniting as a force to create a strong, healthy, and fair future for the professional sports industry.

Karen
MURPHY
EVP OF STADIUM
 DEVELOPMENT & CHIEF
 OPERATING OFFICER

Karen Murphy enters her 26th season as a member of the Chicago Bears in 2025. Initially joining the Bears in 1999, Murphy serves as the organization's first-ever Executive Vice President of Stadium Development & Chief Operating Officer since being named to the position in 2024.

Murphy oversees the organization's transformative stadium development project, working closely with President & CEO Kevin Warren on creating, evolving and executing long-term, strategic objectives centered around building a transcendent, world-class stadium for Bears fans, while fostering a culture of innovation and excellence.

Murphy's leadership and counsel extend across critical areas, including finance and accounting, stadium and event operations, building operations, grounds, information technology, procurement and innovation. Murphy's strategic direction ensures coordination and alignment, which are integral to upholding the Chicago Bears' standard of excellence across the organization.

Throughout Murphy's 25-plus-year tenure with the Bears, Murphy most recently served as Senior Vice President of Business Strategy & Chief Financial Officer, helping to shape the organization's strategic direction while spearheading transformative initiatives. After joining the club in 1999 as a Controller, Murphy was promoted to Chief Financial Officer in 2002, before adding Senior Vice President of Business Strategy responsibilities in 2016. Over her time with the Bears, Murphy helped lead the execution of renovations at Soldier Field in 2003, as well as at Halas Hall in 2013 and 2019.

Murphy's visionary leadership has driven the club to leverage technology as a competitive advantage, integrating analytics into decision-making processes and prioritizing the recruitment, development and retention of world-class talent and systems.

Prior to joining the Bears in 1999, Murphy served as a Senior Auditor at Ernst & Young Global Consulting Services (1993-97) before joining The Walt Disney Company in 1997 as a Corporate Management Senior Auditor.

Raised in Sun Prairie Wis., Murphy graduated with a Bachelor of Business Administration Accounting from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

MORRIS
 BUSINESS OFFICER

Meka White Morris enters her second season as a member of the Chicago Bears in 2025. Morris joined the Bears as Executive Vice President of Revenue & Chief Business Officer in 2024. In this role, Morris oversees corporate partnerships, suites, ticketing, revenue optimizations, brand marketing and strategic planning.

Prior to joining the Bears, Morris served as the Executive Vice President and Chief Business Officer of the Minnesota Twins. Morris' key responsibilities were aimed at aligning and advancing the organization's revenue-generating platforms – inclusive of Twins baseball and Target Field, but also expanding beyond the ballpark and traditional industry boundaries. She had direct oversight of, and provided strategic guidance for, the club's efforts and initiatives in business intelligence and analytics, innovation, brand partnerships, ticketing, suites and premium inventory, marketing and communications, broadcast, game entertainment, and Target Field's non-baseball events.

An established sports and entertainment executive, Morris also built an extensive track record of success working in sales and marketing-focused leadership roles for LEARFIELD, Legends Hospitality, Live Nation Entertainment, the Charlotte Hornets (Bobcats), the Oakland Raiders and the Cleveland Cavaliers.

In addition to her professional achievements, Morris has actively contributed to various boards and organizations, including the YMCA of the North, the US Special Olympics, the Minneapolis Downtown Council, the Carlson School of Management Strategic Board and the Women's Presidents' Organization, among others.

A native of Boston, MA, Morris earned her B.S. in journalism and strategic communications from the University of Kansas, where she was a track and field athlete for the Jayhawks. Her late father, Boston Celtics legend Jo Jo White, had a stellar 12-year NBA career. He was a seven-time NBA All-Star and 1976 NBA Finals MVP, whose No. 10 jersey is retired by the Boston Celtics and was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2015.

Tanesha
WADE
EVP OF DIVERSITY, EQUITY AND INCLUSION & CHIEF
 IMPACT OFFICER

Tanesha Wade enters her 13th season with the Chicago Bears in 2025 and was named Executive Vice President of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion & Chief Impact Officer on May 1, 2024.

Wade works closely with President & CEO Kevin Warren and the executive leadership team to lead the continued development and execution of a comprehensive, community-centered DEI strategy for the Bears. Her work integrates Club principles across all organizational facets, from player and alumni relations to fan engagement and internal team dynamics. Wade collaborates with club leadership, alumni, advisory boards and various stakeholders to foster strategic partnerships, promote equity and inclusivity, grow access to youth sports locally and globally and amplify marginalized voices, ensuring organizational initiatives and mission-driven priorities resonate broadly to make a meaningful impact throughout our communities.

Through her leadership, the Bears will continue to champion enhanced efforts in local community outreach and engagement, charitable giving initiatives, supplier and partner diversification and inclusive opportunities for business accessibility and economic advancement. Wade and her staff focus on the development, strategic design and implementation of the organization's community engagement and social impact initiatives, overseeing the evolution and operation of key social justice efforts, player and alumni engagement and advancement of philanthropic efforts. Her team serves as a vital link across departments and between the organization and community stakeholders, ensuring that efforts align with the organization's mission, while fostering a sustainable impact.

Wade has been an integral member of the organization since 2013, initially serving as the Director of Events and Entertainment, where she was tasked with shaping and implementing the team's event, production and game presentation strategies. Wade ascended to the role of Senior Vice President of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion in 2021, where she was instrumental in developing the framework for the Club's diversity, equity and inclusion framework and foundational efforts.

Prior to joining the Bears, Wade spent five years at the University of Minnesota, overseeing stewardship events and premium seating program sales and service operations for the athletics department. In addition to her role, Wade is an adjunct professor at Northwestern University's School of Professional Studies, sits on the advisory board of Women in Sports and Events (WISE) Chicago, and serves as a mentor through Big Brothers Big Sisters.

A native of Des Moines, Iowa, Wade is a graduate of Oregon State University, where she was also a member of the women's basketball team.

Krista
WHITAKER
EVP OF LEGAL AND BUSINESS
 OFFICER

Krista Whitaker enters her second season as a member of the Chicago Bears in 2025. Whitaker was named the organization's Executive Vice President of Legal and Business Affairs & Chief Legal Officer on April 9, 2024.

In her role, Whitaker provides legal oversight and strategic guidance to the club and leads the organization's legal and security departments. Working closely with President and CEO Kevin Warren, Whitaker provides comprehensive legal counsel and support to the club, both in football and business operations.

Whitaker and her staff develop strategic, solution-based legal departmental operations to benefit the Chicago Bears and the organization's entities. Whitaker and her staff guide the organization through complex legal matters, ensuring alignment with the club's business objectives. Whitaker manages the club's day-to-day global legal department across all transactional, corporate, litigation, commercial, security and regulatory matters.

Prior to joining the Bears in 2024, Whitaker served as Vice President, Associate General Counsel for the Miami HEAT, providing strategic legal advice and counsel to support the organization's day-to-day operations, while also drafting and negotiating key financial sponsorship and media rights agreements, as well as naming rights agreements. Initially joining the franchise as Senior Associate Counsel, Whitaker was elevated to Vice President, Associate General Counsel prior to her second season with Miami.

Before her tenure with the HEAT, Whitaker practiced in New York City at Proskauer, a leading international law firm with a prominent sports law practice. At Proskauer, Whitaker had a broad-based corporate practice focusing on transactional, governance and general corporate matters with an emphasis on the sports, media and entertainment industries.

Whitaker has been recognized by her professional and personal achievements in the National Bar Association's 40 Under 40, the Nation's Best Advocates list, Legal 500's GC Powerlist for Miami, SBJ's New Voices Under 30 and as a Rising Star in Sports by Law360.

Whitaker also serves as an adjunct professor at the University of Miami School of Law, leading and inspiring aspiring law professionals, contributing to the program's Entertainment, Arts and Sports Law Program Advisory Board. Whitaker's commitment extends beyond her professional endeavors, as she actively contributes to legal education and serves her community.

A native of Fort Worth, Texas, Whitaker earned her undergraduate degree from Texas A&M University and her law degree from Stanford Law School.

Laura
ANDERSON
 CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Laura Anderson enters her first season as a member of the Chicago Bears in 2025. Anderson was named Senior Vice President of Administration & Chief Financial Officer on March 24, 2025.

Anderson joins the Bears after most recently serving as the Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer for the Big Ten Conference, overseeing financial operations and strategic planning, ensuring financial stability during one of the most transformational tenures of the conference's storied history.

Anderson's role will encompass oversight of all financial, accounting and information technology operations involving the organization and will be instrumental in navigating an evolving economic climate and deploying technology as a competitive advantage for the advancement and progression of the Chicago Bears.

During Anderson's seven years with the Big Ten Conference, her leadership as Chief Financial Officer to the Office of the Commissioner and Treasurer to the Board of Directors served an integral role in the conference's operations, providing consistent, strategic guidance to the Big Ten's presidents, chancellors and athletic advisory entities. Before being elevated to Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer, Anderson provided senior-level management and prudent guidance as Senior Vice President and Controller, developing operational strategies during the pandemic and collaborating with senior leadership on the advancement and progression of the conference amid adversity.

Prior to joining the Big Ten Conference, Anderson supported ESI Consultants as a Senior Financial Consultant, leading the internal operations of the firm, beginning at the start-up level, after serving as an Audit Consultant for Chicago's Arthur Andersen LLP, working in the group's audit practice, contributing to the advising of clients, including multi-national and publicly-traded companies.

A graduate of the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, Anderson is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and the Illinois CPA Society, as well as Women Leaders in Sports and Women in Sports and Events.

In the Chicagoland community, Anderson is an active volunteer in the non-profit realm, honorably serving as a past President of the Junior League of Chicago and currently on the Board of Directors for the DuPage Children's Museum. In recognition of excellence and transformation at the Big Ten Conference and throughout Greater Chicago, Anderson was highlighted by Crain's Chicago Business, gaining recognition on the publication's Notable CFOs list of 2023.

A native of Illinois and a resident of Chicago, Anderson and her husband, Scott, are parents to two children – Emma and Ryan.

Tanya
DREESEN
SVP OF STRATEGY AND GLOBAL AFFAIRS & CHIEF OF STAFF

Tanya Dreesen enters her second season with the Chicago Bears in 2025, having been named Senior Vice President of Strategy & Global Affairs and Chief of Staff on March 8, 2024.

In her role, Dreesen plays a pivotal part in shaping the strategic direction and operational execution of major initiatives across the organization. Working closely with President & CEO Kevin Warren, Dreesen oversees a wide range of high-impact projects spanning business strategy, stadium development, premium experience innovation and executive operations, ensuring alignment within club's long-term vision, values and strategic imperatives.

Over the past year, Dreesen has led numerous initiatives that enhanced the Chicago Bears' presence on a local, national and international level. Dreesen oversaw marquee activations at tentpole events, such as the club's participation in the Pro Football Hall of Fame Game and HOF Enshrinement Weekend, as well as appearing in the International Series matchup in London. Dreesen worked closely with leadership, community partners and sponsors to drive top-tier engagements and strategic meetings. Internally, she co-authored the club's organizational strategy map and played a central role in operational planning, evaluation processes, and internal improvements.

Prior to joining the Bears, Dreesen spent 16 years with the Minnesota Vikings, most recently serving as Vice President of Partnership Activation, Events & Special Projects. She was part of the leadership team responsible for design and construction of U.S. Bank Stadium, overseeing the integration of all sponsorships and Founding Partnerships. She was instrumental in developing signature initiatives including the U.S. Bank Stadium art collection, the Vikings Voyage fan experience, the Legacy Brick (fan paver) program, and the iconic Legacy Ship sculpture. Dreesen was also responsible for securing and managing 3 major naming rights partnerships: Mall of America Field, U.S. Bank Stadium, and Twin Cities Orthopedics Performance Center. She directed the team that executed all fan and partner facing events and played a significant role in organizational milestones such as Business Summits, 3 International Series games in London, the successful bid for Super Bowl LII in 2018, and the creation of the team's 200-acre headquarters and practice facility.

Earlier in her career, Dreesen served in a Vice President role at the Denver Post and Rocky Mountain News, where she managed high profile sponsorship activations for local sports teams. She began her career in Toronto, Canada, with The Toronto Sun and later The Toronto Star, leading sponsorship and partnership initiatives for major art, music, multi-cultural and sports entities, including the Toronto Raptors and Toronto Blue Jays.

Dreesen graduated with honors in Advertising and Marketing from Sheridan College in Toronto, Canada. Dreesen is also a three-time medalist in rowing at the Edmonton World Masters Games and has competed internationally at World Rowing (FISA) events in Boston and Montreal.

Dreesen and her husband, Brian, have been married for 23 years and have two children – daughter, Libby, and son, Roman.

Scott
HAGEL
SVP OF PUBLIC AND GOVERNMENTAL AFFAIRS

Scott Hagel enters his second season as Senior Vice President of Public and Governmental Affairs for the Chicago Bears in 2025. Initially joining the organization as an intern in 1996, this season will mark Hagel's 30th year of service with the organization.

In his role, Hagel works closely with President and CEO Kevin Warren on the club's relations with local and state government officials and agencies, as well as community leaders and industry stakeholders, to enhance the club's operations and support the evolving, transformative stadium development project. Hagel aids the organization's strategic oversight relative to stadium development, external affairs and regulatory community and governmental engagement.

Prior to his current role overseeing Public and Governmental Affairs, Hagel served as Senior Vice President of Marketing and Communications (2015-24). Over his 30 years with the organization, starting as an intern in 1999, Hagel ascended through the roles of Public Relations Assistant, then Assistant Director of Public Relations, before being named Director of Public Relations in 2000. Hagel was then promoted to Senior Director of Corporate Communications in 2004, before being elevated to Vice President of Communications in 2011.

During his tenure with the Bears, Hagel's contributions to the Chicagoland community extend to coaching local youth sports and serving as an adjunct lecturer at Northwestern University, where he has taught courses on Sports Public Relations and Crisis Management.

Hagel earned his bachelor's degree from Central Michigan University and an MBA from the Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University.

Paul
NEURAUTER
 SUSTAINABILITY

Paul Neurauter enters his eighth season with the Chicago Bears in 2025 and his second year as Senior Vice President of Operations and Stability.

Named to the newly established role of Senior Vice President of Operations and Sustainability, Neurauter works closely with President and CEO Kevin Warren on navigating complex logistical and procurement operations with data-driven, innovative and creative solutions, as well as providing design, planning, operations and sustainability guidance relative to the club's transformative stadium development project.

Joining the organization as Vice President of Operations in 2018, Neurauter has gathered over 25 years of experience in logistics, operations and supply chain management, as well as planning, procurement and transportation management, leading to his elevated role.

In his current role, Neurauter leads strategic planning efforts, champions operational efficiency and implements sustainable practices across the organization, playing an integral role in the club's advocacy for operational excellence and sustainability. Additionally, Neurauter provides oversight of facility operations, logistics optimization, procurement strategies and project management, all while prioritizing environmental and resource conservation. Neurauter provides strategic planning, process improvement and capability development across multiple functional areas, including facility operations, logistics, procurement and project management.

Prior to joining the Bears, Neurauter held several supply chain leadership roles at Kraft Heinz Company, Kraft Foods, Baxter Healthcare and Ingredion Incorporated, as well as aiding in global procurement and supply management for Abbott.

Neurauter's connection to the Bears began as an 11-year-old paper delivery boy for the Chicago Tribune, Neurauter was awarded tickets to a Bears game for selling the most new subscriptions.

Neurauter earned his undergraduate degree in Economics from Northern Illinois University and an MBA from Marquette University.

RUFF
SVP OF STRATEGY AND ANALYTICS & CHIEF OF STAFF

Corey Ruff enters his second season as Senior Vice President of Strategy and Analytics & Chief of Staff of the Chicago Bears in 2025.

Ruff works closely with President and CEO Kevin Warren on administrative alignment, strategic planning and evaluating new business opportunities and growth across the organization.

In collaboration with departments across the organization, both in business and football operations, Ruff provides integral leadership and a strategic mindset to outline strategic organizational growth.

Elevating to the role of Senior Vice President of Strategy and Analytics & Chief of Staff in 2024, Ruff joined the organization in 2016 as Director of Business Analytics, an organic position derived from his previous experience with the National Basketball Association and in Major League Baseball where he focused on growing global fandom and optimizing club and league revenue.

Upon his appointment as Director of Business Analytics in 2016, Ruff implemented new and innovative, models to grow consumer engagement, modernize the club's technology, and enhance business operations and revenue generation, including the implementation of organizational performance indicators, competitive analyses, and measurement of strategic partnerships.

Prior to joining the Bears, Ruff held roles in the league offices and governing bodies of the NBA and MLB, serving in a consultative capacity to help teams grow their local revenue and fan bases through the use of analytical tools, models, and research methods.

Ruff's responsibilities with the National Basketball Association included analyzing league-wide consumer data to improve ticket sales and attendance forecasting accuracy. Following his tenure with the NBA, Ruff spent six years with Major League Baseball, elevating and fueling league- and club-profitability growth through analytical modeling of various consumer data.

A native of New Jersey, Ruff graduated from Lafayette College with undergraduate degrees in Economics, Business and Psychology, and is currently pursuing a Master of Liberal Arts and Management degree from Harvard University.

John
SVP OF SECURITY

John Tarpey enters his 11th season with the Chicago Bears, and first as Senior Vice President of Security, in 2025.

Prior to being named Senior Vice President of Security in 2025, Tarpey spent the previous five years as Vice President of Security (2021-25) after joining the club in 2015 as Director of Safety and Security for the organization.

Tarpey works closely with President and CEO Kevin Warren, as well as the Executive Leadership Team and Football Operations, to best equip the organization with world-class security measures and protocols for the protection, enhancement and optimal operation of the organization.

In his role, Tarpey oversees all security operations involving the Chicago Bears and at Halas Hall. Tarpey's team is responsible for providing comprehensive security and safety services, supporting the day-to-day needs of the organization, including players and staff members from both football and business operations, as well as the club's facilities. Additionally, Tarpey's team provides strategic security and safety planning and operational logistics to protect the Chicago Bears.

A native of River Grove, Ill., Tarpey graduated from the Illinois State Police Academy and has 24 years of law enforcement experience to include stops as a detective with the Bensenville and Elmhurst Police Departments and the DuPage County Major Crimes Taskforce. Tarpey also worked as a Group Supervisor with the DuPage Metropolitan Enforcement Group, an undercover unit within the Illinois State Police.

Later in his police career, Tarpey was sworn in as a taskforce Officer with the Drug Enforcement Administration, Chicago Field Division. While at the D.E.A., Tarpey handled cartel level narcotics and currency interdiction cases. Prior to coming to the Bears, Tarpey spent time managing private security and asset protection internationally. Tarpey also served as the Director of Security for Power Distributing LLC.

Lee
TWARLING
GUEST EXPERIENCE AND STADIUM OPERATIONS

Lee Twarling enters his 28th overall season with the Bears and second year as Senior Vice President of Fan/Guest Experience and Stadium Operations.

With over 30 years of experience in the National Football League, Twarling oversees all aspects of the fan and guest experience surrounding the organization, as well as leads operational elements surrounding Bears home games and the stadium logistics. Additionally, Twarling serves as the administrative lead for all training camp operations at Halas Hall.

Twarling works closely with President and CEO Kevin Warren to ensure an optimal fan and guest experience. Twarling and his staff develop thorough, comprehensive plans to connect the club and Bears fans to elevate the fan and guest experience, as well as assist with all operational and logistical needs.

Twarling entered the NFL with the Chicago Bears in 2001, serving as a Customer Service Representative. Following four years with the Bears, Twarling spent four years as Premium Suite Sales & Service Representative / Manager with the Denver Broncos (2004-07), before returning to the Bears in 2007 as the club's Director of Ticket Operations. Twarling was promoted to Senior Director of Ticket Operations in 2011, holding that role for six years, before elevating to Senior Vice President, Sales & Customer Relations in 2016.

In 2016, Twarling was named the second-ever recipient of the Virginia Award, an annual honor presented to a Bears employee who has demonstrated the characteristics and values of Mrs. McCaskey: grace, humility, loyalty and dedication. The Virginia Award recipient is an employee who epitomizes exemplary service to the team, business partners and fans, and exceeded the highest standards of achievement.

A native of Holdrege, Neb., Twarling earned his undergraduate degree in Sport Management from Nebraska Wesleyan University, where he was a four-year defensive back for the Prairie Wolves. Off the gridiron, Twarling was named an NAIA Scholar Athlete.

Following graduation from Nebraska Wesleyan, Twarling achieved an M.A. in Sport Management from Ohio State University, with a focus in ticketing and events.

Ryan
GENERAL MANAGER

Hometown: Canandaigua, N.Y.

Ryan Poles enters his fourth season with the Bears in 2025 after being named the club's seventh general manager in franchise history on Jan. 25, 2022. Upon his hire, Poles, embarked on an in-depth, comprehensive process to restructure the club's roster and develop all areas surrounding organizational culture and the football operation of the Chicago Bears. Poles was instrumental in striking a deal with the Carolina Panthers in advance of the 2023 NFL Draft, leading to a flurry of enhancements to the Bears' roster over the next two seasons. By acquiring Carolina's first-round pick, the Bears utilized the No. 1-overall selection of the 2024 NFL Draft to select quarterback Caleb Williams. Capitalizing on remaining draft capital, the Bears then selected wide receiver Rome Odunze with the ninth-overall selection, rounding out the first round of the 2024 NFL Draft with two top-10 selections. In the deal with Carolina, the Bears also acquired wide receiver DJ Moore, who has led the Bears in receiving yards during each of his two season in Chicago. Ahead of 2025, working with Head Coach Ben Johnson, Poles and his staff have continued to develop the roster via draft, free agency and trades.

During the 2024 season, rookie quarterback Williams set franchise rookie records across all major statistical passing categories. Williams' season included a string of 353 consecutive pass attempts without an interception, good for not only an NFL rookie record, but the fourth-longest single-season streak in NFL history. Fellow first-round rookie, Odunze, finished the season with the fourth-most receptions (61) and receiving yards (734) by a rookie in franchise history. While punter Tory Taylor, another member of the Bears 2024 draft class, set single-season franchise records in both gross (47.7) and net (41.6) punting average. On the defensive side of the ball, the Bears allowed touchdowns on just 46 percent of opponents redzone drives, the second-best rate in the NFL, while finishing top 10 in the NFL with 24 takeaways.

Poles comprised a roster in 2023 that helped lead Chicago with the league's top-ranked rush defense (86.4 yards per game) and finish the season with the No. 2 rushing offense in the NFL (141.1 yards per game). Defensively, the Bears ranked second in the league in fewest rushing touchdowns allowed (eight), putting forth a five-game span (Weeks 7-12) that the unit did not allow a single rushing touchdown. Conversely, Chicago's offense totaled the second-most first downs in the league (86). The Bears' four-win improvement from the 2022 season marked the largest year-over-year win improvement in over half a decade.

Poles and his staff oversaw a transition as the club went from from one of the oldest rosters in the NFL at the end of the 2021 season, to one of the youngest teams in the league. Holding the No. 1 pick entering the 2023 Draft, Poles struck a deal with the Carolina Panthers on March 15, which brought in wide receiver DJ Moore in addition to the No. 9-overall selection and the 61st-overall pick in 2023, as well as a 2024 first-round selection and a 2025 second-round pick. The roster additions continued in free agency as Poles and his staff acquired veteran contributors along the defensive front and among the linebacker corps to support the eventual top-ranked defense. The Bears completed their most notable in-season move ahead of the trade deadline in Week 9, acquiring defensive lineman Montez Sweat from the Washington Commanders via trade in exchange for a 2024 second-round pick.

With one of the youngest on-field rosters in 2022, the Bears posted a league-high 6,721 snaps from first-year players. Offensively, the club finished the 2022 season by setting a team rushing record with a league-best 3,019 rushing yards. Defensively, with the youngest on-field defense in the NFL, the club finished the season ranked among the top-10 in several categories: completions allowed (323, 6th), interception percentage (2.9 pct, 8th), interception yards (201, 9th) and fourth down conversions (six, 1st) to name a few. Chicago opened the 2022 season with several new pieces on the roster following a mix of trades, free agent signings and waiver claims. The Bears Week 1 roster featured 11 rookie debuts, the most by any team in the NFL int the 2022 season. The club's 2023 draft class also featured a large group with 10 total selections. The 2022-23 Bears draft classes were the first time since the start of the modern seven-round draft era that the Bears had consecutive classes with 10+ picks.

Prior to his arrival in Chicago, Poles spent 13 years within the front office of the Kansas City Chiefs, helping Kansas City comprise rosters that led to two Super Bowl appearances and a World Championship with a victory over the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl LIV. In his 13th and final season with the Chiefs in 2021, Poles was named the club's Executive Director of Player Personnel. Initially joining the Chiefs in 2009 as a Player Personnel Assistant, Poles demonstrated his development and ascension through the ranks with Kansas City through holding the roles of College Scouting Administrator (2010-12), College Scouting Coordinator (2013-16), Director of College Scouting (2017), Assistant Director of Player Personnel (2018-20), ultimately leading to serving as the Executive Director of Player Personnel in 2021, helping the Chiefs win their second-straight AFC Championship.

During his 13 years in Kansas City, the Chiefs captured seven AFC West division championships, as Poles oversaw all aspects of the college scouting across the country for the Chiefs while assisting with the pro personnel process and preparing for free agency. He also assisted General Manager Brett Veach with the coordination of the NFL Draft and overseeing the team's out-of-town area scouts. Poles was instrumental in helping the Chiefs land top draft prospects such as quarterback Patrick Mahomes and tight end Travis Kelce, who have gone on to receive multiple All-Pro recognitions. In 2021, the Chiefs tied for second in the NFL with six Pro Bowl selections in Mahomes, Kelce, wide receiver Tyreek Hill, offensive tackle Orlando Brown, defensive tackle Chris Jones and safety Tyrann Mathieu and tied for first in the NFL with seven selections in 2020. In total, from 2009-21, the Chiefs had 69 Pro Bowl selections with 28 different players.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Poles served as a Recruiting Assistant at his alma mater, Boston College (2008-09). Upon culmination of his collegiate career, Poles signed with the Chicago Bears as an undrafted free agent in 2008.

The Canandaigua, N.Y., native played offensive tackle for five seasons for Boston College (2003-07), protecting former NFL quarterback Matt Ryan and playing alongside Bears Co-Director of Player Personnel Trey Kozlowski. Poles was honored with the Paul Cavanaugh Award in 2007 as the student-athlete with total commitment to football both on and off the field and for his dedication to volunteerism, ethics and community. He played his prep football at Canandaigua Academy in Canandaigua, N.Y.

Poles also was named to two '40 Under 40' lists in the past five years: Ingram's Magazine in 2019 and by The Athletic in 2021. He graduated from Boston College in 2007 with a degree in communications. He and his wife, Katie, have two children: Mason and Jordyn.

Ian CUNNINGHAM

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Ian Cunningham enters his third season in Chicago in 2024 after being named Assistant General Manager on Jan. 29, 2022.

Over his first two seasons with the Bears, serving as the top lieutenant to General Manager Ryan Poles, the Bears' personnel staff embarked on a comprehensive and strategic restructuring of the roster, as well as a development of processes throughout the football operations department. With foundational processes in place, the Bears completed a four-win improvement turnaround from 2022 to 2023. Chicago owned the league's top-ranked rush defense (86.4 yards per game), allowing the fewest rushing first downs in the league (88) and finished the season with the No. 2 rushing offense in the NFL (141.1 yards per game).

Prior to the 2023 season, the Bears completed a deal that granted Chicago with fortuitous draft capital for years to come, as well as wide receiver DJ Moore, who went on to lead the Bears with a career-best 1,364 receiving yards. That trade, ultimately, led to the No. 1-overall selection of quarterback Caleb Williams in the 2024 NFL Draft.

Entering 2024, Cunningham and the Bears' personnel staff extended All-Pro defensive back Jaylon Johnson, traded for six-time Pro Bowl wide receiver Keenan Allen and acquired a flurry of veteran players throughout free agency.

Cunningham arrived in Chicago with 14 years of NFL front office experience, having most recently served as Director of Player Personnel for the Philadelphia Eagles, a position he was promoted to at the beginning of the 2021 season. Prior to his promotion, Cunningham worked as the Assistant Director of Player Personnel (2019-20) and oversaw the college scouting department from 2017-18 as the Director of College Scouting.

A two-time Super Bowl Champion (XLVII and LII) as a member of the Baltimore Ravens' and Eagles' front office, Cunningham's NFL front office career began in 2008 when he was hired in Baltimore as a Player Personnel Assistant. After five seasons as an assistant, he worked as a Southeast Area Scout for the Ravens for two seasons (2013-14) before taking on additional responsibility as the Southeast/Southwest Area Scout from 2015-16.

As the Director of College Scouting during the 2017-18 seasons in Philadelphia, Cunningham was instrumental in both identifying and selecting several key members of the Eagles' current roster, including TE Dallas Goedert, CB Avonte Maddox, OL Jordan Mailata, DE Josh Sweat and undrafted free agent linebacker, T.J. Edwards. Collectively, the group has accounted for 236 games played and 138 starts over the past four seasons.

The 2019 season marked Cunningham's first as Philadelphia's Assistant Director of Player Personnel, a promotion he held for two seasons before the club named him Director of Player Personnel at the start of the 2021 season. The Eagles' 2021 Draft class featured two Top-40 picks in Devonta Smith (1st, 10th overall) and Landon Dickerson (2nd, 37th overall). Both emerged as key contributors to the Philadelphia offense making a combined 29 regular-season starts. Smith appeared in all 17 games and made 16 starts, immediately becoming the team's top target with team-leading figures in receptions (64), receiving yards (916) and receiving touchdowns (10). Smith's 916 receiving yards also broke an Eagles rookie record, passing Deshaun Watson's 912 receiving yards in 2008. Dickerson also proved worthy of being a top selection, making 14 starts on an offensive line that helped the Eagles average a league-best 159.7 rushing yards per game. Dickerson appeared in 859 offensive snaps and allowed just two sacks on the season.

Prior to joining the front office ranks, Cunningham was an offensive lineman who signed with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2008 as an undrafted free agent. He graduated from the University of Virginia in 2007 with a bachelor's degree in psychology, before going on to earn his master's in education in 2008. A four-year letter recipient for the Cavaliers, Cunningham tallied 31 starts and earned honorable mention freshman All-America accolades from Rivals.com as well as ACC All-Freshman Team recognition from The Sporting News.

Cunningham is originally from Carrollton, Texas, where he attended Hebron High School. The high school standout earned numerous all-state and all-area honors and participated in the 2003 U.S. Army All-American game. He and his wife, Justine, have three children.

Jeff
KING
SENIOR DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Prior to being elevated to his current role, King spent the last two years serving as Co-Director of Player Personnel, helping the personnel department implement strategic practices related to roster construction and the enhancement and development of football operations. As a result, the Bears experienced a four-win improvement in 2023 compared to the season prior, while ranking among the league's leaders on both sides of the ball. Last season, Chicago owned the league's top-ranked rush defense (86.4 yards per game), allowing the fewest rushing first downs in the league (88) and finished the season with the No. 2 rushing offense in the NFL (141.1 yards per game).

King also supported a personnel department that made the decision to acquire eventual Pro Bowl defensive lineman Montez Sweat in-season before the 2023 trade deadline, as well as orchestrated a trade with the Carolina Panthers in advance of the 2023 NFL Draft that netted prominent draft pick compensation for years to come, as well as wide receiver DJ Moore who went on to lead the Bears with a career-high 1,364 receiving yards in 2023.

King's promotion to Co-Director of Player Personnel comes after spending the 2020-2021 seasons as Director of Pro Scouting with the Bears. After spending the 2015 season as a Scouting Intern for the Bears, King was hired full-time in 2016 as a Pro Scout before being elevated to Assistant Director of Pro Scouting in 2019. Over his decade with the Bears, King has been involved with the acquiring or retaining of players who went on to earn 13 total All-Pro selections and accumulate 20 cumulative Pro Bowl nods with Chicago.

A two-time All-ACC selection at Virginia Tech, King was selected by the Panthers in the fifth round of the 2006 NFL Draft. Displaying athletic versatility, King also spent one season on the basketball team at Virginia Tech, appearing in 16 games on the hardwood for the Hokies in the 2004-05 season. King contributed a season-high 21 minutes, adding seven points and four rebounds, in VT's upset over No. 7-ranked Duke.

The Pulaski, Va., native played seven seasons in the NFL, spending his first five in Carolina, followed by two with the Cardinals, appearing in 108 games (84 starts) and totaling 156 receptions for 1,323 yards (8.5 avg.) and 12 touchdowns.

Trey
(2017-2023-2024)
 PERSONNEL

Trey Koziol enters his first season as Director of Player Personnel with the Bears in 2024 after joining the club as Co-Director of Player Personnel in 2022.

Over his last first two seasons with the Bears, Koziol and the personnel department have implemented strategic practices related to roster construction and the enhancement and development of football operations. As a result, the Bears experienced a four-win improvement in 2023 compared to the season prior, while ranking among the league's leaders on both sides of the ball. Last season, Chicago owned the league's top-ranked rush defense (86.4 yards per game), allowing the fewest rushing first downs in the league (88) and finished the season with the No. 2 rushing offense in the NFL (141.1 yards per game).

Koziol also supported a personnel department that made the decision to acquire eventual Pro Bowl defensive lineman Montez Sweat in-season before the 2023 trade deadline, as well as orchestrated a trade with the Carolina Panthers in advance of the 2023 NFL Draft that netted prominent draft pick compensation for years to come, as well as wide receiver DJ Moore who went on to lead the Bears with a career-high 1,364 receiving yards in 2023.

Upon returning to the Chicagoland area, Koziol brought over a decade of NFL front office experience to the Bears, most recently serving as the Director of College Scouting for the Kansas City Chiefs in 2021. Prior to his promotion, Koziol worked as a National Scout (2018-20) and Area Scout (2013-17) for the Chiefs. Over his nine seasons with Kansas City, Koziol and the personnel staff helped the Chiefs accumulate six AFC West Division titles, two AFC Championships and one World Championship after defeated the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl LIV in the 2019 season.

Before joining the Chiefs in 2013, Koziol spent four years as a Pro Scout for the Tennessee Titans (2009-12). He first began his NFL career in 2008, working as an intern for the Titans. With Tennessee, Koziol helped scout future Titans opponents and assessed talent in all professional leagues, including the NFL, the CFL and the AFL. He also helped coordinate free agent visits and tryouts and monitored NFL transactions.

A Hinsdale, Ill., native, Koziol attended Hinsdale Central High School before attending Boston College where he played tight end from 2003-07, playing alongside of General Manager Ryan Poles. Following his playing career, Koziol returned to Boston College, where he earned a bachelor's degree in history, serving the football program as a graduate assistant in 2008 before joining the Titans.

Matt
ADMINISTRATION

Prior to joining the Bears in 2022, Feinstein spent seven years as an integral piece of the NFL's Management Council. Feinstein was promoted to Director of Labor Operations following tenures as a Manager (2016-18), then Senior Manager (2018-22), for the league's primary council of governance.

In his six years in a managerial role for the NFL Management Council, Feinstein constructed quantitative models of collectively bargained roster and salary rules, refined and improved models for time-sensitive analyses and distilled results into summaries for senior management within the NFL, as well as Club management and ownership.

Feinstein joined the NFL Management Council in 2015, serving as an Analytics Assistant. In his initial role, Feinstein executed League-wide player transactions, reconciled salary caps and ensured compliance with League rules. He also worked to identify trends in player transactions, roster management, player contracts and club spending, among other tasks.

A graduate of the University of Michigan (2010), Feinstein earned his bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering. Prior to the NFL, Feinstein spent six years at Lux Research in New York, where he worked as an analyst (2010-13) before his promotion to Senior Analyst for his remaining three years with the organization (2013-15).

While serving as a Senior Analyst for Lux Research, Feinstein began his career in sports, contributing as a writer to Bloomberg Sports (2013-14).

Breck
ACKLEY
SCOUTING

Breck Ackley enters his second season as Director of College Scouting for the Chicago Bears and his 14th season overall with the club.

Prior to his promotion, Ackley served as the Assistant Director of College Scouting, a position he took over before the 2022 season. Ackley initially joined the Bears in 2012 as an Area Scout, covering the middle of the country for two seasons before spending eight seasons in the Southwest region. In 2022, Ackley was one of 10 NFL Scouts honored with the inaugural BART Award, recognizing the NFL's top scouts.

Before transitioning his career to the personnel side, Ackley spent two seasons as a graduate assistant coach, first at his alma mater, Southern University (2010), followed by one season at Southeastern Louisiana University (2011).

Ackley was a standout punter and kicker at Southern University (Baton Rouge, La.) from 2003-06, where he graduated as the program's all-time leading scorer. As a senior, Ackley was named First-Team I-AA All-American by the American Football Coaches Association as a punter and chosen First-Team All-Southwest Athletic Conference as a kicker.

A native of Lake Charles, La. Ackley and his wife Amanda have three children – a daughter, Blair, and two sons, Rhett and Cameron.

D.J.
HORD
DIRECTOR OF PRO SCOUTING

D.J. Hord enters his second season with the Chicago Bears in 2025 serving as the Director of Pro Scouting.

Hord joined the Bears in 2024 after spending seven seasons on the personnel staff of the Seattle Seahawks. In his final season with Seattle, Hord served as the Assistant Director of Pro Personnel. Hord initially joined the Seahawks as a Pro Scouting intern in 2017, a position he held for two seasons, before spending four seasons (2019-22) as a Pro Personnel Scout.

Prior to the NFL, Hord spend 2013-17 as the Director of Football Operations at the University of Northern Iowa where he served the football program in a number of capacities, after spending 2012-13 as a graduate assistant, working with wide receivers and returners.

A native of Kansas City, Mo. Hord began his college playing career as a wide receiver for Notre Dame (2006-07) where he received and undergraduate degree. Following his graduation from Notre Dame, Hord finished his playing career at Northern Iowa (2008-09) while he earned his master's degree.

Francis
SAINT PAUL
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

School: Northern Arizona University

Hometown: Los Angeles, Calif.

Francis Saint Paul enters his second season as Assistant Director of College Scouting for the Chicago Bears, and his 14th season overall with the club.

Saint Paul joined the Bears as an Area Scout in 2012, before being elevated to National Scout in 2016, Senior National Scout in 2022, then to his current role in 2024. Before joining the Bears, Saint Paul spent five seasons at his alma mater, Northern Arizona University, on the coaching staff. Saint Paul commenced his career as a graduate assistant in 2007, before earning a full-time role the following spring, working primarily with wide receivers.

After being drafted by the St. Louis Rams in the sixth-round of the 2001 NFL Draft, Saint Paul spent three seasons in the NFL with the Rams, Steelers, Jaguars and Panthers. Saint Paul's NFL career came after a standout career with Northern Arizona as a two-sport athlete. At the time of his graduation, Saint Paul ranked top-10 in receiving touchdowns, receptions and receiving yards in Lumberjack history. Along with his success on the football field, Saint Paul was a standout on the track winning the 2000 Big Sky Conference title in the 100-meter dash.

HEAD COACH

Hometown: Asheville, N.C.

Johnson most recently served as Offensive Coordinator (2022-24) in Detroit, where his 2024 unit averaged a franchise-record 409.5 yards per game, helping the Lions average a league-high 32.4 points per game and accumulate 68 total offensive touchdowns – the most by any team in the NFL. Each of his three seasons coordinating Detroit's offense (2022-24), Johnson's group has finished in the top-five in the league in total offense each year, including a No. 2 ranking in 2024. Over the last two seasons (2023-24), no unit has averaged more points per game (30.1) or net yards per game (402.2) than Johnson's offensive unit with the Detroit Lions.

Following his promotion to Offensive Coordinator in 2022, Johnson helped the Lions secure eight wins out of their last 10 matchups to close out the year. One season later (2023), Johnson's group finished No. 3 in the NFL in total offense (394.8) and No. 2 in passing offense (258.9), finishing the season in the NFC Championship Game and as a finalist for AP NFL Assistant Coach of the Year. With the aid of Johnson's leadership of the offense, Detroit accumulated a franchise-record 15 regular-season wins in 2024, ranking No. 2 in the NFL in both total offense (409.5) and passing offense (263.3), while owning the third-best red-zone touchdown percentage (69.4 pct.) and fourth-best third-down conversion rate (47.6) in the league. Johnson spent six total seasons with the Lions, starting in 2019 in an Offensive Quality Control capacity, before being elevated to Tight Ends Coach in 2020, holding that role for two seasons. In his first seasons coaching the tight ends, Johnson's tutelage helped second-year TE T.J. Hockenson earn his first-career Pro Bowl selection after ranking top-five in the league in receiving yards (third), receiving first downs (third) and receptions (fourth) among tight ends.

Prior to Detroit, Johnson served seven seasons on the staff of the Miami Dolphins, working under three different head coaches. Over his seven years in Miami, Johnson worked in the capacities of Offensive Assistant (2012), Assistant Quarterbacks Coach (2013-15), Tight Ends Coach (2015), Assistant Wide Receivers Coach (2016-17) and Wide Receivers Coach (2018).

Working with the Dolphins wide receivers, Johnson aided a group that featured Pro Bowl WR Jarvis Landry who set a franchise-record with an NFL-best 112 receptions in 2017, one season after helping Miami secure 10 wins and reach the postseason. As Wide Receivers Coach in 2018, Johnson helped guide WR Albert Wilson to accumulate an average of 12.9 yards after catch, the second-highest rate among all NFL players.

Prior to his time with the wide receivers, Johnson served as Assistant Quarterbacks Coach (2013-15), before being promoted to Tight Ends Coach following staff realignment in 2015. In 2014, QB Ryan Tannehill became just the second Dolphins passer to throw for 4,000 yards in a single season. Starting with the Dolphins as an Offensive Assistant in 2012, Johnson aided a unit that ranked fourth in the AFC in rushing touchdowns (15).

Johnson entered the coaching ranks as a Graduate Assistant at Boston College (2009-10), spending three years in Chestnut Hill, including the 2011 season as Tight Ends Coach.

A native of Asheville, N.C., Johnson was a walk-on quarterback at the University of North Carolina, earning degrees in mathematics and computer science. Johnson and his wife, Jessica, have three children – Emory, Kennedy and Halle.

Dennis ALLEN DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

School: Texas A&M University
Hometown: Hurst, Texas

Dennis Allen joins the Bears in 2025 to coordinate Chicago's defense.

Allen enters his 30th season in the coaching profession with the Bears after most recently serving as the Head Coach of the New Orleans Saints (2022-24), having held the role of defensive play-caller for the Saints since the middle of the 2015 season, holding the role of Defensive Coordinator until his promotion to Head Coach of the Saints in 2022. In each of his final four full seasons calling the defense, the Saints were the only team to rank top-10 in points per game allowed every season.

A two-time NFL Head Coach, first with the Oakland Raiders in 2012, then again with the New Orleans Saints in 2022, six of his 23 NFL coaching seasons have been in a Head Coach capacity, with an additional eight seasons as a Defensive Coordinator. Over his 14 full seasons with the Saints, Allen contributed to six NFC South Division titles, including the 2009 season which culminated in a World Championship following a victory in Super Bowl XLIV.

Over his final four full seasons leading New Orleans' defense, including the last two as Head Coach, the Saints had three seasons finishing top-10 in total defense, including two seasons in the top-five (2020 and 2022), owning the second-best pass defense in the NFL in 2022 (184.4), his first season as Head Coach. Over his 23 years of coaching in the NFL, Allen has worked with 18 players who have combined for 36 Pro Bowl selections and has coached two AP NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year winners and three eventual members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

In 2023, Allen led a Saints defense that ranked No. 8 in the NFL in opponent points per game (19.2) and ninth in points per game (23.6), the Saints were one of five teams to finish in the top ten in both categories, helping guide the Saints to win four of their last five games, as the team turned in a 9-8 performance, narrowly missing a playoff berth. In addition to finishing eighth in the NFL in scoring defense, New Orleans ranked first in opponent third down and short percentage (40.7) and passes defended (99), tied for third in interceptions (18), ranked fourth in opponent third down percentage (34.5) and tenth in pass defense (207.3). Leading the charge defensively was LB Demario Davis, who led the team in tackles for the sixth consecutive season, was selected to his second consecutive Pro Bowl and voted an AP All-Pro for the fifth consecutive season.

In his first year as head coach of the Saints in 2022, Allen guided New Orleans to wins in three of their final four games and allow 20 or fewer points in the final eight contests of the season, including ten points apiece in each of the final three contests. Under Allen's supervision, New Orleans ranked second in the NFL in pass defense (184.4), fifth in total defense (314.8), tied for fifth in sacks (48), ranked sixth in opponent red-zone touchdown percentage (50.0) and ninth in scoring defense (20.3).

In 2021, his final season as defensive coordinator before being promoted to head coach, Allen's unit ranked first in the NFL in opponent red-zone touchdown percentage (43.5), finishing No. 2 in the league in opponent first downs (304) and opponent rushing first downs (84), respectively. New Orleans' streak of 22 regular season/postseason contests without allowing a 100-yard rusher at the end of the season was the longest in the NFL. With 25 takeaways and a plus-seven turnover ratio, Allen's defense was instrumental in leading the Saints to their fifth consecutive winning season. Allen handled Head Coach Sean Payton's head coaching duties in a December win over the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as Payton was sidelined due to COVID-19 protocols. Allen's 2020 unit finishing tied for first in interceptions (18), ranked fourth in opponent net yards per game (310.9) and opponent rushing yards per game (91.3), fifth in opponent net passing yards per game (217.0) and opponent points per game (21.1) and eighth in sacks (45). The 139 points given up on the road by New Orleans were the fewest in the NFL and the third-lowest total by the club since the start of a 16-game regular season schedule in 1978. New Orleans did not allow a 100-yard rusher until Week 14 of the season, marking an NFL record of 55 games (postseason included) of not giving up 100 yards to an individual.

The 2019 Saints ranked third in the league in sacks, recording 51 takedowns and finished fourth in run defense at 91.3 yards rushing per game. In 2018, the Saints boasted the second-best run defense in the NFL, allowing just 80.2 rushing yards per game and 3.6 yards per carry.

Allen coordinated a Saints defense in 2017 that finished third in the league in interceptions (20), tied for seventh in sacks (42) and ranked tenth in opponent points per game (20.4) after ranking 31st in 2016. Away from home, New Orleans surrendered only 18.3 points per game, tied for sixth in the NFL, with their 146 road points given up tied for the fifth-lowest total by the club since the start of a 16-game schedule in 1978. Allen oversaw a defense that featured first-team All-Pro DE Cam Jordan who posted 13 sacks and Lattimore, who led rookies with five interceptions and garnered AP Defensive Rookie of the Year honors, as both defenders earned Pro Bowl recognition. In 2016, Allen's group surrendered only 90.6 rushing yards per game over the final 13 weeks of the season, ranking sixth-best in the NFL over that period. After starting the 2015 season as the club's senior defensive assistant, Allen assumed coordinator duties in Week 11. As New Orleans rallied to win three of their final four contests, Allen's unit contributed to finishing strong as the defense surrendered 35.1 total net yards per game below the overall season average, including 25.1 fewer yards per game in stopping the run. New Orleans also held opponents to a season-low 17 points in two of the final four contests.

Prior to his return to New Orleans, Allen served as the Head Coach of the Oakland Raiders from 2012-14. In his second season at the helm, Allen guided a defense that recorded 38 sacks, 13 more than 2012. Allen's group limited opposing offenses to just five runs of 20-or-more yards, tied for the fewest in the league, and kept opponents to less than two yards per carry three times.

Allen spent the 2011 season as Defensive Coordinator of the Denver Broncos, leading a defense that propelled Denver to win the AFC West Division title and advance to the AFC Divisional Round with a win in the AFC Wild Card Round. The defense produced four Pro Bowl selections as rookie linebacker Von Miller joined CB Champ Bailey, S Brian Dawkins and DE Elvis Dumervil on the AFC squad. Miller set what was the team's rookie record with 11.5 sacks en route to AP NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year honors. The Broncos' 41 sacks marked the unit's most since 2000.

Allen spent five seasons with New Orleans as an assistant from 2006-10 before returning in 2015. His first opportunity leading an NFL position group arose in 2008 with the Saints, elevating from Assistant Defensive Line Coach (2006-07) to Secondary Coach (2008-10) in New Orleans. In his second season as Secondary Coach, Allen's tutelage with the defensive backfield helped the Saints finish the season as World Champions following a victory in Super Bowl XLIV.

Allen contributed to a defensive coaching staff that engineered significant improvement from 2009-10, when the club went 2-4-8 in the regular season, qualified for the playoffs both times and captured Super Bowl XLIV. Under Allen's direction in 2010, the Saints allowed an NFL-low 13 touchdown passes, while New Orleans ranked fourth in both opponent net yards per game (306.3) and pass defense (193.9) and fifth in opponent third down efficiency (34.5). Safety Roman Harper was selected to his second consecutive Pro Bowl and cornerback Jabari Greer recorded two interceptions with one brought back for a touchdown. In 2009, Allen tutored a secondary that played a key role in helping the Saints to the club's first Super Bowl victory. A revamped unit accounted for an NFL-high five interception returns for touchdowns and totaled 21 picks with two starters being selected to the Pro Bowl. Opposing quarterbacks managed a meager 68.6 passer rating against the Saints, which ranked No. 3 in the NFL. While serving as assistant defensive line coach from 2006-07, Allen helped develop a unit that ranked as one of the defense's strengths. During that stretch, the front four combined for 49.5 sacks, ten forced fumbles and ten recoveries.

Allen's first NFL coaching tenure occurred in 2002, where he spent the next four seasons aiding the defensive staff of the Atlanta Falcons in Defensive Quality Control and Defensive Assistant capacities, spending time working with secondary and the defensive line. In 2004, Allen led the NFL for the first time in club history with 48 sacks, and in 2002, Allen's first year with the Falcons, he assisted in coaching the defensive backfield, as Atlanta tied for third in the NFL with 24 interceptions. Allen entered the coaching ranks at his alma mater, Texas A&M, as a graduate assistant in 1996, working with the defensive backs, before rising to Secondary Coach at Tulsa (2000).

A native of Hurst, Texas, Allen prepped collegiately at Texas A&M, starting each of the final 21 games of his career at safety for the Aggies. Following his collegiate career, Allen signed with the Buffalo Bills as an undrafted free agent, spending training camp with the club.

Allen and his wife, Alisson, have two children – Layla and Garrison.

Declan
DOYLE
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

School: University of Iowa
Hometown: Iowa City, Iowa

Doyle assumes the role of Offensive Coordinator after most recently leading the tight ends group of the Denver Broncos (2023-24). This past season, Doyle's work with the Broncos tight ends served as a beneficiary for the development of rookie quarterback Bo Nix, as the Broncos reached the postseason after ranking top-10 in the NFL in points per game (25.0, 10th) and red-zone touchdown percentage (62.5, 7th). Doyle's first season in Denver included aiding Head Coach Sean Payton's staff that helped the Broncos secure the most wins by the franchise in a single season since 2016.

Prior to Denver, Doyle spent four years as an Offensive Assistant with the New Orleans Saints (2019-22). Over his four seasons with New Orleans, the Saints totaled a 41-25 (.621) record, securing NFC South Division titles in each of his first two seasons. Doyle supported an offense that totaled eight players being named to a combined 12 Pro Bowls over the four seasons.

Over his first two seasons in New Orleans, the Saints averaged 28.3 offensive points per game in the two-year span, the second-best rate among all NFL offenses. Doyle's assistance with the offense in 2020 helped New Orleans average 30.1 points per game, the fifth-best mark in the NFL, as the Saints amassed a league-leading 30 rushing touchdowns, setting a single-season franchise record. The Saints averaged 28.6 points per game in 2019, tied for the third-best rate in the NFL, owning the seventh-best passing offense in the league (265.3). New Orleans also ranked top-10 in the league in yards per play (5.92, sixth) and first downs per game (21.7, eighth), as the Saints turned the ball over just eight times on offense the entire season, the then-lowest single-season mark by an NFL team since the NFL-AFL merger in 1970 (Buffalo, 2024).

Prior to breaking into the NFL coaching ranks, Doyle spent three years as an Offensive Student Assistant at the University of Iowa (2016-18). Doyle's responsibilities included aiding Iowa's staff with practice execution and film breakdown of upcoming opponents for the preparation of the offensive staff. Over his three seasons on staff at Iowa, the Hawkeyes posted a combined 25-14 (.641) record and finished with a winning record in each season, participating in three-straight bowl games.

A native of Iowa City, Iowa, Doyle earned a bachelor's degree in business management from Iowa in 2018. Before transferring to Iowa, Doyle played baseball at Iowa Western Community College, where he was a team captain (2015).

Richard HIGHTOWER SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

School: University of Texas
Hometown: Houston, Texas

Richard Hightower enters his fourth season as the Chicago Bears special teams coordinator in 2025 and his fifth year overall in Chicago after previously serving as the club's assistant special teams coach in 2016. Hightower has 18 years of NFL coaching experience, including stops with the Houston Texans (2006-08), Washington Commanders (2010-13), Cleveland Browns (2014), San Francisco 49ers (2015; 2017-21) and Chicago Bears (2016; 2022-present).

Under Hightower's consistent leadership, three separate Bears received NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors, marking the second time in franchise history that at least three separate individuals were recipients of the award in a single season. Hightower's group featured the continued success of K Cairo Santos, who set a new single-season franchise record with a career-high eight made field goals of 50-plus yards, highlighted by a game-winning 53-yard field goal in Week 18 to defeat the division-rival Packers in Green Bay. Rookie P Tory Taylor arrived and made his impact felt, as Hightower's leadership of the group helped Taylor set franchise records for both net punting average (41.6) and gross punting average (47.7) in a single season, finishing tied for fourth in the NFL with 34 punts downed inside of the opponent's 20-yard line. Taylor played a key role in the Bears victory over the Los Angeles Rams in Week 4, leading him to earning Player of the Week honors after dominating field position and putting the Bears defense in an advantageous position. His 55.4 yards per punt put the Bears in prime field position throughout the entirety of the game. Hightower also guided TE Cole Kmet (Week 6) and DB Josh Blackwell (Week 18) to earn NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors. Blackwell logged the first punt returned for a touchdown by the Bears since the 2021 season, a 94-yard return score in Week 18 that tied for the third-longest punt return touchdown in team history. Kmet honorably fulfilled long-snapping duties in Chicago's Week 6 win over the Jaguars in London. Hightower's crew also secured two blocked punts in 2024, the most by any team in the league. The two blocked punts marked the first time that the club has had multiple blocked punts in a single season since 2008. The first blocked punt was returned for a touchdown by DB Jonathan Owens for the Bears' first touchdown of the year. The touchdown sparked momentum for the Bears to overcome a 17-point deficit in the third quarter. In Week 12 vs. Minnesota, Chicago recovered an onside kick in the fourth quarter, making Chicago's special teams unit the first team in the league to successfully recover an onside kick this season. In the return phase, Hightower guided a unit that featured WR DeAndre Carter handling return duties, registering a 31.9-yard kickoff return average, the second-highest rate in the NFL among all returners with at least 15 kickoff returns in 2024.

In 2023, the club saw a career-year from kicker Cairo Santos. He went 35-38 on field goals and 31-33 on extra points on the season and set the Bears single-season record for field goals. He also set career-highs in field goals made, points scored (136) and field goals made from 50+ yards (seven). Santos was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Month in November. In the return game the Bears finished top five in the NFC in kickoff returns (18, second), kickoff return yards (470, third) and kickoff return average (26.1, fourth).

In Hightower's first year as the Bears special teams coordinator, the Bears finished as one of the top special teams units across the league in several categories: they led the NFL in fewest penalties committed, were second in the NFL in special teams takeaways, second in the league in kickoff return average (fifth in drive start position), second in the NFL in opponent field goal percentage, third in the NFL in tackles inside the 20-yard line on kickoff while also posting the third-highest net punt average in Bears history.

Individually, Santos connected on 21-of-23 field goal attempts (91.3%). In doing so, he became the most accurate kicker in Bears history (min. 80 attempts), knocking in 78-of-87 (89.7%) field goals in a Bears uniform. Newcomer Trenton Gill finished the 2022 regular season logging 66 punts and compiled a 46.0 average (40.3 net). Gill's net average is the third-highest single-season net average dating back to 1920, and the 46.0 average was the fourth-highest single-season average in franchise history. In the return game, Jones showed growth as a kick returner, producing an average of 27.6 yards on 22 returns, good for the 12th-highest single-season kick return average in Bears history (min. 15 attempts).

Prior to his arrival in Chicago, Hightower spent the 2017-21 seasons in San Francisco as the club's special teams coordinator. During the 2021 season, the 49ers' special teams played a key role in the team's postseason run to the NFC Championship game. In the divisional round win at the Packers, Hightower's unit blocked a punt for a touchdown late in the fourth quarter to tie the game, and also converted on the game-winning field goal as time expired. They also blocked a field goal as time expired going into halftime to keep it a one-possession game. Then to open the second half, Deebo Samuel set the 49ers up with great field position with a 45-yard kickoff return.

Punter Mitch Wishnowsky had an outstanding year in 2021. He earned his second-career NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honor following Week 2 after his outing against the Eagles where he recorded two punts that pinned Philadelphia inside their own 10-yard line, neither resulting in points, and finished the day with five punts for 226 yards (45.2 average) with three landing inside the 20. He also earned NFC Special Teams Player of the Month honors for September. That month, Wishnowsky registered 11 punts for 515 yards (46.8 average), including a long of 59. Those 11 punts were returned for a total of only 19 yards and of his 11 punts, six landed inside the opposition's 20-yard line. Wishnowsky and special teamer Trenton Cannon also were named Pro Bowl alternates following the 2021 season.

From 2017-20, the 49ers kicking unit tied for second in the NFL in made field goals (124) and fifth in field goal percentage (88.6). In addition, San Francisco's punt coverage ranked second over that time span, holding opponent punt returns to an average of 6.2 yards per return.

In 2020, Hightower helped Wishnowsky record the ninth-most punts inside the 20-yard line (25) in the NFL while finishing in the top-12 in both net (41.6, 12th) and gross (46.9, 11th) average. Kicker Robbie Gould converted 19 of 23 field goals (82.6 percent) and earned NFL Special Teams Player of the Week honors in Week 12.

In 2019, Hightower led the 49ers special teams unit that had an average starting field position of the 32.1-yard line, ranking second in the NFL. San Francisco also held opponents to an average starting field position of the 24.7-yard line, which ranked seventh. Kicker Robbie Gould connected on 23 of 31 field goal attempts and finished the season with 110 points, marking his third-consecutive 100-or-more point season with the 49ers. He was also named Special Teams Player of the Month for December for the third-consecutive season since joining the 49ers in 2017. Wishnowsky registered a 44.9 punt average which ranked second among all rookies in franchise history (min. 20 punts) and wide receiver Richie James Jr. ranked seventh in the NFL in punt return average (8.0) and 10th in kickoff return average (21.4).

Under Hightower in 2018, San Francisco's special teams units flourished. Gould set the 49ers single-season franchise record for field goal percentage (97.1), as he connected on 33 of 34 field goal attempts and finished the season with 126 points. He also set the franchise record for most consecutive field goals made (33) and finished the season connecting on each of his final 23 attempts. Gould was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Month for December and was a two-time recipient of the NFC Special Teams Player of the Week Award (Week 2 & 15). Rookie James Jr. was named All-NFC kick returner by the PFWA as he averaged 25.2 yards per kickoff return, which ranked seventh in the NFL. James Jr. also registered the team's first kickoff return for a touchdown (97 yards) since 2011.

In 2017, the 49ers special teams units excelled under Hightower's guidance. In his first season with the 49ers, Gould had a career year, leading the NFL with a career-high 39 made field goals and finishing third in the NFL with a career-high 145 points. Gould's 39 made field goals were the second-most in a single-season in franchise history (K David Akers - 44 made field goals in 2011) and tied for the third-most in a single-season in NFL history. P Bradley Pinion set a career high with a 41.3 net punting average and the punt coverage unit ranked second in the NFL, allowing 4.2 yards per return. The 4.2 opponent punt return average was the eighth-best in the NFL since 2001.

As an assistant special teams coach with Chicago in 2016, the Bears kickoff coverage team finished seventh in the NFL in opponent drive

start average. Kickoff returner Deonte Thompson led the NFL in kickoff returns with 35 and ranked second with 810 yards. Punt returner Eddie Royal scored on a 65-yard touchdown on Monday Night Football against the Philadelphia Eagles, while cornerback Sherrick McManis led the Bears in special teams tackles and finished top 10 in the NFL, recording 13 stops.

In 2015, Hightower first joined San Francisco as an assistant special teams coach. That season, Hightower helped the 49ers punt coverage unit rank eighth in the NFL allowing just 6.4 yards per return, while working with rookie punter Bradley Pinion. Kicker Phil Dawson was 10th in the NFL with an 88.9 field goal percentage (tied for the fourth highest percentage of his 17-year career at the time).

Hightower spent the 2014 season working on offense in Cleveland assisting the wide receivers after working as an assistant special teams coach for four seasons in Washington (2010-13). With Washington, he worked under longtime special teams coordinator Danny Smith. Hightower also spent two seasons (2012-13) as the assistant defensive backs coach with Washington. Over his four seasons in Washington, they ranked third in the NFL in kickoff coverage, allowing just 21.2 yards per return, including leading the league in 2010 and 2011. Hightower's coaching on special teams helped linebacker Lorenzo Alexander lead the NFL with 21 special teams tackles en route to being named the NFC's special teams player in the Pro Bowl, in 2012. Hightower was also instrumental in the development of first-year kicker Kai Forbath, who broke an NFL record by hitting his first 17 field goal attempts and led the NFL with a 94.4 field goal percentage.

As assistant defensive back coach, Hightower helped the unit rank sixth in the NFL in interceptions (37) and tied for second in the NFL in interception returns for touchdowns (seven) over the two-year span. DeAngelo Hall led the NFL in defensive touchdowns (three). In 2012, Washington ranked first in the NFC in passes defended and had four returned touchdowns.

From 2006-08, Hightower was on Houston's coaching staff as a coaching assistant (2006-07) before being elevated to special teams assistant (2008). In Houston, he served under widely respected then-special teams coordinator Joe Marciano, who had more than 30 years of experience coaching special teams at the time. In 2008, Houston was 11th in the NFL in kickoff coverage (22.3 yards per return). Punt returner Jacoby Jones finished fifth in the NFL and second in Houston single-season annals with a 12.1 average, including a franchise single-season record two punt return touchdowns. Kicker Kris Brown set franchise records for points (124), field goals made (29) and field goal percentage (87.9). In 2007, the kickoff return unit featuring wide receiver's Jerome Mathis and Andre Davis became only the fourth team in NFL history to score four touchdowns on kickoff returns in a single season.

In between his time in Houston and Washington, Hightower spent the 2009 season as wide receivers coach at the University of Minnesota. Under his tutelage, wide receiver Eric Decker was named a First-Team All-Big Ten selection that season before being selected by the Denver Broncos in the third round (87th overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft.

A native of Houston, Hightower earned his bachelor's degree in marketing from the University of Texas where he was a three-year letterman and special teams standout for the Longhorns. He went to Austin as an academic scholar and later earned an athletic scholarship after walking on. Following his senior season, then-head coach Mack Brown and his staff voted Hightower the D. Harold Byrd Leadership Award winner.

Hightower and his wife, Lanet, have two sons, Jaxson and Kaden, and a daughter, Reagan.

Antwaan
RANDLE EL
ASSISTANT HEAD COACH / WIDE RECEIVERS

School: University of Indiana
Hometown: Riverdale, Ill.

Antwaan Randle El enters his first season with the Bears in 2025.

A two-time Super Bowl champion, both as a player (Super Bowl XL) and coach (Super Bowl LV), Randle El was a nine-year NFL veteran at wide receiver, appearing in over 150 career games (postseason included), before commencing his coaching career in 2019.

Randle El returns to his hometown of Chicago after spending the last four seasons leading the wide receiver group of the Detroit Lions. Over his four seasons with Detroit, Randle El contributed to two NFC North Division titles, while aiding in the development of a wide receiver group that featured several two-time AP First-Team All-Pro and three-time Pro Bowler Amon-Ra St. Brown.

In 2024, Randle El's aid of the Lions' offense helped Detroit average a franchise-record 409.5 yards per game, as the team averaged a league-high 32.4 points per game and accumulated 68 total offensive touchdowns – the most by any team in the NFL. Randle El's wide receiver group helped the unit own the No. 2 passing offense in the NFL (263.2), as Detroit's 7 drops over the entire regular season were the fewest by any team in the NFL and the fewest by any team since 2019 (Atlanta, 7). St. Brown earned his second-straight AP First-Team All-Pro acknowledgment and third-straight Pro Bowl nod, becoming just third player in NFL history to record at least 115 receptions and 10 receiving touchdowns in consecutive seasons, including a career-high 12 receiving scores in 2024.

Randle El's work in 2023 helped the Lions reach the NFC Championship game after finishing the regular season with the No. 2 passing offense (258.9) and No. 3 total offense (394.8) in the NFL. Under Randle El's tutelage, St. Brown became just the third Lions wide receiver to earn AP First-Team All-Pro honors after leading the NFL in 100-yard receiving games (nine) and tying for the second-most receptions by any player in the league (1009).

Over his first two seasons in Detroit, Randle El aided in the development of St. Brown, while also grooming a group that would eventually earn two-straight division titles. In 2022, the Lions' wide receiving corps finished top-10 in receptions (383), receiving yards (4,444), receiving first downs (228), receiving touchdowns (29), receptions of over 25 yards (35) and yards after catch (2,217). Under Randle El's direction, the Lions were one of five teams to have six players record over 350 receiving yards. Over the 2021-22 seasons, St. Brown tied an NFL record by producing at least eight receptions in eight-straight games. In their first season together, Randle El helped St. Brown set a team-record with six-straight games of at least eight receptions, becoming the first rookie in NFL history to do so.

Prior to Detroit, Randle El spent two seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2019-20), working as an Offensive Assistant. In his second season, the Buccaneers defeated the Kansas City Chiefs in Super Bowl LV to claim his second World Championship, first as a coach. Over his two seasons with the Buccaneers, Randle El aided an offense that ranked No. 1 in the NFL in passing offense (307.8 yards per game) and totaled 119 offensive touchdowns, a league-high. He also worked Tampa Bay's wide receiver group, which featured WR Mike Evans securing over 1,000 receiving yards each season.

As a player, Randle El totaled 4,467 yards on 370 receptions (12.1 avg.) and 15 receiving touchdowns in 143 career games played (71 starts) in the regular season for the Pittsburgh Steelers (2002-05, '10) and with Washington (2006-09). In 2005, Randle El's career-high 15.9 yards per reception helped Pittsburgh reach the postseason, where he started all four postseason bouts for the Steelers en route to a World Championship by defeating the Seattle Seahawks in Super Bowl XL. Randle El, who added six passing touchdowns and six touchdowns via kickoff and punt returns, was selected by the Steelers in the second round of the 2002 NFL Draft.

Randle El, a former quarterback, prepped collegiately at Indiana University, earning first-team All-America and Big Ten Conference Most Valuable Player honors following his final season in 2001. Over his tenure in Bloomington, earned All-Big Ten honors on three occasions, leaving college as the FBS' all-time leader in rushing yards by a quarterback. A former Big Ten Freshman of the Year honoree, the annual award is now named after Randle El. Randle El also spent time on the basketball and baseball teams at Indiana, playing under Hall of Fame coach Bobby Knight on the hardwood. Randle El was inducted into the Indiana Athletic Hall of Fame in 2012.

Before entering the coaching ranks, Randle El served as the Athletic Director at Virginia Academy in Ashburn, Va., a Christian high school that he helped found.

A native of Riverdale, Ill., Randle El graduated from nearby Thornton Township High School in Harvey, Ill., and, in 1997, was selected by the hometown Chicago Cubs in the 14th round (424th overall) of the Major League Baseball Draft.

Randle El is married to his wife, Jaune, and they are parents to six children.

Matt
APONTE

Hometown: Staten Island, N.Y.

Aponte most recently served as Offensive Coordinator / Quarterbacks at the University of San Diego (2023-24), where he was the youngest Offensive Coordinator in Division I FCS. Over his two seasons leading the Toreros offense, Aponte's unit averaged over 360 net yards per game, second-most in the Pioneer Football League. Over his two seasons as Offensive Coordinator, 14 Toreros earned all-conference honors.

Last season, Aponte coordinated a San Diego offense that featured QB Grant Sergent totaling a conference-best 26 passing touchdowns, as well as WR Ja'seem Reed, who was named PFL Offensive Player of the Year after totaling 77 receptions for 1,052 yards and 12 receiving touchdowns. USD reached eight wins, the most victories by the program in a single season since 2019. In 2023, his first season leading the offense, Aponte was integral in the development of true freshman QB Don Nankil, who was ultimately named a finalist for the Jerry Rice Award, presented annually to the most outstanding player in the FCS. On the ground, the RB Isaiah Williams averaged 108.6 yards per game, ranking top-10 in the nation. Aponte was elevated to Offensive Coordinator / Quarterbacks after spending two seasons as Tight Ends Coach at San Diego.

In advance of his second season as Offensive Coordinator / Quarterbacks, Aponte was named to Coaching Network's 30 Under 30 Class for 2024.

Prior to San Diego, Aponte spent seven seasons at the University of Iowa (2014-20). Starting as a Player Personnel Assistant in 2014, Aponte served as an Offensive Assistant for the Hawkeyes (2017-18) over the latter half of his undergraduate tenure. Following graduation, Aponte was promoted to Assistant Quarterbacks Coach in 2019, a role he would hold for two seasons. Over his tenure in Iowa City, Aponte helped the Hawkeyes claim 60 victories, three-straight bowl wins (2017-19) and a Big Ten West title (2015).

Over his career, Aponte has also accumulated experience as a Scouting and Operations Intern, working with the Kansas City Chiefs in advance of the 2015 and 2016 seasons.

A native of Staten Island, N.Y., Aponte earned a bachelor's degree in Sport and Recreation Management from Iowa in 2018.

BARRETT
QUARTERBACKS

School: Ohio State University
Hometown: Wichita Falls, Texas

J.T. Barrett joins the Bears' staff in 2025 as Quarterbacks Coach. A former All-Big Ten quarterback, Barrett has spent the last three seasons on the offensive staff of the Detroit Lions, most recently serving as Assistant Quarterbacks Coach (2023-24).

Barrett arrives in Chicago after helping the Lions' offense average a franchise-record 409.5 yards per game in 2024, averaging a league-high 32.4 points per game and accumulating 68 total offensive touchdowns – the most by any team in the NFL. The Lions, led by QB Jared Goff, ranked No. 2 in the NFL in both total offense (409.5) and passing offense (263.2), as Barrett's work with Goff helped the veteran QB reach single-season career-highs in passer rating (111.8), completion percentage (72.4) and passing touchdowns (37) in 2024. Barrett was elevated to Assistant Quarterbacks Coach in 2023, where he helped Goff lead the NFL in passing first downs (227), throwing for the second-most passing yards by any QB in the NFL (4,575). Under Goff's leadership, the Lions captured their first division title since 1993 and reached the NFC Championship Game for the second time in team history. Over his last two seasons as Assistant QBs Coach (2023-24), no unit averaged more points per game (30.1) or net yards per game (402.2) than the Lions.

Over his three seasons in Detroit, the Lions captured two NFC North Division titles, earning an NFC Championship Game berth in 2023 and reached a franchise-record 15 regular-season wins in 2024.

Barrett joined the Lions in 2022 as an Offensive Assistant, working under first-year offensive coordinator, and current Bears Head Coach, Ben Johnson, and helping Detroit secure eight wins out of their final 10 games to close out the year.

Prior to entering the coaching ranks, Barrett was a three-time First-Team All-Big Ten Conference quarterback at Ohio State, earning Big Ten Quarterback of the Year honors on three occasions, including the 2016 season where he was named Big Ten Most Valuable Player. Over his four seasons of action Ohio State (2014-17), Barrett started 44-of-50 career games at quarterback for the Buckeyes, totaling the 104 passing touchdowns, 147 total offensive touchdowns and 12,697 total offensive yards – all Ohio State and Big Ten Conference all-time records.

Barrett became the first-ever three-time team captain in Ohio State history and is the only quarterback from either Ohio State or Michigan to go 4-0 against their rival in the storied annual game. Barrett was named Big Ten Freshman of the Year, Big Ten Quarterback of the Year in 2014 and Heisman Trophy finalist, leading the Buckeyes to an 11-1 record, before sustaining an injury. Ohio State would go on to secure the first College Football Playoff National Championship.

Eric
BIENIEMY
RUNNING BACKS

School: University of Colorado
Hometown: West Covina, Calif.

With 25 years of coaching experience and two Super Bowl titles, Bieniemy arrives in Chicago after most recently serving as Assistant Head Coach and Offensive Coordinator at UCLA in 2024, following one season in a similar capacity with the Washington Commanders in 2023.

Prior to Washington, Bieniemy spent 10 seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs, five years as Offensive Coordinator (2018-22) following a five-season tenure coaching the running backs (2013-17). In his time with the Chiefs, Bieniemy oversaw the development of QB Patrick Mahomes, aiding a staff that propelled Kansas City to the postseason on nine occasions, claiming seven AFC West Division titles, appearing in five-straight AFC Championship Games with three trips to the Super Bowl, winning two World Championships with victories in Super Bowl LIV and Super Bowl LVII.

In his final season with Kansas City (2022), Bieniemy helped the Chiefs lead the league in scoring (29.2 points per game), tie a franchise record with 14 wins, secure the AFC's No. 1 seed in the postseason and win Super Bowl LVII, as Mahomes earned his second AP NFL Most Valuable Player award after setting a new career-high with 5,250 passing yards to lead the NFL. Paired with 41 passing touchdowns, Mahomes became the second player in NFL history (Drew Brees) to secure multiple seasons with 5,000-yard passing yards and 40-plus touchdowns. TE Travis Kelce had the second-most receiving yards of his career (1,338), tallying his seventh straight 1,000-yard season, an NFL record by a tight end. In 2021, Bieniemy continued to lead the Kansas City Chiefs offense to finish in the top five in multiple NFL categories including, third down conversion percentage (1st: 52.2), first downs (1st: 419), yards per game (3rd: 396.8), points per game (4th: 28.2) and offensive touchdowns (5th: 53) en route to the team's sixth-straight AFC West title. QB Patrick Mahomes continued to add to his NFL resume, adding 4,839 passing yards on 436 completions and 37 touchdowns. WR Tyreek Hill (111) and TE Travis Kelce (92) each finished the season with more than 90 receptions, marking the first time in franchise history that a pair of teammates each recorded 90+ receptions in the same season. The 2020 Kansas City Chiefs offense led the NFL in multiple categories including, net passing yards per game (303.4), yards per game (415.8) and first downs (397), capturing the club's fifth-straight AFC West title and second-straight Super Bowl appearance. Mahomes became the fastest QB to record 100 career passing touchdowns, doing so in just 40 games. TE Travis Kelce set an NFL record for a tight end with 1,416 receiving yards, extending his NFL record to five-straight seasons with at least 1,000 yards receiving. WR Tyreek Hill had 1,276 receiving yards and 15 touchdown receptions, tying the franchise record, while rookie RB Clyde Edwards-Helaire recorded 803 rushing yards finishing fourth among all rookies.

Under Bieniemy, the Chiefs finished the season with a World Championship, the team's first Super Bowl victory in 50 years. The Super Bowl champion Chiefs offense finished in the top-10 in total yards per game (379.2), passing yards per game (281.1), yards per play (6.22) and points per game (28.2). In his second year as the starter, Mahomes became the fastest quarterback in NFL history to reach 9,000 passing yards and 75 touchdowns, doing so in just 30 games. Kelce became the fastest TE to reach 500 career receptions in NFL history, and became the first TE in NFL history to record back-to-back 1,200 receiving yards seasons. Hill became the fastest wide receiver in Chiefs history to record 4,000 career receiving yards, tallying 4,054 receiving yards in 58 games. In his first year as offensive coordinator, Bieniemy oversaw one of the most prolific offenses in Chiefs history as the club finished 12-4 in 2018, earning its third-consecutive AFC West Division title en route to hosting the first AFC Championship Game in team history. Mahomes was named the AP NFL Most Valuable Player after passing for 5,097 yards and 50 touchdowns in just his first season as a starting quarterback. Kelce ranked second among NFL tight ends with 1,336 receiving yards, and Hill's 1,479 single-season receiving yards ranked first in Chiefs history.

Under Bieniemy's tutelage in 2017, rookie RB Kareem Hunt rushed for an NFL-best 1,327 yards, setting a Chiefs rookie record. From 2013-15, he mentored RB Jamaal Charles, who, in 2014, recorded 1,000 rushing yards for the fifth time in his career. Charles became the all-time leading rusher in franchise history and finished his Chiefs career with 7,260 career rushing yards. In 2013, under Bieniemy, Charles led the NFL in touchdowns (19) and first downs (104) and ranked second in yards from scrimmage (1,980 yards), recording the most receiving yards by a running back in Chiefs history, leading the AFC in rushing (1,287 yards).

Prior to returning to the NFL coaching ranks, Bieniemy spent two seasons (2011-12) at his alma mater, the University of Colorado, which was preceded by a tenure coaching running backs with the Minnesota Vikings (2006-10). In his five seasons with Minnesota, the Vikings produced a 1,000-yard rusher each year, while his stable of running backs broke the 100-yard mark 31 times in 80 regular season games. In 2006, he coached RB Chester Taylor, who rushed for 1,216 yards. The following season, Taylor and RB Adrian Peterson combined for 2,185 yards (1,341 by Peterson, who was All-Pro as a rookie). Peterson set a then-Vikings record with 1,760 yards in 2008, earning the Bert Bell Award as the Pro Football Player of the Year. Overall, Peterson totaled 5,782 rushing yards and 52 touchdowns in four seasons under Bieniemy's guidance.

Bieniemy elevated to the NFL ranks after three seasons as the running backs coach at UCLA (2003-05). While at UCLA, Bieniemy tutored former NFL RB Maurice Jones-Drew for three seasons at UCLA, where Jones-Drew earned Freshman All-America honors in 2003, before rushing for 1,007 yards in 2004 and earning consensus All-America honors as a kick returner in 2005.

Following his NFL playing career, Bieniemy served as an assistant at Thomas Jefferson High in Denver, prior to securing his first job as running backs coach with Colorado. In his first two seasons coaching the position, the Buffaloes ranked in the top-10 in the nation in rushing.

A second-round selection (39th overall) by the San Diego Chargers in the 1991 NFL Draft, Bieniemy would go on to play nine seasons in the NFL, appearing in 142 career games for the Chargers (1991-94), Cincinnati Bengals (1995-98) and Philadelphia Eagles (1999). In 1994, Bieniemy helped lead the Chargers to an AFC Championship and an appearance in Super Bowl XXIX.

The West Covina, Calif., native is married to his wife, Mia, and the couple have two sons, Eric III and Elijah.

School: University of Alabama at Birmingham
Hometown: Birmingham, Ala.

Blevins brings 21 years of coaching experience, including a decade on NFL sidelines, to Chicago. Prior to spending a portion of the 2024 season with the Birmingham Stallions of the UFL, Blevins spent five years with the Arizona Cardinals (2013-17) as their Assistant Special Teams Coach, before a five-season tenure with the New York Giants (2018-22) in a variety of roles, working with the special teams units, linebackers and defensive backs over his tenure with New York.

Blevins aided a Birmingham Stallions defense that propelled the team to their third-straight league championship, first as a member of the United Football League. The Stallions started the 2024 season winning each of their first eight games, holding opponents to less than 20 points in each of their first five outings. Closing out the season strong, Birmingham's defense held the opposition again to less than 20 points in both postseason games, including a 25-0 shutout victory in the UFL Championship over the San Antonio Brahmas.

Over his five seasons with the Giants, Blevins occupied a variety of roles on New York's coaching staff. Bookending his tenure with the Giants in an assistant special teams capacity, Blevins transitioned to Assistant Defensive Backs Coach in 2020, before moving to tutor the linebackers in an Assistant Linebackers / Special Teams Assistant role in 2021. Returning to coach special teams for New York in 2022, Blevins aided a Giants team that made the postseason and defeated the Minnesota Vikings in an NFC Wild Card tilt to earn a berth in the NFC Divisional Round. In 2021, Blevins contributed to a linebackers group that featured LB Tae Crowder leading the team with 130 tackles, as rookie LB Azeez Ojulari set the franchise's rookie record with eight sacks. The Giants also held opponents to a league-low 17.8 yards per kickoff return, as Gano kicked a Giants-record seven field goals of 50+ yards. As Assistant Defensive Backs Coach in 2020, the Giants' pass defense jumped from 28th in the league in 2019 to a tie for 16th, as CB James Bradberry was selected to his first Pro Bowl after tying for second in the NFL with 18 passes defended.

Over his first two seasons with New York, the Giants were fourth and 10th, respectively, in the NFL in punt (9.8 yards) and kickoff (23.5 yards) return average, as his group led the league in 2019 by allowing an average return of just 18.1 yards per kickoff return and the punt coverage team was tied for fifth as opponents averaged only 5.7 yards a return. In his first season with New York, Blevins' unit featured K Aldrick Rosas, who was selected to the Pro Bowl and was named AP Second-Team All-Pro after making 32 of 33 field goal attempts. Blevins also helped mentor S Michael Thomas, who was selected to his first Pro-Bowl following the season.

Before his time with the Giants, Blevins spent five years with the Arizona Cardinals as a Coaching Assistant / Special Teams Coach. Blevins contributed to a staff that helped special teamer Justin Bethel get selected to three consecutive Pro Bowls (2013-15) after leading the team in special teams tackles each season. In 2013 and 2015, Bethel was named first-team All-NFL by the Pro Football Writers Association. All-Pro K Chandler Catanzaro tied the NFL record for the most consecutive field goals to begin a career (17) and established a franchise rookie record with 114 points in 2014. The following season, Catanzaro finished third in the NFL with 137 points, which was also the second-highest single-season total in franchise history. In 2017, Blevins coached rookie S Budda Baker, who was selected as the NFC special teams representative in the Pro Bowl. Baker led the Cardinals with 16 special teams tackles and was selected All-Pro by the AP and the Pro Football Writers Association.

Blevins spent the 2012 season as the Cornerbacks Coach at his alma mater, the University of Alabama at Birmingham, which followed three seasons at Tennessee State University (2009-11) where he coached special teams and tutored the cornerbacks. Over his tenure, Blevins also served as the Recruiting Coordinator at the University of Tennessee at Martin (2008), where he also led the cornerbacks group. Blevins entered the collegiate coaching ranks in 2005 at Mississippi State University, serving as a Graduate Assistant.

Returning to Chicago in 2025, Blevins previously took part in the NFL's Bill Walsh Minority Coaching Fellowship, spending time with the Bears in 2024 and 2008, as well as with the Cardinals (2010) and Indianapolis Colts (2011).

Blevins, who started his coaching career at Meadowcreek High School in Gwinnett, Ga., in 2003, played professionally for the Mobile Admirals of the Regional Football League (1999), the Birmingham Steeldogs of AFL2 (2000) and for the Birmingham Thunderbolts in the XFL from 2000-01.

A native of Birmingham, Ala., Blevins graduated from UAB in 1998 with a bachelor's degree in sociology and later earned a master's in instructional technology in 2006 from Mississippi State. In 2015, Blevins returned to Mississippi State, where he earned a PhD in instructional systems & workforce development.

Zach
CABLE

School: University of Idaho
Hometown: Renton, Wash.

Zach Cable is in his third season with the Bears in 2025. Cable possesses seven years of coaching experience, including six seasons in the NFL. Prior to Chicago, Cable spent a year at Northern Colorado (2022) and had a four-year stint with the Raiders (2018-21). During the 2024 season, Cable worked primarily with an offense line that aided QB Caleb Williams to Bears rookie records across all major passing statistics. In 2023, Cable helped the Bears record 2,399 rushing yards on the season, ranking second amongst all NFL teams. Before joining the Bears, Cable worked as the outside linebackers coach at the University of Northern Colorado during the 2022 season. Prior to that, he gained his first years of NFL experience working as an offensive and defensive assistant with the Raiders from 2018-21, where he worked with the offensive line, tight ends and linebackers. In his final season in Las Vegas in 2021, the Raiders qualified for the playoffs for the second time since the 2003 season. Cable played defensive lineman at the University of Idaho. He graduated from Idaho with degrees in Organizational Sciences and General Studies with a minor in Psychology. He is the son of former NFL coach Tom Cable.

Kyle
DEVAN
ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

School: Oregon State University
Hometown: Vacaville, Calif.

DeVan, a former NFL offensive lineman who started at right guard for the Indianapolis Colts in Super Bowl XLIV, has spent over a decade coaching offensive fronts, most recently leading the offensive line at his alma mater, Oregon State University (2024).

Last season, DeVan led an offensive front featuring Gerad Lichtenhan, who was named the top offensive lineman in the conference, and Joshua Gray, who was selected to play in the East-West Shrine Bowl. DeVan's group helped the Beavers start the 2024 slate with four victories in their first five outings.

Prior to returning to Corvallis, DeVan spent one season as the Associate Head Coach / Offensive Line / Run-Game Coordinator at Charlotte (2023). With DeVan's leadership, the 49ers would go on to average over 145 rushing yards per game in 2023, as offensive lineman Kevin Williams earned All-American Athletic Conference recognition.

Before Charlotte, DeVan led the offensive line at the University of Colorado, where his front allowed just 23 sacks on the season, the second-fewest sacks allowed by any team in the conference.

DeVan spent one season as an Offensive Analyst at the University of Michigan (2021), working with the offensive line. With DeVan's aid, the Wolverines offensive front earned the Joe Moore Award, which is presented annually to the nation's top offensive line, helping pave the way for the program's first College Football Playoff berth, finishing the season ranked No. 3 in the nation. In 2021, all five regular starting offensive linemen for Michigan finished the season with All-Big Ten Conference honors.

Prior to Michigan, DeVan had a two-year tenure as Run Game Coordinator / Offensive Line Coach at the University of Arizona (2019-20). DeVan led the offensive line and coordinated the run game for the Wildcats, as the unit averaged over 170 yards per game rushing in 2019, third-best in the conference. DeVan's first opportunity to lead an offensive line group occurred in 2016 at Ball State University, a role he would hold for three seasons (2016-18), adding Assistant Head Coach responsibilities for the final two seasons.

Following his playing career, DeVan entered the coaching ranks at Oregon State in 2013, working with the tight ends group as a Graduate Assistant, before spending one season at the University of Southern California (2014) and serving as Assistant Offensive Line Coach with the New Orleans Saints in 2015.

DeVan appeared in 40 regular-season games (26 starts), as well as four postseason starts, along the offensive front for the Indianapolis Colts (2009-10), Philadelphia Eagles (2011) and Tennessee Titans (2012) after entering the league as an undrafted free agent with Washington in 2008. A four-year letter-winning offensive lineman at Oregon State (2004-07), DeVan capped his tenure with the Beavers with three All-Pac-10 Conference recognitions, earning second-team honors in 2006. Oregon State went 38-24 over his tenure in Corvallis, appearing in four bowl games. DeVan was twice nominated for the Rimington Trophy, which is awarded to the top center in college football.

Jim
DRAY
TIGHT ENDS

School: Stanford University
Hometown: Paramus, N.J.

Jim Dray enters his fourth season with the club in 2025.

Dray enters his eighth season overall in coaching, having made additional stops with the Arizona Cardinals (2020-21), Cleveland Browns (2019) and at his alma mater, Stanford University (2018).

In 2024, Dray led a tight end group that served as an outlet helping rookie QB Caleb Williams set Bears all-time rookie and franchise passing records. TE Cole Kmet led the group with 474 receiving yards on 47 receptions, 25 going for first downs and four touchdown grabs. Among tight ends in Bears history, Kmet moved to second in receptions (258), second in first down receptions (129, since 1994), third in touchdowns (19) and fourth in receiving yards (2,592). TE Mercedes Lewis continued to be a veteran presence, breaking the all-time NFL record for games played at tight end, finishing the season with 285 career games played.

In his second year coaching the tight ends, Dray's unit saw a career year from fourth-year tight end Cole Kmet. He accounted for 719 receiving yards on 73 catches (9.8 avg.) with six receiving touchdowns. His 719 receiving yards were the second-most among Bears pass-catchers in 2023. On the season, Kmet set career-highs in catches (73) and yards (719). His six touchdowns were his second most in a season in his career (7, 2022). Among all tight ends in the NFL in 2023, Kmet ranked tied for second in receiving touchdowns (6), tied for seventh in receptions (73), eighth in first downs (36) and ninth in receiving yards (719). Dating back to the start of the 2000 season among Bears tight ends, Kmet 2023 season ranked second in receptions and third in receiving yards, touchdowns and in first downs (33). All-time among Bears tight ends, Kmet ranks third in receptions (211), and fourth in touchdowns (15), first downs (104) and receiving yards (2,118). Veteran tight end Mercedes Lewis also provided leadership to the group in 2023. With his start against the Cardinals, Lewis passed Aaron Rodgers for most the starts by an active player (225). He is one of only three tight ends in NFL history to start 200+ regular season games and post 400+ receptions (436) (Gonzales & Witten). He also ranks first in games played (268) among active players. Against the Falcons in Week 17, Lewis caught his first touchdown of the season and 40th of his career. He had four catches for 29 yards with one touchdown in 16 games with four starts.

Dray completed his first season as the Bears tight ends coach in 2022, where he aided in the development of Kmet, who finished the season with a career-best seven touchdown receptions -- tied for the third-most among all tight ends in the NFL. Kmet's seven touchdowns were also the fifth-most touchdown receptions by a Bears tight end in a single season. He also led the team in receiving yards, totaling 544 yards on 50 catches (10.9 avg.).

Prior to his arrival in Chicago, Dray completed his second season in Arizona in 2021 as an offensive quality control coach. The Cardinals finished 11-6 during the 2021 season, good for second in the NFC West, and earned an NFC wild card berth. The Cardinals' offense finished fifth in the NFC in points per game (26.4) and fourth in yards per game (373.6).

Dray began his coaching career at his alma mater, Stanford, as an offensive assistant in 2018 prior to working as an offensive quality control coach with the Cleveland Browns in 2019.

An eight-year NFL veteran, Dray was selected by the Cardinals in the seventh round (233rd overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft out of Stanford. He also played with Cleveland (2014-15), Buffalo (2016) and San Francisco (2016). He appeared in 94 career games (38 starts) and finished his career with 56 receptions for 605 yards (10.8 avg.) and three touchdowns.

Dray started 39 career games at Stanford and had 41 receptions for 455 yards and seven touchdowns, earning second-team All-Pac 10 honors as a senior while helping the Cardinals finish 11th in the nation in rushing yards per game that season (218.2).

A native of Paramus, N.J., Dray was named first team All-Bergen County, All-North New Jersey, all-league, as well as second-team All-State as a junior and senior at Bergen Catholic (Oradell, N.J.) High School. He finished his prep career with 66 receptions for 786 yards and five touchdowns, earning MVP honors in the 2003 state championship game.

Dray and his wife, Kelly, have a daughter, Leighton.

Jeremy
GARRETT
DEFENSIVE LINE

School: Ole Miss University
Hometown: Senatobia, Miss.

A coaching veteran of over 15 years at the NFL, collegiate and high school levels, Garrett arrives in Chicago to lead the defensive line group after most recently serving as the Defensive Line Coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2024.

Last season, Garrett's work with the Jaguars front yielded immediate results, as DE Travon Walker totaled a career-high 10.5 sacks to lead the unit, as DE Josh Hines-Alen registered his fourth-straight season with at least 10 tackles for loss, the longest streak in franchise history, and DT DaVon Hamilton graded out as one of the best run defenders in the NFL. In a Week 5 win over Indianapolis, Walker collected a career-high three sacks, before logging the fourth-longest fumble recovery for a touchdown by a defensive lineman in club history (35 yards) in Week 9. At season's end, Hines-Alen reached 63 career tackles for loss, setting the all-time franchise record.

Prior to Jacksonville, Garrett spent two seasons at the collegiate level, first leading the defensive line at Liberty University (2022), before joining the staff at Auburn University (2023) as Defensive Line Coach for the Tigers. At Liberty, Garrett led a unit that led the country in tackles for loss (121), as DE Durrell Johnson collected 22.5 TFLs, the most by any player in the nation. Following his season at Liberty, Garrett led an Auburn front that featured DT Marcus Harris, who earned First-Team All-SEC recognition and DL Keldric Faulk, who was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team, as the Tigers ranked in the top-half of the conference in sacks.

Garrett spent two seasons as the Assistant Defensive Line Coach for the Cleveland Browns (2020-21), helping the Browns reach the postseason and earn an AFC Wild Card Round victory in 2020. In his two seasons with the Browns, DE Myles Garrett earned AP First-Team All-Pro honors, as his career-high 16.0 sacks in 2021 set a new franchise single-season record. As a unit, the Browns finished the season ranked top-five in the NFL in total defense (5th, 311.5 yards per game), the highest finish by a Browns defense since 1987.

Before entering the NFL ranks, Garrett spent one season as a Defensive Quality Control at Vanderbilt University (2019), where he worked with the Commodores' defensive front.

Garrett's coaching tenure began at the high school level, first at Southaven High School (Miss.), where he served as an assistant coach (2010), before spending eight years at Nashville's Ensworth High School (Tenn.), elevating to Head Coach in 2018. Garrett served in a variety of roles over his first seven years at Ensworth, including Associate Director of Admissions, Assistant Track and Field Coach and Fitness Department Chair, on top of being a Defensive Assistant Coach. In his one season as Head Coach, Garrett led Ensworth to the Quarterfinal Round of the Division II-AAA Playoffs.

A four-year letter-winning defensive lineman at Ole Miss (2004-07), Garrett collected Ole Miss Lifter of the Year and Chuck Mullins Courage Award honors during his time with the Rebels. Garrett graduated with a bachelor's degree in business from Ole Miss in 2007 and later earned his MBA from Harding University (Ark.) in 2010.

Garrett and his wife, Shay, has two sons - Jayden and Jacob - and one daughter - Grace.

GIORDANO
ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE BACKS /
SAFETIES

School: University of California
Hometown: Clovis, Calif.

Matt Giordano enters his first season with the Bears in 2025.

A nine-year NFL veteran, Giordano joins the Bears as Assistant Defensive Backs / Safeties Coach after serving the last two seasons as a Defensive Assistant with the New Orleans Saints, primarily working with the secondary.

Prior to entering the NFL coaching ranks in 2023 with New Orleans, Giordano spent one season as a volunteer assistant at Fresno State University (2022). Giordano entered the coaching ranks at his alma mater, Buchanan High School in Clovis, Calif., where, after initially joining the staff in 2015 as Defensive Coordinator, elevated to Head Coach in 2016, where he led the program for the next six seasons. Over his six seasons at the helm, amassed a 51-16 record.

Before his coaching tenure, Giordano played nine seasons in the NFL as a defensive back. A fourth-round selection (134th overall) by the Indianapolis Colts in the 2005 NFL Draft, Giordano appeared in 116 career games for the Colts (2005-08), Green Bay Packers (2009), New Orleans Saints (2010), Oakland Raiders (2011-12) and St. Louis Rams (2013), totaling 202 tackles, one sack, 11 interceptions, including two returned for touchdowns, 16 passes defended, two forced fumbles, 52 special teams tackles and one coverage fumble recovery. Giordano also totaled seven postseason appearances over his playing career, including a World Championship in 2006 (Super Bowl XLI).

Giordano played two seasons at the University of California (2003-04), earning First-Team All-Pac-10 honors as a senior in 2004, after two seasons at Fresno City College (2001-02).

A native of Clovis, Calif., Giordano was inducted into the Fresno Athletic Hall of Fame in 2019. Giordano and his wife, Laura, have three children – Addison, Logan and Brooklyn.

Al
HARRIS
PASS GAME COORDINATOR /
DEFENSIVE BACKS

School: Texas A&M University Kingsville
Hometown: Pompano Beach, Fla.

Al Harris enters his first season with the Bears in 2025.

A 15-year NFL veteran in the secondary, earning All-Pro honors and two Pro Bowl selections as a cornerback, Harris has spent the last 13 seasons as a coach, most recently serving as Assistant Head Coach / Defensive Backs for the Dallas Cowboys in 2024, a role that he was elevated to after leading Dallas' secondary since 2020. Over the last four seasons, Harris' Cowboys defensive backs helped Dallas own the most interceptions by any team in the NFL over the four-year span, amassing a league-high 72 interceptions from 2021-24.

Harris' guidance helped the Cowboys own the No. 5 and No. 8-ranked pass defense in the NFL in 2023 (187.4) and 2022 (200.9), respectively. On top of success as a unit, Harris has been instrumental in the development of CB Trevon Diggs and the continued growth of CB DaRon Bland. Under Harris, Diggs accumulated two Pro Bowl selections and an AP First-Team All-Pro nod (2021), as Bland set an NFL record with five interceptions returned for a touchdown in 2023, while also leading the league in interceptions (nine). In 2021, Diggs secured an NFL-best 11 interceptions, tied for the most by any player in a single season in Cowboys history, en route to an All-Pro acknowledgement with Harris' support. Diggs became the first Cowboys cornerback to earn Pro Bowl recognition in back-to-back years since Hall of Famer Deion Sanders (1996-99). As a rookie in 2020, Diggs led all Cowboys defenders in interceptions (three) and passes defended (14).

Prior to Dallas, Harris spent one season as a Defensive Assistant at Florida Atlantic University (2019) following a six-year stretch with the Kansas City Chiefs. Starting as a Defensive Assistant in 2013, Harris contributed to a Chiefs team that went to the playoffs in five of his six seasons, collecting three AFC West Division titles, including an AFC Championship appearance in 2018. Coaching the defensive backfield, Harris oversaw a group that finished top-10 in the league in interception all but one of his six seasons, including a No. 1 ranking in 2016 (19 interceptions) and a top-three finish in both 2013 (T-3rd, 21), and 2015 (2nd, 22). Under Harris' guidance, Marcus Peters totaled 19 interceptions in his three seasons with the Chiefs (2015-17), the most by any player in the NFL over that span. Harris entered the coaching ranks in 2012 as a Coaching Intern with the Miami Dolphins.

Harris played 15 seasons in the NFL, appearing in over 200 career games (postseason included), tallying 21 interceptions for the Philadelphia Eagles (1998-2002), Green Bay Packers (2003-09), Miami Dolphins (2010) and St. Louis Rams (2011) after being selected by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1997. A member of the Green Bay Packers Hall of Fame, Harris earned two Pro Bowl selections (2007 and '08) and was an AP Second-Team All-Pro selection in 2007 in 2007 with the Packers. Harris started his career on the Tampa Bay practice squad in 1997, before signing with Philadelphia in 1998, appearing as the team's nickel cornerback for five years and playing in two NFC Championship games (2001 and 2002). Harris finished his playing career with one season each in Miami (2010) and with the St. Louis Rams (2011).

Prior to the NFL, Harris led the defensive backfield at Texas A&M-Kingsville (1995-96), where he was a first-team All-Lone Star Conference selection in 1996 after starting his tenure at Trinity Valley Community College in Athens, Texas, where he was a member of a National Championship team.

Bill
JOHNSON
SENIOR DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT / DEFENSIVE LINE

School: Northwestern State University
Hometown: Monroe, La.

A veteran coach, Johnson has 45 years of coaching experience including 18 seasons coaching NFL defensive lines. Most recently he spent three seasons coaching in the USFL/UFL with the Birmingham Stallions and the Houston Roughnecks. He helped the Stallions capture two league championships, winning the USFL in 2022 and the UFL in 2024.

Before coaching in the professional spring leagues, Johnson spent three seasons at LSU, first as the defensive line coach (2019-21) then as a defensive analyst. During his three seasons in Baton Rouge, the Tigers went 26-12, highlighted by a 15-0 record en route to winning the College Football Playoffs National Championship. In 2019 he helped lead a group that finished third in the SEC. Johnson coached DL Rashard Lawrence to Second-Team All-SEC honors to anchor the group.

Johnson's last stint in the NFL came as the defensive line coach for the Rams (2017-18). In his two seasons with the Rams, they captured back-to-back division titles for the first time since 1978-79 and advanced to their first Super Bowl since 2002. In 2018, the Rams finished the season tied for the best record in the NFL (13-3) advancing all the way to Super Bowl LIII. In 2018, Rams DT Aaron Donald posted a career-high 20.5 sacks, tied for the eighth most in an NFL season since the stat became official in 1982. The historic season propelled him to his second consecutive Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year Award, becoming one of just eight players to win the award multiple times. Donald also won the award in 2017, becoming the first player in Rams history to be honored with that award and the first DT to be named DPOY since 1999.

Prior to his time with the Rams, Johnson spent eight years in charge of the Saints' defensive line (2009-16). In 2015, DE Cameron Jordan became the ninth player in team history to record multiple seasons with double-digit sacks. In addition, under Johnson's guidance, Jordan earned two Pro Bowl appearances. In his third NFL season in 2012, Jordan finished fifth in the NFL with 12.5 sacks. In Johnson's debut season with the Saints in 2009, DE Will Smith finished the year fifth in the NFL with a career-high 13.0 sacks en route to a Super Bowl XLIV victory.

In his stop before New Orleans, Johnson spent the 2007-08 seasons as the defensive line coach with the Denver Broncos and a six-year stint in Atlanta as defensive line coach of the Falcons (2001-06). With his help, the Falcons led the NFL in sacks during the 2004 season, eventually advancing to the NFC Championship game. Johnson led DE Patrick Kerney to three double-digit sack seasons and a 2004 Pro Bowl selection. He also led DT Rod Coleman to a 10.5 sack season and Pro Bowl appearance in 2005.

Before entering the NFL ranks, Johnson spent 21 seasons coaching at the collegiate level with his final 13 seasons in that stretch as a defensive line coach. His stops included: two seasons at Louisiana Tech (1988-89), three seasons over two stints at Arkansas (1990-91, 2000) and eight seasons at Texas A&M (1992-99). With the Aggies, he mentored nine defensive linemen who were drafted into the NFL. Johnson's prior coaching stops included Miami (Fla.) (1987), McNeese State (1985-86), and his alma mater Northwestern State (1980-84).

Before coaching, Johnson played offensive line at Northwestern State from 1976-79, including two seasons as the starting center. Johnson is a Monroe, La., native. Johnson and his wife, Dawn have two children – Billy, who works in the Rams personnel department and Abby who works for NBC.

Kevin
KOCH
ASSISTANT LINEBACKERS

School: Minnesota State University
Hometown: Elmhurst, Ill.

Kevin Koch enters his fourth season with the Bears and first as Assistant Linebackers Coach in 2025.

Prior to being elevated to Assistant Linebackers Coach in 2025, Koch spent the last two seasons with Chicago in a Defensive Quality Control capacity after initially joining the Bears as a Coaching Assistant in 2022.

Last season, Koch's work with the defense helped the Bears register five red-zone takeaways in 2024, tied for third-most by any team in the NFL. Chicago also finished the season ranking third in the NFL in opponent red-zone touchdown percentage (46.0). Primarily working with the linebackers, Koch aided a unit that featured LB Tremaine Edmunds and LB T.J. Edwards each logging over 100 total tackles, becoming one of just four pairs of duos to record at least 100 tackles on the same team each of the last two seasons (IND: Franklin/Speed, CIN: Pratt/Wilson, JAX: Lloyd/Oluokun). With Koch's assistance, Edmunds ranks No. 10 in the NFL in total tackles since 2018, as Edwards owns the second-most tackles by any NFC defender since the start of the 2023 season (282).

In 2023, his first year as a Defensive Quality Control, Koch aided a Bears defense that limited the opposition to an average of just 86.4 rushing yards per game, the No. 1 rushing defense in the NFL, and collected the most interceptions in the league (22). Edwards finished 2023 with a career-high 153 total tackles (90 solo), as he led or shared the lead in tackles for the Bears in 11 games, as Edmunds totaled four interceptions to go along with his 113 total tackles (69 solo). Developing the entire linebacker room, rookie LB Noah Sewell would appear in 13 games for the Bears.

Prior to elevating to Defensive Quality Control, Koch spent his first season with the Bears as a Coaching Assistant in 2022, serving as an integral part of the coaching staff's day-to-day operation and weekly game preparations.

Koch joined the Bears after five years at Northwestern University (2017-21). After spending his first two seasons as a Graduate Assistant, was promoted to Defensive Quality Control Analyst for his final three years with the Wildcats. Over his five seasons at Northwestern, the Wildcats reached the Big Ten Conference Championship Game twice (2018, '20) and earned three bowl victories. In his first season, Northwestern posted a 10-3 record with a victory in the Music City Bowl, before helping the Wildcats win the Big Ten West in 2018, adding a win in the Holiday Bowl to close out his second season with the program.

Before his tenure at Northwestern, Koch spent one season at Benedictine (Ill.) University (2016), serving as Special Teams Coordinator, while also coaching the running backs and tight ends. Koch also oversaw Benedictine's recruiting efforts in the Chicagoland area.

Koch entered the coaching ranks in 2012 as a Graduate Assistant at Robert Morris University (Ill.), before returning to his alma mater, Minnesota State University Moorhead, in 2014, spending two seasons working with the defensive backs and special teams units.

A native of Elmhurst, Ill., Koch earned a bachelor's degree in exercise science from Minnesota State University Moorhead, before achieving a master's in management of sports administration from Robert Morris University (Ill.), then later gaining a second Master's degree from Northwestern University in 2019.

Cannon
MATTHEWS
NICKELS

School: Ohio University
Hometown: Bedford Heights, Ohio

Cannon Matthews enters his first season with the Bears in 2025. Matthews joins Chicago's staff in a Defensive Assistant – Nickels capacity.

Most recently, Matthews spent the previous five years on the staff of the Dallas Cowboys, starting as a Defensive Quality Control in 2020, elevating to Assistant Defensive Backs Coach in 2023, then to Safeties Coach in 2024. Over the final four of his five years with Dallas, the Cowboys' secondary helped the unit total the most interceptions by any team in the NFL over the four-year span, amassing a league-high 72 interceptions from 2021-24. Matthews' work with the defensive backs helped the Cowboys own the No. 5 and No. 8-ranked pass defense in the NFL in 2023 (187.4) and 2022 (200.9), respectively. Individually, Matthews' group featured the development of CB Trevon Diggs, who accumulated two Pro Bowl selections and an AP First-Team All-Pro nod (2021) during his time with Matthews on staff, as well as the continued growth of All-Pro CB DaRon Bland, who, in 2023, set an NFL record for the most interceptions returned for a touchdown in a single season (five) while leading the league in interceptions. In 2021, Diggs secured an NFL-best 11 interceptions, tied for the most by any player in a single season in Cowboys history, en route to an All-Pro acknowledgment. As a rookie in 2020, Diggs led all Cowboys defenders in interceptions (three) and passes defended (14).

Prior to his time with Dallas, Matthews spent three years as a Quality Control / Defense with Washington following one season as Assistant Defensive Backs Coach with the Cleveland Browns (2016). With Cleveland, the secondary registered 10 interceptions, as the 2016 season marked Matthews' third tenure with the Browns after previously serving as a Defensive Intern with Cleveland in 2013, where the unit ranked top-10 in the NFL in total defense (9th, 332.4 yards per game), and first as a Personnel Intern in 2007. Between coaching stints with Cleveland, Matthews spent two seasons as a Defensive Quality Control with the Tennessee Titans (2014-15), working with the linebackers. In his first season with Tennessee, 18 different Titans registered a full sack, a single-season team record and NFL best. The following season, the Titans defense ranked seventh in the NFL in passing defense (229.9 yards per game).

Matthews spent the 2012 season as Running Backs Coach at Kentucky Christian University, as the Knights posted a 7-4 record, registering the first winning season in program history. After accumulating experience as a Personnel Intern in 2007 with the Buffalo Bills and the first part of 2008 as a Personnel Intern with the Arizona Rattlers of the AFL, Matthews spent four years on the coaching staff of the Buffalo Bills. Matthews joined Buffalo's staff as a Defensive / Special Teams Assistant in 2008, spending two seasons in that role, before moving to the offensive side as an Offensive Assistant in 2010, where he aided the Bills' offensive coaching staff for two seasons.

A native of Bedford Heights, Ohio, Matthews earned a bachelor's degree in sports management from Ohio University.

Kenny
DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

School: Azusa Pacific University
Hometown: Bellevue, Wash.

Kenny Norton III enters his third season with Chicago in 2025, serving in the role of Defensive Assistant.

Norton completed his second season with the Bears in 2024, and his first season as a Defensive Quality Control, after joining the team in 2023 as a Coaching Assistant. Over his two seasons with the Bears, Chicago's defense registered 33 interceptions, second-most by any unit in the NFL over the two-season span.

In 2024, Norton served as a Defensive Quality Control, aiding the coaching staff with the day-to-day operation, while helping tutor Chicago's secondary. As a defense, the Bears registered five red-zone takeaways in 2024, tied for third-most by any team in the NFL. The Bears also finished the season ranking third in the NFL in opponent red-zone touchdown percentage (46.0). Chicago's defended helped the Bears close out the season with a Week 18 road victory over the Green Bay Packers, one week after limiting the Seattle Seahawks to just six points scored on Thursday Night Football. A stalwart in the secondary, DB Jaylon Johnson was named to his second-straight Pro Bowl in 2024.

Norton joined the Bears in 2023 as a Coaching Assistant, tasked with providing integral assistance with weekly game preparations and practice plans, as well as with the day-to-day operation. Working with the defensive coaching staff and the defensive line, Norton helped a Bears unit that limited the opposition to an average of just 86.4 rushing yards per game, the No. 1 rushing defense in the NFL, and collected the most interceptions in the league (22).

Before his tenure with the Bears, Norton spent one season as a Football Analyst at UCLA (2022), following one season with the Seattle Seahawks (2021). With Seattle, Norton, who initially joined the staff as a Bill Walsh Coaching Fellow during Training Camp, earned a full-season role as Defensive Assistant. Norton entered the coaching ranks at La Salle College High School in Pasadena, Calif., where he served as Director of Football Operations for the program and worked with the secondary.

Norton prepped collegiately at Azusa Pacific University (2013-17), where he played defensive back. Over his final three seasons, Norton appeared in 33 games for the Cougars, graduating with a bachelor's degree in business administration and management. Norton would later earn a Master's degree in sports management from the University of San Francisco in 2020.

A native of Santa Monica, Calif., Norton attended Issaquah High School in Bellevue, Wash. Before entering the coaching ranks, Norton spent three years working for NFL Media as a production assistant (2019-21).

Robbie
PICAZO
OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT-QBS & WRS

School: Stanford University
Hometown: Rancho Santa Margarita, Calif.

Picazo owns 12 years of coaching experience, including three years in the NFL and nine at the collegiate level. Picazo came to the Bears after spending the previous two seasons as an offensive assistant with the Seattle Seahawks (2023) and Houston Texans (2022).

In 2024, Picazo helped QB Caleb Williams break the Bears rookie records in every major passing statistic. Williams threw just seven interceptions during his rookie campaign, tying the franchise record for fewest interceptions thrown in a season (min. 10 QB starts), it was also the fourth fewest by a rookie QB in NFL history (min. 13 QB starts). Picazo also helped lead a wide receiver room that produced three players with at least 700 receiving yards; WR DJ Moore (966), WR Keenan Allen (744) and rookie WR Rome Odunze (734).

Prior to his time in the NFL, Picazo spent four seasons with the Rice Owls in various roles. In his second season leading Rice's running backs in 2021, Picazo helped sixth-year senior tight end Jordan Myers earn honorable mention All-Conference USA honors after leading the team with nine total touchdowns and rank second with 646 all-purpose yards. Myers led the Owls with eight rushing scores and recorded 338 rushing yards on the year.). Former walk-on Ari Broussard added 569 yards on 116 carries, including a career-high 186 yards at Charlotte (11/6) that marked the program's second-highest total in conference play since joining C-USA in 2005.

Picazo came to Rice after five seasons (2013-17) at Stanford, first as a student assistant (2013) while completing his co-term degree program and four years (2014-17) as an offensive assistant, working with quarterbacks and wide receivers. Picazo supported the daily operations of the offense as the Cardinal won two Pac-12 titles (2013 and 2015) and appeared in five consecutive bowl games.

While coaching at Stanford in 2017, Picazo participated in a Bill Walsh NFL Minority Coaching Fellowship with the Atlanta Falcons during the team's mandatory spring minicamp.

Picazo attended Stanford University where he earned a bachelor's degree in management, science and engineering in 2013 and a master's degree in psychology in 2014. He played quarterback for the Cardinal from 2009-12, appearing in four games.

Dan ROUSHAR OFFENSIVE LINE

School: Northern Illinois University
Hometown: Clinton, Iowa

Dan Roushar enters his first season with the Bears in 2025.

Entering his 41st season in the coaching profession, Roushar will lead the offensive line group for Chicago. Prior to joining the Bears, Roushar spent the last two seasons as the Offensive Line Coach at Tulane University, which followed a 10-year stretch with the New Orleans Saints. Over his coaching tenure, Roushar has held the role of Offensive Coordinator on five separate occasions, and in his final two seasons with the Saints, oversaw the run game coordinator for New Orleans' offense. Over his five seasons leading the Saints' offensive line (2016-20), New Orleans claimed NFC South Division titles on four occasions.

Roushar spent the last two seasons leading the offensive line unit at Tulane University (2023-24), a two-year span that helped the Green Wave reach the AAC Championship Game each season, totaling 20 wins over the two-year stretch. In his first season at Tulane, the Green Wave reached 11 wins, marking the first occurrence of back-to-back double-digit win seasons in program history.

Prior to Tulane, Roushar spent 10 seasons with the Saints, which included a five-year tenure as Offensive Line Coach and a timeline that featured the responsibilities of Running Backs Coach, Tight Ends Coach and Run Game Coordinator. During his five seasons as Offensive Line Coach, the Saints owned one of the highest-ranking offensive units in the NFL, ranking No. 1 in the NFL in scrimmage yards per game (399.8) with the highest points per game average in the league (29.5).

Over his final two seasons with the Saints, Roushar oversaw the run game for the offense, while also guiding a tight end group that featured Juwan Johnson, who led New Orleans with a career-high seven receiving touchdowns in 2022. Roushar was impactful in Johnson's transition from wide receiver to tight end. In 2020, Roushar coached what continued to be one of the NFL's most stable offensive lines under his supervision. With the help of Roushar and the offensive coaching staff, the Saints rushed for a franchise-record and NFL-high 30 touchdowns, tied for the then-sixth-highest NFL total all-time, ranked sixth in rushing yards per game (141.6), ranking No. 4 in the league in scoring offense (29.7). Under Roushar's guidance, the offensive line blocked for RB Alvin Kamara, who led the NFL with a franchise-record 21 total touchdowns, while leading the team in both rushing and receiving with a career-high 1,688 total yards from scrimmage. Roushar's unit in 2019 surrendered just 25 sacks, third-fewest in the league, as quarterbacks Drew Brees and Teddy Bridgewater combined to throw for 36 touchdowns and only six interceptions.

Roushar led a 2018 unit that led the NFL with 26 rushing touchdowns. Despite being forced to use nine different starting offensive linemen due to injuries, the Saints allowed just 20 sacks under Roushar's guidance, second-best in the NFL. The offensive line allowed just 20 sacks in 2017, second-fewest in the NFL, even though it opened with six different lineups. Roushar's group played an instrumental role as the Saints were the only offense in the NFL to finish top-five in both rushing and passing, ranking No. 2 in total offense (391.2 yards per game). The 3,094 combined total yards from scrimmage from Mark Ingram and Kamara was second-most by an NFL running back duo since the start of a 16-game season (1978). The 4,339 combined total yards from scrimmage by Ingram, Kamara and WR Michael Thomas, was the highest total by a skill position trio in Saints history.

In Roushar's first season leading the offensive line (2016), the Saints were the No. 1 total offense (426.0 yards per game) and top-ranked passing offense (317.1 yards per game) in the NFL. New Orleans produced the second-most points per game average (29.3). Behind the blocking, Brees set a then-NFL single-season record in completions (471) and led the league in passing yardage (5,208), earning a Pro Bowl selection. The line also paved the way for Ingram to surpass the 1,000-yard mark for the first time.

Roushar started with the Saints as Running Backs Coach in 2013, holding that role for two seasons. In his first season with New Orleans, running backs Pierre Thomas (77) and Darren Sproles (71) became the first running back duo in franchise history to secure at least 70 receptions in the same season, as Thomas' output led all NFL players at their position, propelling the Saints to a No. 4 ranking in total offense in 2013 (399.4 yards per game). The following season, Roushar was instrumental in the rushing offense moving from 25th in the NFL to 13th, as Ingram was selected to the first Pro Bowl of his career behind 964 rushing yards and nine rushing scores. After tutoring the running backs from 2013-14, Roushar moved to Tight Ends Coach in 2015, as the Saints finished the season with the second-ranked offense in the NFL (403.8 yards per game). Under Roushar's guidance, TE Benjamin Watson set career-highs in both receptions (74) and receiving yardage (825) and tied a career-best in receiving touchdowns (six).

Before his decade with the Saints, Roushar spent six seasons at Michigan State University (2007-12), the final two as Offensive Coordinator / Tight Ends Coach. In his final season with the Spartans, Roushar coordinated an offense that featured RB Le'Veon Bell, who would claim the Big Ten Conference's rushing title with 1,793 yards on the ground, the second-most in program history, en route to earning All-America honors. In Roushar's first season as coordinator (2011), Michigan State averaged 31.0 points per game, which ranked third in the conference, and school records for most points (434) and passing yards (3,535), while finishing second in net yardage (5,466). Prior to his promotion to coordinator, Roushar served four seasons as the Spartans' offensive line coach. In four seasons coaching the Michigan State front, Roushar's linemen earned All-Big Ten recognition on eight occasions. Prior to his time in East Lansing, Roushar spent two years as the Offensive Line Coach at the University of Cincinnati (2005-06).

Following two seasons as quarterback at Northern Illinois University (1982-83), Roushar aided the Huskies as a student assistant in 1984, before a seven-year stretch at Butler University (1986-92), capped by a four-season tenure as Offensive Coordinator and Offensive Line Coach. Roushar would then hold roles at the University of Rhode Island (1993), Ball State University (1994) and the University of Illinois (1995-96, 2003-04). Between his two stints at Illinois, Roushar returned to his alma mater, Northern Illinois, where he spent six seasons, the final five of which were as Offensive Coordinator / Quarterbacks Coach.

A native of Clinton, Iowa, Roushar and his wife, Patti, have four children – daughters Marrisra, Mallory and Maura, and son, Danny.

Richard
SMITH
LINEBACKERS

School: Fresno State University
Hometown: Los Angeles, Calif.

Richard Smith joins the Bears in 2025 as Linebackers Coach.

Smith brings over 45 years of coaching experience, 37 of those years coming in the NFL. Most recently, Smith has led the linebackers group for the Indianapolis Colts from 2022-24, adding Run Game Coordinator responsibilities for the 2023 and 2024 seasons.

From 2022-24 in Indianapolis, Smith led the development of LB Zaire Franklin. In his first year under Smith's direction, the fifth-year linebacker broke the Colts single-season tackling record recording 166 takedowns (102 solo), far surpassing his old career high of 29 stops. Franklin then exceeded that total each of the next two seasons, resetting the franchise record to 179 tackles (107 solo) in 2023 and recording 173 tackles (93 solo) in 2024 earning him his first Pro Bowl Games selection. LB E.J. Speed also saw significant growth under Smith's direction, setting a new career high in tackles all three seasons under Smith; 55 (23 solo) in 2022, 100 (76 solo) in 2023 and 142 (93 solo) in 2024. The linebacking duo of Franklin and Speed are one of just four pairs of teammates to total at least 100 tackles in each of the past two seasons (CHI: Edmunds/Edwards, CIN: Pratt/Wilson, JAX: Lloyd/Oluokun).

Smith led the Raiders linebackers' group in 2021, where he guided veteran LB Denzel Perryman to a career-high 154 tackles (102 solo), the sixth-most in the NFL, earning his first Pro Bowl selection. Prior to his time with Las Vegas, Smith served as the linebackers coach for the Los Angeles Chargers for four seasons (2017-2020). During his time in Los Angeles, the Chargers secured a playoff spot in 2018 for the first time since 2013 and just the second time since 2010. In 2020, Smith guided rookie LB Kenneth Murray Jr. as he paced the team in tackles with 107, setting a franchise record for most tackles by a rookie and finishing second among rookies in his class. Smith was reunited with LB Thomas Davis Sr. in 2019, who he coached with the Carolina Panthers for two seasons. Under Smith's tutelage, Davis led the team with 112 tackles, while fourth-round rookie LB Drue Tranquill finished second on the squad with 75 tackles. Smith's group was instrumental to the defense's improvement against the run in 2018, as opponents averaged nearly 30 fewer rushing yards per game than the season before.

Smith spent two seasons as the defensive coordinator with the Atlanta Falcons (2015-16). Smith's unit helped the Falcons claim the 2016 NFC Championship to earn a spot in Super Bowl LI. Under Smith's guidance, DE Vic Beasley recorded a league-leading 15.5 sacks in 2016. In 2015, Smith helped Atlanta's defense see a major improvement, going from 32nd to 16th in total defense.

From 2011-14, Smith coached on four straight playoff teams as the Linebackers Coach in his second stint with the Denver Broncos, including a 2013 squad that won the AFC Championship and earned a berth in Super Bowl XLVIII. During his four seasons with Denver, the Broncos ranked third in the league in rushing defense, fourth in third-down defense and seventh in total defense over that span. Smith helped develop LB Von Miller, who has become one of the NFL's most dominant defenders. Miller earned three Pro Bowl selections during his time with Smith, earned was named the 2011 AP Defensive Rookie of the Year and was named first-team All-Pro in 2012.

Prior to joining the Broncos, Smith served as the Linebackers Coach with the Panthers for two seasons (2009-10). During his time in Carolina, the Panthers collected the third-most takeaways in the NFL. Smith also helped LB Jon Beason earn a Pro Bowl selection in 2009.

Smith had a three-year stint as the Defensive Coordinator for the Houston Texans (2006-08). During his time with the Texans, Smith's defense produced two Pro Bowlers and two second-team All-Pro performers in OLB DeMeco Ryans and DE Mario Williams. In 2005, Smith landed his first post as a Defensive Coordinator with the Miami Dolphins. That year, Miami finished the season ranked second in the NFL with 49 sacks.

Smith spent two seasons (2003-04) as the Assistant Head Coach and Linebackers Coach in Detroit after serving after coaching the linebackers in San Francisco from 1997-2002. During his six seasons with San Francisco, four 49ers linebackers earned Pro Bowl honors – Ken Norton Jr., Lee Woodall, Winfred Tubbs and Julian Peterson.

From 1993-96, Smith coached special teams in his first stint with the Broncos, spending the first two years (1993-94) with the added duty of Assistant Linebackers Coach. Smith entered the NFL coaching ranks with the Houston Oilers from 1988-1992, handling special teams, while also assisting with the tight ends, linebackers and offensive line. During his time with the Oilers, Smith worked closely with Pro Football Hall of Fame OL Bruce Matthews and OL Mike Munchak.

Prior to entering the league, Smith spent nine years coaching at the collegiate level. Smith began his coaching career at his alma mater, Rio Hondo Junior College (Calif), coaching the offensive line for two seasons (1979-80). Smith also held coaching roles at Cal State-Fullerton (1981-83), Cal (1984-86) and Arizona (1987).

Smith has four children – Morgan, Aimee, Whitney and Travis – seven grandchildren and is married to his wife, Renee.

Press

School: Marshall University
Hometown: Norman, Okla.

Press Taylor joins the Bears in 2025 as Pass Game Coordinator.

Taylor arrives in Chicago after spending the last three seasons as Offensive Coordinator of the Jacksonville Jaguars (2022-24). Over his three seasons with Jacksonville, Taylor coordinated a unit that helped the Jaguars reach the postseason and rank among some of the league's top passing offensive units, while also playing an instrumental role in the continued development of Pro Bowl QB Trevor Lawrence. In 2023, Taylor helped guide an offense that propelled Lawrence to throw for over 4,000 yards, as the Jaguars marked their second-straight season with a 4,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard receiver (WR Calvin Ridley) and 1,000-yard rusher (RB Travis Etienne Jr.), as Jacksonville ranked top-10 in the NFL in passing offense for the second-straight year. In his first season with the Jaguars, Taylor helped lead an offense that recorded the most scrimmage yards in a single season in franchise history (6,264), as Jacksonville secured an AFC South Division title and AFC Wild Card Round victory. As a unit, the Jaguars totaled the most first downs (352) in a single season in team history and accumulated the third-most points in club annals (404).

Prior to Jacksonville, Taylor spent one season as Senior Offensive Assistant (2021) with the Indianapolis Colts. In his lone season with the Colts, Taylor helped coach an offensive unit that featured AP First-Team All-Pro RB Jonathan Taylor, who led the NFL with 1,811 rushing yards and a league-best 18 rushing touchdowns. As a group, the Colts owned the No. 2-ranked rushing offense in the NFL in 2021 (149.4), finishing top-10 in the league in points per game (26.5).

Before Indianapolis, Taylor spent eight seasons in a variety of elevating roles with the Philadelphia Eagles, contributing to a staff that accumulated three NFC North Division titles for Philadelphia, including a World Championship in 2017 after defeating the New England Patriots in Super Bowl LII. Taylor began his tenure with the Eagles in an Offensive Quality Control capacity (2013-15), before adding the responsibility of Assistant Quarterbacks Coach in 2016, a role he would occupy for two seasons. Taylor was then elevated to Quarterbacks Coach in 2018 following the Eagles' World Championship, guiding the Eagles quarterbacks for three seasons with the addition of Passing Game Coordinator duties in 2020.

During his tenure with the Eagles, Taylor was instrumental in his work with quarterbacks Carson Wentz and Nick Foles. As Wentz's primary coach over three seasons, the signal-caller set single-season franchise records in passing yards (4,039 in 2019), pass completions (388 in 2019) and completion percentage (69.6 in 2018). Over their tenure together, Wentz would become just the sixth quarterback in NFL history to secure at least 20 passing touchdowns and 10 or fewer interceptions in three-consecutive seasons (2017-19). In his first season as Quarterbacks Coach, Taylor's tutelage helped Foles close out the regular season with three victories in five starts, including a Week 16 performance that featured 471 passing yards, four passing touchdowns and a 120.4 passer rating to earn NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors, and a Week 17 win at Washington that was highlighted by Foles' 25-straight pass completions.

In 2017, Taylor helped guide a room that started with Wentz completing 265-of-440 passes for 3,296 yards and 33 touchdowns, a single-season franchise record, to only seven interceptions, registering a 101.9 passer rating over his first 13 games. Following an injury to Wentz, Foles stepped into duty, leading the Eagles with three postseason performances of at least a 100.0 passer rating and guiding Philadelphia to a World Championship with a victory in Super Bowl LII. Wentz would later earn AP Second-Team All-Pro honors, as Foles was named Super Bowl LII Most Valuable Player.

As offensive quality control coach from 2013-15, Philadelphia ranked third in the NFL in total offense (392.8), fourth in rushing offense (131.1), sixth in scoring offense (23.9), sixth in total offensive touchdowns (132) and eighth in passing offense (261.5) during the three-season span. In 2014, the Eagles set single-season franchise records in points scored (474), touchdowns accumulated (54), passing yards (4,581) and first downs earned (356).

Prior to his eight seasons with the Eagles, Taylor served as a Graduate Assistant at Tulsa (2011-12), working with the quarterbacks. Taylor guided QB G.J. Kinne to over 3,000 passing yards and 28 passing touchdowns in 2011, before helping Tulsa claim a Conference USA Championship and Liberty Bowl victory in 2012.

A native of Norman, Okla., Taylor played quarterback at Marshall (2009-10) after starting his career at Butler (Kan.) Community College (2007-08), where he served as a team captain and led Butler to back-to-back Junior College National Championships with a 17-1 record as a starter.

Taylor's brother, Zac, is the Head Coach of the Cincinnati Bengals and his father, Sherwood, played and coached at Oklahoma. Taylor and his wife, Brooklyn, have four children – Teale, Carolina Leigh, Woods and Billy.

Justin
RUDD
SENIOR DIRECTOR OF COACHING OPERATIONS

School: University of Massachusetts Amherst
Hometown: Montclair, N.J.

In his role, Rudd works directly with the head coach managing the football calendar and organizing the day-to-day operation of the team. He is the point of communication between the coaching staff and all supporting departments, and he manages the coaching budget, develops practice plans, builds practice schedules and oversees all coaching staff operations. Rudd also assists on the practice field during the week and the sideline on gameday.

Rudd arrives in Chicago after spending the last five seasons with the Dallas Cowboys, playing an instrumental role in football analytics and coaching operations elements. After joining the Cowboys in 2020 in a Video/Football Analytics capacity, spending three years in the specific role, Rudd was elevated to Coaching Operations Manager/Football Analytics in 2023, a capacity he would hold for the following two seasons. Over his five seasons with the Cowboys, Dallas secured two NFC East Division titles (2021 and 2023), with an appearance in the NFC Divisional Round in 2022, and won at least 12 games on three occasions. Rudd aided a Cowboys unit that ranked No. 6 in the NFL in passing yards per game and No. 7 in the league in scrimmage yards per game (380.6) over the five-season span, doing so with five different starting quarterbacks.

Prior to serving on Dallas' staff, Rudd had two tenures with DVSport, Inc. (2006-11 and 2012-19), a premier software platform used by personnel across the football spectrum, first as Operations/Senior Account Manager, then as Vice President of Sales & Marketing. Rudd's role also included direct interface and relations with coaching staffs and administrators across the NFL, CFL and NCAA, collaborating on reports, data, analytics and technology endeavors that connected analytics and coaching operations. Rudd also spent time as a Key Accounts Manager for Digitiz, Inc. (2011-12), an emerging audio/video systems design and integration company, where he engineered custom technological updates for teams across the NFL and NCAA.

Rudd spent four years at Rutgers University (2003-06), serving as Video Coordinator/Network Administrator, where he led, developed and guided a 13-person team overseeing video operations for the Scarlet Knights football team. Prior to his time at Rutgers, Rudd, served as a Quality Control/Video Assistant at the University of Pittsburgh in 2002.

A native of Montclair, NJ, Rudd graduated from the University of Massachusetts Amherst with a degree in sport management and minors in political science and Italian in 2001, also working closely with the football program and sports broadcasting department. Following graduation, Rudd spent time as a Quality Control/Video Assistant with the Carolina Panthers (2001) and Scottish Claymores of NFL Europe.

Rudd and his wife, Amanda, have two children – Laurel and Joseph.

COOK
MANAGER OF COACHING
ADMINISTRATION

School: University of Alabama
Hometown: Montgomery, Ala.

Chavis Cook enters his second season with Chicago in 2025, serving as the team's Manager of Coaching Administration. Joining the Bears in 2024, Cook's role involves aiding the coaching staff's day-to-day operation and general planning and execution. Prior to his arrival in Chicago, Cook spent five seasons with the Cleveland Browns (2018-13). Cook joined the Browns in 2018 as an Operations Intern, a position he held for two seasons, before being elevated to the role of Coordinator of Team Logistics. Cook assisted in the planning and execution of the travel operation, orchestrating all logistical measures for all road trips, as well as aided in the facilitation of budgetary items. In 2023, Cook was promoted to Manager of Team Logistics, where he continued to coordinate all aspects of team travel for the Browns. Cook added the responsibility of working with the Head Coach to coordinate the team's daily schedule, as well as logistics surrounding practice operation and the communication of such schedules across the organization. Additionally, Cook provided football personnel with input in relationship-building tactics, aiming to increase player development within the organization. Cook earned his Bachelor of Arts in Advertising from the University of Alabama in 2017 before earning his Master of Science in Sports Business Management from Alabama in 2018. While in Tuscaloosa, he worked as a Student Manager for the football program under Head Coach Nick Saban. During his time at Alabama, Cook contributed to a program that won two CFP National Championships (2015 and '17), aiding the effort for a third CFP National Championship Game appearance (2016). A native of Montgomery, Ala., Cook is married to his wife, Mary Margaret.

FREID
DIRECTOR OF RESEARCH & ANALYSIS

School: University of Michigan
Hometown: Needham, Mass.

Harrison Freid enters his fourth season with the Bears in 2025 as Director of Research & Analysis. Freid arrived to Chicago in 2022 after spending six seasons with the Miami Dolphins, serving as the Head Coach Assistant – Research & Analysis. Freid was a member of a Dolphins coaching staff that compiled back-to-back winning seasons for the first time in two decades.

In his role, Freid supports numerous departments with research-related responsibilities, ranging from Coaching, Football Administration to Personnel. Freid joined the Dolphins in 2016 from the NFL's League Office, where he served in two capacities: Football Operations Assistant and Talent Acquisition Analyst.

A native of Needham, Mass., Freid played collegiate lacrosse at the University of Michigan, where he earned a Bachelor of Arts degree and was named team captain in 2011. Following his graduation in 2011, Freid enrolled at St. John's University in Queens, N.Y., where he received his MBA and was also a member of the Johnnies' lacrosse team. Freid represented the Israel National Lacrosse team in the 2014 World Lacrosse Championships and 2015 World Box Lacrosse Championships. He won a gold medal with Israel in the 2017 European Box Lacrosse Championships.

Freid is married to his wife, Ruthie.

Erika
MARMOLEJO
 ENGAGEMENT

Marmolejo enters her fourth season with the Bears in 2023 and first as director of player engagement after serving as the club's player engagement coordinator for the previous three seasons. Her first job in the NFL came in 2016 after she was hired by the Oakland Raiders as an assistant to general manager Reggie McKenzie. In her role with the Raiders, she worked as a player personnel assistant in the team's scouting department for two seasons before transitioning into player engagement in 2018. After a brief stint with the Bulls, Marmolejo was hired by the Bears in 2020.

Andre'
TUCKER
SR. DIRECTOR OF SPORTS MEDICINE AND PLAYER HEALTH & HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Andre Tucker is in his sixth season as the head athletic trainer of the Chicago Bears in 2023.

Tucker was also appointed as the team's Infection Control Officer (ICO) to help safely navigate the Bears during COVID-19 and beyond. In recognition of his efforts in 2020, he was the recipient of the Virginia Award, given annually to the Bears employee that has demonstrated the characteristics and values of Mrs. McCaskey: grace, humility, loyalty and dedication.

Having spent time with the Cleveland Browns, Atlanta Falcons and Jacksonville Jaguars, Tucker has 16 years of NFL athletic training experience. Prior to his arrival in Chicago, Tucker spent eight seasons with the Browns where he was an assistant head athletic trainer (2014-17) and assistant athletic trainer (2010-13).

Prior to joining the Browns, he served as an assistant athletic trainer with the Falcons (2008-09) and Jaguars (2004-07).

Tucker obtained a Bachelor of Science degree in athletic training from Florida International University in 2000 and went on to earn a Master's Degree in sports management in 2003.

Additionally, Tucker is a member of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS), National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA) and is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist and National Academy of Sports Medicine Performance Enhancement Specialist.

Tucker has three children.

MEDLIN
DIRECTOR OF EQUIPMENT

Tony Medlin is in his 38th season with the Chicago Bears and his 28th as the team's head equipment manager. Medlin is responsible for executing the coordination of all team equipment operations including logistics, purchasing and inventory for all players, coaches and staff.

Medlin also serves as the team's liaison with the NFL's sole apparel providers, Nike and New Era.

Medlin has been honored as the NFL's top equipment manager twice in his career. In 2000 he received the Whitey Zimmerman Award and in 2016 he earned New Era's Equipment Manager of the Year Award.

In 2017, Medlin was the recipient of the Virginia Award, given annually to the Bears employee that has demonstrated the characteristics and values of Mrs. McCaskey: grace, humility, loyalty and dedication. In 2018, he was honored as one of the Chicago Defender's 50 Men of Excellence, awarded to African-American men who inspire others through their vision and leadership, exceptional achievement and participation in community service.

Named head equipment manager in 1997, Medlin initially joined the Bears as an assistant equipment manager in 1987. He previously served as the athletic equipment manager at his alma mater, North Carolina Central University, from 1982-87 after earning his degree in therapeutic recreation. He was inducted into the Alex M. Rivera Athletics Hall of Fame at North Carolina Central in 2006.

Medlin and his wife, Chandra, have one daughter, Brandy. Medlin is the older brother of Ron Medlin, who is the Baltimore Ravens senior assistant athletic trainer after spending time as head athletic trainer for the Atlanta Falcons.

Medlin's numerous charitable endeavors are highlighted by his role as the chairman of the annual Chicago Bears Coat Drive, which collects tens of thousands of coats during the holiday season. He is also involved with the "Say No to Drugs" campaign.

George H.
McCASKEY
CHAIRMAN

George Halas McCaskey became the fourth Chairman in Chicago Bears team history on May 5, 2011, following in the footsteps of his grandfather, George Halas, father, Edward W. McCaskey and brother, Michael.

George is one of the 13 grandchildren – and namesake – of George Halas, the founder and patriarch of the Chicago Bears. Like his brothers and sisters, he grew up around the Bears. His first part-time job, at age 14, was as an office assistant at the team's headquarters in Chicago's Loop. He later worked for several summers as a ball boy at Bears training camp, calling it one of the best experiences of his life.

George has worked to carry on the storied tradition of the Bears with a yearly goal of winning the NFL Championship, uphold the integrity and values established in the previous 104 years of the club and oversee the franchise's leadership role in the Chicagoland community. One of the club's recent developments and accomplishments has been the addition of the Bears Diversity, Equity and Inclusion department within the front office. Started in 2021, the DEI department continues to form an integrated approach to all DEI efforts that will permeate throughout the club while also advancing a culture of inclusivity and belonging resulting in more equitable outcomes.

Prior to his role as the club's Chairman, George previously served as the team's senior director of ticket operations, working in the ticket office for 20 seasons, joining the Bears in 1991 as ticket manager. He has been a member of the Bears' Board of Directors since 2004.

George attended Arizona State University, where he earned his bachelor's degree in Broadcasting in 1978, his law degree in 1981 and a Master of Laws (LL.M.) degree in 2021. He passed the Illinois bar exam in 1981, but now describes himself as a "recovering lawyer." He worked in television news in Phoenix, Peoria, Tulsa and Chicago, before serving as an Assistant State's Attorney in Lee County and DeKalb County, Ill.

In his spare time, George enjoys officiating youth baseball and soccer.

Kevin WARREN PRESIDENT AND CEO

Kevin Warren was named President and Chief Executive Officer of the Chicago Bears on January 12, 2023, and formally assumed the role on April 17, 2023. In his role, Warren is responsible for all business operations and football operations, while also overseeing the team's transformative stadium development project.

Warren is the first Black President and CEO in club history and the first President and CEO hired from outside the organization. Warren succeeded Ted Phillips, who served in the same capacity since February 10, 1999, becoming just the fifth President in Bears history, following George S. Halas, George "Mugs" Halas, Jr., Michael McCaskey and Phillips.

Warren was honored at the 2025 NFL Women's Forum with the second-annual Buddy Teevens Forward Progress Award, presented to an individual who champions and advocates for the inclusion of women in football. NFL Women's Forum founder Sam Rapoport lauded Warren's progression and advancements, including assembling 'one of the most diverse leadership teams in sports,' since joining the Bears in 2023.

A veteran executive of 24 years in the NFL, Warren joined the Bears in 2023 after spending nearly four years as Commissioner of the Big Ten Conference. Warren served as the sixth commissioner in the 127-year history of the conference. He was the first Black leader to serve as commissioner of any Power Five conference. In his time with the Big Ten, Warren guided the conference to an expansion to 16 schools beginning in 2024, adding the University of Southern California and the University of California Los Angeles, as well as leading the negotiation of an unprecedented media rights deal that will generate over $7 billion during a seven-year period, and generates $1 billion annually. Warren also substantially increased the talent of color represented in Big Ten Conference office staff, introduced the first basketball media day that featured both men's and women's teams and players equally, created the Big Ten Equality Coalition, a nonpartisan group representing all 14 member institutions committed to combat racism, and developed a mental health and wellness cabinet.

Prior to his nearly four years at the Big Ten Conference, Warren served as the Chief Operating Officer of the Minnesota Vikings (2015-19), one of the most influential, progressive, and profitable periods in the organization's history. As COO of the Vikings, Warren oversaw all aspects of the business operations of the franchise. Warren, who spent a decade-and-a-half in Minnesota, joined the organization in 2005, and throughout his tenure, served in a variety of senior leadership capacities for the club.

While in Minnesota, Warren played a critical role in all business, financial, legal and operational aspects related to U.S. Bank Stadium and was involved in the design, construction, business, legal and operational components of the stadium which hosted Super Bowl LII. He also played a key role in the design, development and planning of Twin Cities Orthopedics Performance Center, the Vikings Headquarters in Eagan, Minnesota, in addition to the ancillary real estate development of Viking Lakes. Under Warren's leadership, the Vikings restructured the organization with an emphasis on promoting women to key executive positions.

Prior to working for the Vikings, he represented the Vikings' current ownership group, led by the Wilf Family, in their purchase of the team in 2005. In September of 2013, Warren was named a member of the NFL Committee on Workplace Diversity. Since joining the Bears in 2023, Warren has served as a member of the NFL's Diversity Committee.

Prior to his tenure with Minnesota, Warren served as Vice President of Player Programs & Football Legal Counsel for the St. Louis Rams from 1997-99, contributing to a franchise that secured a World Championship with a victory in Super Bowl XXXIV. Additionally, Warren held the roles of Vice President of Football Administration with the Rams (2000) and Senior Vice President of Business Operations & General Counsel for the Detroit Lions (2001-03).

For undergraduate studies, Warren attended the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia, playing basketball for the Quakers' 1981-82 Ivy League Championship team, before earning his undergraduate degree in Business Administration from Grand Canyon University in 1986, where he was a member of the basketball team. Following his graduation from Grand Canyon University, Warren attended Arizona State University, earning his Master of Business Administration in 1988, before attending the University of Notre Dame Law School, earning his Juris Doctor in 1990.

In recognition of his contributions on the basketball court, Warren was inducted into the GCU Athletic Hall of Fame in 2012.

Warren and his wife, Greta, currently reside in the Chicagoland area and have two children – daughter, Peri, and son, Powers.

Ted CREWS

SPECIAL ADVISOR TO THE PRESIDENT/
CEO & CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER

In his role, Crews works closely with President and CEO Kevin Warren and the club's Executive Leadership Team on developing and implementing strategic operational procedures to advance the Chicago Bears, honoring the legacy and integrity of the storied franchise through exemplary representation in day-to-day proceedings. In his first season as a member of the Bears, Crews played a pivotal role in the development and evolution of various operations, including those in the football and business sectors, as well as stadium development.

Crews, with his experience, a forward-thinking outlook and a perspective developed over 27 years working in the National Football League, oversees all in-house content and production ventures, including the digital and social media arms of the Chicago Bears, brand initiatives and the club's corporate and football communications efforts. An award-winning figure over his two-plus decades in the NFL, Crews has been recognized on three separate occasions at the Fritz Pollard Alliance Foundation's Salute to Excellence Awards for his outstanding work and success as an African American in an executive position in the NFL.

Prior to joining the Bears in 2024, Crews spent 12 years leading all communications efforts for the Kansas City Chiefs, providing guidance and oversight throughout the development of his innovative and strategic communications operation. Crews, as spokesperson and primary contact on all communications efforts for the Chiefs, served as the liaison between the club and all levels of external media – local, national and international. Crews worked closely with Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt, Head Coach Andy Reid, General Manager Brett Veach, President Mark Donovan and the club's key players on problem-solving measures and best practices, providing optimal representation of the club and brand. Crews oversaw numerous high-profile and progressive organizational projects during his time in Kansas City, including working with club executives on the development of the Chiefs' corporate communications arm, which led to unprecedented off-field success as the franchise achieved sustained prominence on the global stage.

Over his decade-plus in Kansas City, Crews led a staff that was instrumental in capitalizing on on-field success through their communications operation and strategy during a span that included three World Championships, four Super Bowl appearances, six-straight AFC Championship Game berths and eight-consecutive AFC West Division titles. Crews' leadership during the COVID-19 pandemic was pivotal, as the Chiefs were at the forefront of providing regular access to the club's players, coaches and executives, as the consistency provided by professional sports aided the world during a challenging time for all. Off the field, Crews implemented tactical and deliberate ventures for the betterment of the franchise and the club's impact on the surrounding community, starting with the development of a corporate communications department designed to better serve the needs of the club's budding business operations. In consultation and partnership with Donovan and the organization's leadership, Crews spearheaded the creation of the club's corporate communications department, an extension of his staff that provided publicity and support to all of the Chiefs' off-field ventures, including growth in the international market, guidance on publication and branding with prominent corporate partnerships and the hosting of world-class events at Arrowhead Stadium, such as concerts and World Cup matches that reach audiences of global proportions.

Crews joined the Chiefs after spending three seasons as the Senior Director of Communications for the St. Louis Rams (2009-11), where he served as the primary contact on all football matters for ownership, as well as the club's general manager and head coach, in addition to being the team's official spokesperson. Before his time with the Rams, Crews held the role of Football Communications Manager for the Atlanta Falcons from 2005 to 2008, a tenure during which he provided media support and organization for the general manager, head coach, coaching staff and full player roster.

Crews entered the NFL as an intern with the Carolina Panthers, gaining experience in the profession during his time as an undergraduate at South Carolina State University. Following two years as an intern, Crews spent five seasons as the Media Relations Assistant for Carolina (2000-04), learning under Charlie Dayton, former Panthers PR Director and Pro Football Hall of Fame Awards of Excellence honoree.

A proud graduate of South Carolina State University (1999), Crews was recognized with one of the school's highest honors in 2014, as he received the Distinguished Young Alumnus Award. Crews returned to his alma mater in 2024 to serve as the keynote speaker for the Fall 2024 Commencement Convocation, and was presented with an Honorary Doctorate from the university.

Additionally, Crews has also been invited by the NFL to help lead the league's Super Bowl communications staff on 10 occasions, in addition to numerous Pro Bowls.

Crews, a native of Columbia, Md., and his wife, Michelle, have three children – Tesdell Jacob IV, Olivia Celeste and Dean J. William.

Liz GEIST

EVP OF PEOPLE AND CULTURE & CHIEF HR OFFICER

Liz Geist enters her 12th season as a member of the Chicago Bears in 2025. Geist was named to the newly created position of Executive Vice President of People and Culture & Chief Human Resources Officer on April 10, 2024.

Geist serves as a key strategic partner to President & CEO Kevin Warren, supporting a unified vision for organizational excellence, while building a world-class culture and developing strategies for sustained success.

Additionally, Geist leads the organization's Human Resources sector, focusing on creating a supportive and empowering workplace culture that enables employees to thrive. Geist collaborates with Warren and the Executive Leadership Team to align initiatives with strategic objectives, while fostering a culture of excellence and innovation.

Geist's journey with the Bears began in 2014, joining the organization as the sole member of the HR department. Over the past decade, Geist's visionary leadership and dedication have been instrumental in transforming the HR department into a robust team that serves the Bears. Her commitment to fostering a supportive and empowering workplace culture has left an indelible mark on the organization, solidifying its reputation as a leader in progressive HR practices within the sports industry.

Before her tenure with the Bears, Geist navigated through various industries, including non-profit and transportation and logistics. Her experiences in these diverse environments deepened her understanding of the often complex nature withing HR leadership. During this time, Geist developed her unique approach to fostering dignity, respect and humanity in the workplace, setting her on a trajectory towards success.

Upon joining the Bears, Geist was at the forefront of leading initiatives to standardize hiring processes, establish comprehensive professional development programs, and prioritize mental health support for all staff members. Geist's innovative approach and tireless advocacy have not only elevated the Bears' organizational culture and values but have also positioned the team as a trailblazer in progressive HR practices within the sports industry.

In addition, Geist made significant contributions to major projects for the Bears. Geist served on the design committee for the expansion and renovation of Halas Hall in 2019, leveraging insights gained from touring top-tier facilities with the general manager and architects to create what is now considered one of the best practice facilities in the NFL. Additionally, with the support of the CFO, Geist played a key role in establishing an office in downtown Chicago that better suited the needs of staff members and executives.

In 2023, the club selected Geist to participate in the NFL League of Leaders Executive Education Program at Stanford University.

Beyond her professional achievements, Geist serves on the Pro Sports Assembly's Board of Directors, remaining committed to the power of inclusivity and uniting as a force to create a strong, healthy, and fair future for the professional sports industry.

Karen
MURPHY
EVP OF STADIUM
 DEVELOPMENT & CHIEF

Karen Murphy enters her 26th season as a member of the Chicago Bears in 2025. Initially joining the Bears in 1999, Murphy serves as the organization's first-ever Executive Vice President of Stadium Development & Chief Operating Officer since being named to the position in 2024.

Murphy oversees the organization's transformative stadium development project, working closely with President & CEO Kevin Warren on creating, evolving and executing long-term, strategic objectives centered around building a transcendent, world-class stadium for Bears fans, while fostering a culture of innovation and excellence.

Murphy's leadership and counsel extend across critical areas, including finance and accounting, stadium and event operations, building operations, grounds, information technology, procurement and innovation. Murphy's strategic direction ensures coordination and alignment, which are integral to upholding the Chicago Bears' standard of excellence across the organization.

Throughout Murphy's 25-plus-year tenure with the Bears, Murphy most recently served as Senior Vice President of Business Strategy & Chief Financial Officer, helping to shape the organization's strategic direction while spearheading transformative initiatives. After joining the club in 1999 as a Controller, Murphy was promoted to Chief Financial Officer in 2002, before adding Senior Vice President of Business Strategy responsibilities in 2016. Over her time with the Bears, Murphy helped lead the execution of renovations at Soldier Field in 2003, as well as at Halas Hall in 2013 and 2019.

Murphy's visionary leadership has driven the club to leverage technology as a competitive advantage, integrating analytics into decision-making processes and prioritizing the recruitment, development and retention of world-class talent and systems.

Prior to joining the Bears in 1999, Murphy served as a Senior Auditor at Ernst & Young Global Consulting Services (1993-97) before joining The Walt Disney Company in 1997 as a Corporate Management Senior Auditor.

Raised in Sun Prairie Wis., Murphy graduated with a Bachelor of Business Administration Accounting from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

MORRIS
 BUSINESS OFFICER

Meka White Morris enters her second season as a member of the Chicago Bears in 2025. Morris joined the Bears as Executive Vice President of Revenue & Chief Business Officer in 2024. In this role, Morris oversees corporate partnerships, suites, ticketing, revenue optimizations, brand marketing and strategic planning.

Prior to joining the Bears, Morris served as the Executive Vice President and Chief Business Officer of the Minnesota Twins. Morris' key responsibilities were aimed at aligning and advancing the organization's revenue-generating platforms – inclusive of Twins baseball and Target Field, but also expanding beyond the ballpark and traditional industry boundaries. She had direct oversight of, and provided strategic guidance for, the club's efforts and initiatives in business intelligence and analytics, innovation, brand partnerships, ticketing, suites and premium inventory, marketing and communications, broadcast, game entertainment, and Target Field's non-baseball events.

An established sports and entertainment executive, Morris also built an extensive track record of success working in sales and marketing-focused leadership roles for LEARFIELD, Legends Hospitality, Live Nation Entertainment, the Charlotte Hornets (Bobcats), the Oakland Raiders and the Cleveland Cavaliers.

In addition to her professional achievements, Morris has actively contributed to various boards and organizations, including the YMCA of the North, the US Special Olympics, the Minneapolis Downtown Council, the Carlson School of Management Strategic Board and the Women's Presidents' Organization, among others.

A native of Boston, MA, Morris earned her B.S. in journalism and strategic communications from the University of Kansas, where she was a track and field athlete for the Jayhawks. Her late father, Boston Celtics legend Jo Jo White, had a stellar 12-year NBA career. He was a seven-time NBA All-Star and 1976 NBA Finals MVP, whose No. 10 jersey is retired by the Boston Celtics and was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2015.

Tanesha
WADE
 AND INCLUSION & CHIEF
 IMPACT OFFICER

Tanesha Wade enters her 13th season with the Chicago Bears in 2025 and was named Executive Vice President of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion & Chief Impact Officer on May 1, 2024.

Wade works closely with President & CEO Kevin Warren and the executive leadership team to lead the continued development and execution of a comprehensive, community-centered DEI strategy for the Bears. Her work integrates Club principles across all organizational facets, from player and alumni relations to fan engagement and internal team dynamics. Wade collaborates with club leadership, alumni, advisory boards and various stakeholders to foster strategic partnerships, promote equity and inclusivity, grow access to youth sports locally and globally and amplify marginalized voices, ensuring organizational initiatives and mission-driven priorities resonate broadly to make a meaningful impact throughout our communities.

Through her leadership, the Bears will continue to champion enhanced efforts in local community outreach and engagement, charitable giving initiatives, supplier and partner diversification and inclusive opportunities for business accessibility and economic advancement. Wade and her staff focus on the development, strategic design and implementation of the organization's community engagement and social impact initiatives, overseeing the evolution and operation of key social justice efforts, player and alumni engagement and advancement of philanthropic efforts. Her team serves as a vital link across departments and between the organization and community stakeholders, ensuring that efforts align with the organization's mission, while fostering a sustainable impact.

Wade has been an integral member of the organization since 2013, initially serving as the Director of Events and Entertainment, where she was tasked with shaping and implementing the team's event, production and game presentation strategies. Wade ascended to the role of Senior Vice President of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion in 2021, where she was instrumental in developing the framework for the Club's diversity, equity and inclusion framework and foundational efforts.

Prior to joining the Bears, Wade spent five years at the University of Minnesota, overseeing stewardship events and premium seating program sales and service operations for the athletics department. In addition to her role, Wade is an adjunct professor at Northwestern University's School of Professional Studies, sits on the advisory board of Women in Sports and Events (WISE) Chicago, and serves as a mentor through Big Brothers Big Sisters.

A native of Des Moines, Iowa, Wade is a graduate of Oregon State University, where she was also a member of the women's basketball team.

Krista
WHITAKER
EVP OF LEGAL AND BUSINESS
 OFFICER

Krista Whitaker enters her second season as a member of the Chicago Bears in 2025. Whitaker was named the organization's Executive Vice President of Legal and Business Affairs & Chief Legal Officer on April 9, 2024.

In her role, Whitaker provides legal oversight and strategic guidance to the club and leads the organization's legal and security departments. Working closely with President and CEO Kevin Warren, Whitaker provides comprehensive legal counsel and support to the club, both in football and business operations.

Whitaker and her staff develop strategic, solution-based legal departmental operations to benefit the Chicago Bears and the organization's entities. Whitaker and her staff guide the organization through complex legal matters, ensuring alignment with the club's business objectives. Whitaker manages the club's day-to-day global legal department across all transactional, corporate, litigation, commercial, security and regulatory matters.

Prior to joining the Bears in 2024, Whitaker served as Vice President, Associate General Counsel for the Miami HEAT, providing strategic legal advice and counsel to support the organization's day-to-day operations, while also drafting and negotiating key financial sponsorship and media rights agreements, as well as naming rights agreements. Initially joining the franchise as Senior Associate Counsel, Whitaker was elevated to Vice President, Associate General Counsel prior to her second season with Miami.

Before her tenure with the HEAT, Whitaker practiced in New York City at Proskauer, a leading international law firm with a prominent sports law practice. At Proskauer, Whitaker had a broad-based corporate practice focusing on transactional, governance and general corporate matters with an emphasis on the sports, media and entertainment industries.

Whitaker's commitment extends beyond her professional endeavors, as she actively contributes to legal education and serves her community.

A native of Fort Worth, Texas, Whitaker earned her undergraduate degree from Texas A&M University and her law degree from Stanford Law School.

Laura
ANDERSON
 CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Laura Anderson enters her first season as a member of the Chicago Bears in 2025. Anderson was named Senior Vice President of Administration & Chief Financial Officer on March 24, 2025.

Anderson joins the Bears after most recently serving as the Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer for the Big Ten Conference, overseeing financial operations and strategic planning, ensuring financial stability during one of the most transformational tenures of the conference's storied history.

Anderson's role will encompass oversight of all financial, accounting and information technology operations involving the organization and will be instrumental in navigating an evolving economic climate and deploying technology as a competitive advantage for the advancement and progression of the Chicago Bears.

During Anderson's seven years with the Big Ten Conference, her leadership as Chief Financial Officer to the Office of the Commissioner and Treasurer to the Board of Directors served an integral role in the conference's operations, providing consistent, strategic guidance to the Big Ten's presidents, chancellors and athletic advisory entities. Before being elevated to Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer, Anderson provided senior-level management and prudent guidance as Senior Vice President and Controller, developing operational strategies during the pandemic and collaborating with senior leadership on the advancement and progression of the conference amid adversity.

Prior to joining the Big Ten Conference, Anderson supported ESI Consultants as a Senior Financial Consultant, leading the internal operations of the firm, beginning at the start-up level, after serving as an Audit Consultant for Chicago's Arthur Andersen LLP, working in the group's audit practice, contributing to the advising of clients, including multi-national and publicly-traded companies.

A graduate of the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, Anderson is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and the Illinois CPA Society, as well as Women Leaders in Sports and Women in Sports and Events.

In the Chicagoland community, Anderson is an active volunteer in the non-profit realm, honorably serving as a past President of the Junior League of Chicago and currently on the Board of Directors for the DuPage Children's Museum. In recognition of excellence and transformation at the Big Ten Conference and throughout Greater Chicago, Anderson was highlighted by Crain's Chicago Business, gaining recognition on the publication's Notable CFOs list of 2023.

A native of Illinois and a resident of Chicago, Anderson and her husband, Scott, are parents to two children – Emma and Ryan.

Tanya
DREESSEN
SVP OF STRATEGY AND GLOBAL AFFAIRS & CHIEF OF STAFF

Tanya Dreesen enters her second season with the Chicago Bears in 2025, having been named Senior Vice President of Strategy & Global Affairs and Chief of Staff on March 8, 2024.

In her role, Dreesen plays a pivotal part in shaping the strategic direction and operational execution of major initiatives across the organization. Working closely with President & CEO Kevin Warren, Dreesen oversees a wide range of high-impact projects spanning business strategy, stadium development, premium experience innovation and executive operations, ensuring alignment within club's long-term vision, values and strategic imperatives.

Over the past year, Dreesen has led numerous initiatives that enhanced the Chicago Bears' presence on a local, national and international level. Dreesen oversaw marquee activations at tentpole events, such as the club's participation in the Pro Football Hall of Fame Game and HOF Enshrinement Weekend, as well as appearing in the International Series matchup in London. Dreesen worked closely with leadership, community partners and sponsors to drive top-tier engagements and strategic meetings. Internally, she co-authored the club's organizational strategy map and played a central role in operational planning, evaluation processes, and internal improvements.

Prior to joining the Bears, Dreesen spent 16 years with the Minnesota Vikings, most recently serving as Vice President of Partnership Activation, Events & Special Projects. She was part of the leadership team responsible for design and construction of U.S. Bank Stadium, overseeing the integration of all sponsorships and Founding Partnerships. She was instrumental in developing signature initiatives including the U.S. Bank Stadium art collection, the Vikings Voyage fan experience, the Legacy Brick (fan paver) program, and the iconic Legacy Ship sculpture. Dreesen was also responsible for securing and managing 3 major naming rights partnerships: Mall of America Field, U.S. Bank Stadium, and Twin Cities Orthopedics Performance Center. She directed the team that executed all fan and partner facing events and played a significant role in organizational milestones such as Business Summits, 3 International Series games in London, the successful bid for Super Bowl LII in 2018, and the creation of the team's 200-acre headquarters and practice facility.

Earlier in her career, Dreesen served in a Vice President role at the Denver Post and Rocky Mountain News, where she managed high profile sponsorship activations for local sports teams. She began her career in Toronto, Canada, with The Toronto Sun and later The Toronto Star, leading sponsorship and partnership initiatives for major art, music, multi-cultural and sports entities, including the Toronto Raptors and Toronto Blue Jays.

Dreesen graduated with honors in Advertising and Marketing from Sheridan College in Toronto, Canada. Dreesen is also a three-time medalist in rowing at the Edmonton World Masters Games and has competed internationally at World Rowing (FISA) events in Boston and Montreal.

HEAD COACH

Hometown: Asheville, N.C.

Johnson most recently served as Offensive Coordinator (2022-24) in Detroit, where his 2024 unit averaged a franchise-record 409.5 yards per game, helping the Lions average a league-high 32.4 points per game and accumulate 68 total offensive touchdowns – the most by any team in the NFL. Each of his three seasons coordinating Detroit's offense (2022-24), Johnson's group has finished in the top-five in the league in total offense each year, including a No. 2 ranking in 2024. Over the last two seasons (2023-24), no unit has averaged more points per game (30.1) or net yards per game (402.2) than Johnson's offensive unit with the Detroit Lions.

Following his promotion to Offensive Coordinator in 2022, Johnson helped the Lions secure eight wins out of their last 10 matchups to close out the year. One season later (2023), Johnson's group finished No. 3 in the NFL in total offense (394.8) and No. 2 in passing offense (258.9), finishing the season in the NFC Championship Game and as a finalist for AP NFL Assistant Coach of the Year. With the aid of Johnson's leadership of the offense, Detroit accumulated a franchise-record 15 regular-season wins in 2024, ranking No. 2 in the NFL in both total offense (409.5) and passing offense (263.3), while owning the third-best red-zone touchdown percentage (69.4 pct.) and fourth-best third-down conversion rate (47.6) in the league. Johnson spent six total seasons with the Lions, starting in 2019 in an Offensive Quality Control capacity, before being elevated to Tight Ends Coach in 2020, holding that role for two seasons. In his first seasons coaching the tight ends, Johnson's tutelage helped second-year TE T.J. Hockenson earn his first-career Pro Bowl selection after ranking top-five in the league in receiving yards (third), receiving first downs (third) and receptions (fourth) among tight ends.

Prior to Detroit, Johnson served seven seasons on the staff of the Miami Dolphins, working under three different head coaches. Over his seven years in Miami, Johnson worked in the capacities of Offensive Assistant (2012), Assistant Quarterbacks Coach (2013-15), Tight Ends Coach (2015), Assistant Wide Receivers Coach (2016-17) and Wide Receivers Coach (2018).

Working with the Dolphins wide receivers, Johnson aided a group that featured Pro Bowl WR Jarvis Landry who set a franchise-record with an NFL-best 112 receptions in 2017, one season after helping Miami secure 10 wins and reach the postseason. As Wide Receivers Coach in 2018, Johnson helped guide WR Albert Wilson to accumulate an average of 12.9 yards after catch, the second-highest rate among all NFL players.

Prior to his time with the wide receivers, Johnson served as Assistant Quarterbacks Coach (2013-15), before being promoted to Tight Ends Coach following staff realignment in 2015. In 2014, QB Ryan Tannehill became just the second Dolphins passer to throw for 4,000 yards in a single season. Starting with the Dolphins as an Offensive Assistant in 2012, Johnson aided a unit that ranked fourth in the AFC in rushing touchdowns (15).

Johnson entered the coaching ranks as a Graduate Assistant at Boston College (2009-10), spending three years in Chestnut Hill, including the 2011 season as Tight Ends Coach.

A native of Asheville, N.C., Johnson was a walk-on quarterback at the University of North Carolina, earning degrees in mathematics and computer science. Johnson and his wife, Jessica, have three children – Emory, Kennedy and Halle.

Dennis Allen joins the Bears in 2025 to coordinate Chicago's defense.

Allen enters his 30th season in the coaching profession with the Bears after most recently serving as the Head Coach of the New Orleans Saints (2022-24), having held the role of defensive play-caller for the Saints since the middle of the 2015 season, holding the role of Defensive Coordinator until his promotion to Head Coach of the Saints in 2022. In each of his final four full seasons calling the defense, the Saints were the only team to rank top-10 in points per game allowed every season.

A two-time NFL Head Coach, first with the Oakland Raiders in 2012, then again with the New Orleans Saints in 2022, six of his 23 NFL coaching seasons have been in a Head Coach capacity, with an additional eight seasons as a Defensive Coordinator. Over his 14 full seasons with the Saints, Allen contributed to six NFC South Division titles, including the 2009 season which culminated in a World Championship following a victory in Super Bowl XLIV.

Over his final four full seasons leading New Orleans' defense, including the last two as Head Coach, the Saints had three seasons finishing top-10 in total defense, including two seasons in the top-five (2020 and 2022), owning the second-best pass defense in the NFL in 2022 (184.4), his first season as Head Coach. Over his 23 years of coaching in the NFL, Allen has worked with 18 players who have combined for 36 Pro Bowl selections and has coached two AP NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year winners and three eventual members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

In 2023, Allen led a Saints defense that ranked No. 8 in the NFL in opponent points per game (19.2) and ninth in points per game (23.6), the Saints were one of five teams to finish in the top ten in both categories, helping guide the Saints to win four of their last five games, as the team turned in a 9-8 performance, narrowly missing a playoff berth. In addition to finishing eighth in the NFL in scoring defense, New Orleans ranked first in opponent third down and short percentage (40.7) and passes defended (99), tied for third in interceptions (18), ranked fourth in opponent third down percentage (34.5) and tenth in pass defense (207.3). Leading the charge defensively was LB Demario Davis, who led the team in tackles for the sixth consecutive season, was selected to his second consecutive Pro Bowl and voted an AP All-Pro for the fifth consecutive season.

In his first year as head coach of the Saints in 2022, Allen guided New Orleans to wins in three of their final four games and allow 20 or fewer points in the final eight contests of the season, including ten points apiece in each of the final three contests. Under Allen's supervision, New Orleans ranked second in the NFL in pass defense (184.4), fifth in total defense (314.8), tied for fifth in sacks (48), ranked sixth in opponent red-zone touchdown percentage (50.0) and ninth in scoring defense (20.3).

In 2021, his final season as defensive coordinator before being promoted to head coach, Allen's unit ranked first in the NFL in opponent red-zone touchdown percentage (43.5), finishing No. 2 in the league in opponent first downs (304) and opponent rushing first downs (84), respectively. New Orleans' streak of 22 regular season/postseason contests without allowing a 100-yard rusher at the end of the season was the longest in the NFL. With 25 takeaways and a plus-seven turnover ratio, Allen's defense was instrumental in leading the Saints to their fifth consecutive winning season. Allen handled Head Coach Sean Payton's head coaching duties in a December win over the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as Payton was sidelined due to COVID-19 protocols. Allen's 2020 unit finishing tied for first in interceptions (18), ranked fourth in opponent net yards per game (310.9) and opponent rushing yards per game (91.3), fifth in opponent net passing yards per game (217.0) and opponent points per game (21.1) and eighth in sacks (45). The 139 points given up on the road by New Orleans were the fewest in the NFL and the third-lowest total by the club since the start of a 16-game regular season schedule in 1978. New Orleans did not allow a 100-yard rusher until Week 14 of the season, marking an NFL record of 55 games (postseason included) of not giving up 100 yards to an individual.

The 2019 Saints ranked third in the league in sacks, recording 51 takedowns and finished fourth in run defense at 91.3 yards rushing per game. In 2018, the Saints boasted the second-best run defense in the NFL, allowing just 80.2 rushing yards per game and 3.6 yards per carry.

Allen coordinated a Saints defense in 2017 that finished third in the league in interceptions (20), tied for seventh in sacks (42) and ranked tenth in opponent points per game (20.4) after ranking 31st in 2016. Away from home, New Orleans surrendered only 18.3 points per game, tied for sixth in the NFL, with their 146 road points given up tied for the fifth-lowest total by the club since the start of a 16-game schedule in 1978. Allen oversaw a defense that featured first-team All-Pro DE Cam Jordan who posted 13 sacks and Lattimore, who led rookies with five interceptions and garnered AP Defensive Rookie of the Year honors, as both defenders earned Pro Bowl recognition. In 2016, Allen's group surrendered only 90.6 rushing yards per game over the final 13 weeks of the season, ranking sixth-best in the NFL over that period. After starting the 2015 season as the club's senior defensive assistant, Allen assumed coordinator duties in Week 11. As New Orleans rallied to win three of their final four contests, Allen's unit contributed to finishing strong as the defense surrendered 35.1 total net yards per game below the overall season average, including 25.1 fewer yards per game in stopping the run. New Orleans also held opponents to a season-low 17 points in two of the final four contests.

Prior to his return to New Orleans, Allen served as the Head Coach of the Oakland Raiders from 2012-14. In his second season at the helm, Allen guided a defense that recorded 38 sacks, 13 more than 2012. Allen's group limited opposing offenses to just five runs of 20-or-more yards, tied for the fewest in the league, and kept opponents to less than two yards per carry three times.

Allen spent the 2011 season as Defensive Coordinator of the Denver Broncos, leading a defense that propelled Denver to win the AFC West Division title and advance to the AFC Divisional Round with a win in the AFC Wild Card Round. The defense produced four Pro Bowl selections as rookie linebacker Von Miller joined CB Champ Bailey, S Brian Dawkins and DE Elvis Dumervil on the AFC squad. Miller set what was the team's rookie record with 11.5 sacks en route to AP NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year honors. The Broncos' 41 sacks marked the unit's most since 2000.

Allen spent five seasons with New Orleans as an assistant from 2006-10 before returning in 2015. His first opportunity leading an NFL position group arose in 2008 with the Saints, elevating from Assistant Defensive Line Coach (2006-07) to Secondary Coach (2008-10) in New Orleans. In his second season as Secondary Coach, Allen's tutelage with the defensive backfield helped the Saints finish the season as World Champions following a victory in Super Bowl XLIV.

Allen contributed to a defensive coaching staff that engineered significant improvement from 2009-10, when the club went 2-4-8 in the regular season, qualified for the playoffs both times and captured Super Bowl XLIV. Under Allen's direction in 2010, the Saints allowed an NFL-low 13 touchdown passes, while New Orleans ranked fourth in both opponent net yards per game (306.3) and pass defense (193.9) and fifth in opponent third down efficiency (34.5). Safety Roman Harper was selected to his second consecutive Pro Bowl and cornerback Jabari Greer recorded two interceptions with one brought back for a touchdown. In 2009, Allen tutored a secondary that played a key role in helping the Saints to the club's first Super Bowl victory. A revamped unit accounted for an NFL-high five interception returns for touchdowns and totaled 21 picks with two starters being selected to the Pro Bowl. Opposing quarterbacks managed a meager 68.6 passer rating against the Saints, which ranked No. 3 in the NFL. While serving as assistant defensive line coach from 2006-07, Allen helped develop a unit that ranked as one of the defense's strengths. During that stretch, the front four combined for 49.5 sacks, ten forced fumbles and ten recoveries.

Allen's first NFL coaching tenure occurred in 2002, where he spent the next four seasons aiding the defensive staff of the Atlanta Falcons in Defensive Quality Control and Defensive Assistant capacities, spending time working with secondary and the defensive line. In 2004, Atlanta led the NFL for the first time in club history with 48 sacks, and in 2002, Allen's first year with the Falcons, he assisted in coaching the defensive backfield, as Atlanta tied for third in the NFL with 24 interceptions. Allen entered the coaching ranks at his alma mater, Texas A&M, as a graduate assistant in 1996, working with the defensive backs, before rising to Secondary Coach at Tulsa (2000).

A native of Hurst, Texas, Allen prepped collegiately at Texas A&M, starting each of the final 21 games of his career at safety for the Aggies. Following his collegiate career, Allen signed with the Buffalo Bills as an undrafted free agent, spending training camp with the club.

Allen and his wife, Alisson, have two children – Layla and Garrison.

Declan
DOYLE
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Hometown: Iowa City, Iowa

Doyle assumes the role of Offensive Coordinator after most recently leading the tight ends group of the Denver Broncos (2023-24). This past season, Doyle's work with the Broncos tight ends served as a beneficiary for the development of rookie quarterback Bo Nix, as the Broncos reached the postseason after ranking top-10 in the NFL in points per game (25.0, 10th) and red-zone touchdown percentage (62.5, 7th). Doyle's first season in Denver included aiding Head Coach Sean Payton's staff that helped the Broncos secure the most wins by the franchise in a single season since 2016.

Prior to Denver, Doyle spent four years as an Offensive Assistant with the New Orleans Saints (2019-22). Over his four seasons with New Orleans, the Saints totaled a 41-25 (.621) record, securing NFC South Division titles in each of his first two seasons. Doyle supported an offense that totaled eight players being named to a combined 12 Pro Bowls over the four seasons.

Over his first two seasons in New Orleans, the Saints averaged 28.3 offensive points per game in the two-year span, the second-best rate among all NFL offenses. Doyle's assistance with the offense in 2020 helped New Orleans average 30.1 points per game, the fifth-best mark in the NFL, as the Saints amassed a league-leading 30 rushing touchdowns, setting a single-season franchise record. The Saints averaged 28.6 points per game in 2019, tied for the third-best rate in the NFL, owning the seventh-best passing offense in the league (265.3). New Orleans also ranked top-10 in the league in yards per play (5.92, sixth) and first downs per game (21.7, eighth), as the Saints turned the ball over just eight times on offense the entire season, the then-lowest single-season mark by an NFL team since the NFL-AFL merger in 1970 (Buffalo, 2024).

Prior to breaking into the NFL coaching ranks, Doyle spent three years as an Offensive Student Assistant at the University of Iowa (2016-18). Doyle's responsibilities included aiding Iowa's staff with practice execution and film breakdown of upcoming opponents for the preparation of the offensive staff. Over his three seasons on staff at Iowa, the Hawkeyes posted a combined 25-14 (.641) record and finished with a winning record in each season, participating in three-straight bowl games.

A native of Iowa City, Iowa, Doyle earned a bachelor's degree in business management from Iowa in 2018. Before transferring to Iowa, Doyle played baseball at Iowa Western Community College, where he was a team captain (2015).

Richard HIGHTOWER SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Hometown: Houston, Texas

Richard Hightower enters his fourth season as the Chicago Bears special teams coordinator in 2025 and his fifth year overall in Chicago after previously serving as the club's assistant special teams coach in 2016. Hightower has 18 years of NFL coaching experience, including stops with the Houston Texans (2006-08), Washington Commanders (2010-13), Cleveland Browns (2014), San Francisco 49ers (2015; 2017-21) and Chicago Bears (2016; 2022-present).

Under Hightower's consistent leadership, three separate Bears received NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors, marking the second time in franchise history that at least three separate individuals were recipients of the award in a single season. Hightower's group featured the continued success of K Cairo Santos, who set a new single-season franchise record with a career-high eight made field goals of 50-plus yards, highlighted by a game-winning 53-yard field goal in Week 18 to defeat the division-rival Packers in Green Bay. Rookie P Tory Taylor arrived and made his impact felt, as Hightower's leadership of the group helped Taylor set franchise records for both net punting average (41.6) and gross punting average (47.7) in a single season, finishing tied for fourth in the NFL with 34 punts downed inside of the opponent's 20-yard line. Taylor played a key role in the Bears victory over the Los Angeles Rams in Week 4, leading him to earning Player of the Week honors after dominating field position and putting the Bears defense in an advantageous position. His 55.4 yards per punt put the Bears in prime field position throughout the entirety of the game. Hightower also guided TE Cole Kmet (Week 6) and DB Josh Blackwell (Week 18) to earn NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors. Blackwell logged the first punt returned for a touchdown by the Bears since the 2021 season, a 94-yard return score in Week 18 that tied for the third-longest punt return touchdown in team history. Kmet honorably fulfilled long-snapping duties in Chicago's Week 6 win over the Jaguars in London. Hightower's crew also secured two blocked punts in 2024, the most by any team in the league. The two blocked punts marked the first time that the club has had multiple blocked punts in a single season since 2008. The first blocked punt was returned for a touchdown by DB Jonathan Owens for the Bears' first touchdown of the year. The touchdown sparked momentum for the Bears to overcome a 17-point deficit in the third quarter. In Week 12 vs. Minnesota, Chicago recovered an onside kick in the fourth quarter, making Chicago's special teams unit the first team in the league to successfully recover an onside kick this season. In the return phase, Hightower guided a unit that featured WR DeAndre Carter handling return duties, registering a 31.9-yard kickoff return average, the second-highest rate in the NFL among all returners with at least 15 kickoff returns in 2024.

In 2023, the club saw a career-year from kicker Cairo Santos. He went 35-38 on field goals and 31-33 on extra points on the season and set the Bears single-season record for field goals. He also set career-highs in field goals made, points scored (136) and field goals made from 50+ yards (seven). Santos was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Month in November. In the return game the Bears finished top five in the NFC in kickoff returns (18, second), kickoff return yards (470, third) and kickoff return average (26.1, fourth).

In Hightower's first year as the Bears special teams coordinator, the Bears finished as one of the top special teams units across the league in several categories: they led the NFL in fewest penalties committed, were second in the NFL in special teams takeaways, second in the league in kickoff return average (fifth in drive start position), second in the NFL in opponent field goal percentage, third in the NFL in tackles inside the 20-yard line on kickoff while also posting the third-highest net punt average in Bears history.

Individually, Santos connected on 21-of-23 field goal attempts (91.3%). In doing so, he became the most accurate kicker in Bears history (min. 80 attempts), knocking in 78-of-87 (89.7%) field goals in a Bears uniform. Newcomer Trenton Gill finished the 2022 regular season logging 66 punts and compiled a 46.0 average (40.3 net). Gill's net average is the third-highest single-season net average dating back to 1920, and the 46.0 average was the fourth-highest single-season average in franchise history. In the return game, Jones showed growth as a kick returner, producing an average of 27.6 yards on 22 returns, good for the 12th-highest single-season kick return average in Bears history (min. 15 attempts).

Prior to his arrival in Chicago, Hightower spent the 2017-21 seasons in San Francisco as the club's special teams coordinator. During the 2021 season, the 49ers' special teams played a key role in the team's postseason run to the NFC Championship game. In the divisional round win at the Packers, Hightower's unit blocked a punt for a touchdown late in the fourth quarter to tie the game, and also converted on the game-winning field goal as time expired. They also blocked a field goal as time expired going into halftime to keep it a one-possession game. Then to open the second half, Deebo Samuel set the 49ers up with great field position with a 45-yard kickoff return.

Punter Mitch Wishnowsky had an outstanding year in 2021. He earned his second-career NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honor following Week 2 after his outing against the Eagles where he recorded two punts that pinned Philadelphia inside their own 10-yard line, neither resulting in points, and finished the day with five punts for 226 yards (45.2 average) with three landing inside the 20. He also earned NFC Special Teams Player of the Month honors for September. That month, Wishnowsky registered 11 punts for 515 yards (46.8 average), including a long of 59. Those 11 punts were returned for a total of only 19 yards and of his 11 punts, six landed inside the opposition's 20-yard line. Wishnowsky and special teamer Trenton Cannon also were named Pro Bowl alternates following the 2021 season.

From 2017-20, the 49ers kicking unit tied for second in the NFL in made field goals (124) and fifth in field goal percentage (88.6). In addition, San Francisco's punt coverage ranked second over that time span, holding opponent punt returns to an average of 6.2 yards per return.

In 2020, Hightower helped Wishnowsky record the ninth-most punts inside the 20-yard line (25) in the NFL while finishing in the top-12 in both net (41.6, 12th) and gross (46.9, 11th) average. Kicker Robbie Gould converted 19 of 23 field goals (82.6 percent) and earned NFL Special Teams Player of the Week honors in Week 12.

In 2019, Hightower led the 49ers special teams unit that had an average starting field position of the 32.1-yard line, ranking second in the NFL. San Francisco also held opponents to an average starting field position of the 24.7-yard line, which ranked seventh. Kicker Robbie Gould connected on 23 of 31 field goal attempts and finished the season with 110 points, marking his third-consecutive 100-or-more point season with the 49ers. He was also named Special Teams Player of the Month for December for the third-consecutive season since joining the 49ers in 2017. Wishnowsky registered a 44.9 punt average which ranked second among all rookies in franchise history (min. 20 punts) and wide receiver Richie James Jr. ranked seventh in the NFL in punt return average (8.0) and 10th in kickoff return average (21.4).

Under Hightower in 2018, San Francisco's special teams units flourished. Gould set the 49ers single-season franchise record for field goal percentage (97.1), as he connected on 33 of 34 field goal attempts and finished the season with 126 points. He also set the franchise record for most consecutive field goals made (33) and finished the season connecting on each of his final 23 attempts. Gould was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Month for December and was a two-time recipient of the NFC Special Teams Player of the Week Award (Week 2 & 15). Rookie James Jr. was named All-NFC kick returner by the PFWA as he averaged 25.2 yards per kickoff return, which ranked seventh in the NFL. James Jr. also registered the team's first kickoff return for a touchdown (97 yards) since 2011.

In 2017, the 49ers special teams units excelled under Hightower's guidance. In his first season with the 49ers, Gould had a career year, leading the NFL with a career-high 39 made field goals and finishing third in the NFL with a career-high 145 points. Gould's 39 made field goals were the second-most in a single-season in franchise history (K David Akers - 44 made field goals in 2011) and tied for the third-most in a single-season in NFL history. P Bradley Pinion set a career high with a 41.3 net punting average and the punt coverage unit ranked second in the NFL, allowing 4.2 yards per return. The 4.2 opponent punt return average was the eighth-best in the NFL since 2001.

As an assistant special teams coach with Chicago in 2016, the Bears kickoff coverage team finished seventh in the NFL in opponent drive

start average. Kickoff returner Deonte Thompson led the NFL in kickoff returns with 35 and ranked second with 810 yards. Punt returner Eddie Royal scored on a 65-yard touchdown on Monday Night Football against the Philadelphia Eagles, while cornerback Sherrick McManis led the Bears in special teams tackles and finished top 10 in the NFL, recording 13 stops.

In 2015, Hightower first joined San Francisco as an assistant special teams coach. That season, Hightower helped the 49ers punt coverage unit rank eighth in the NFL allowing just 6.4 yards per return, while working with rookie punter Bradley Pinion. Kicker Phil Dawson was 10th in the NFL with an 88.9 field goal percentage (tied for the fourth highest percentage of his 17-year career at the time).

Hightower spent the 2014 season working on offense in Cleveland assisting the wide receivers after working as an assistant special teams coach for four seasons in Washington (2010-13). With Washington, he worked under longtime special teams coordinator Danny Smith. Hightower also spent two seasons (2012-13) as the assistant defensive backs coach with Washington. Over his four seasons in Washington, they ranked third in the NFL in kickoff coverage, allowing just 21.2 yards per return, including leading the league in 2010 and 2011. Hightower's coaching on special teams helped linebacker Lorenzo Alexander lead the NFL with 21 special teams tackles en route to being named the NFC's special teams player in the Pro Bowl, in 2012. Hightower was also instrumental in the development of first-year kicker Kai Forbath, who broke an NFL record by hitting his first 17 field goal attempts and led the NFL with a 94.4 field goal percentage.

As assistant defensive back coach, Hightower helped the unit rank sixth in the NFL in interceptions (37) and tied for second in the NFL in interception returns for touchdowns (seven) over the two-year span. DeAngelo Hall led the NFL in defensive touchdowns (three). In 2012, Washington ranked first in the NFC in passes defended and had four returned touchdowns.

From 2006-08, Hightower was on Houston's coaching staff as a coaching assistant (2006-07) before being elevated to special teams assistant (2008). In Houston, he served under widely respected then-special teams coordinator Joe Marciano, who had more than 30 years of experience coaching special teams at the time. In 2008, Houston was 11th in the NFL in kickoff coverage (22.3 yards per return). Punt returner Jacoby Jones finished fifth in the NFL and second in Houston single-season annals with a 12.1 average, including a franchise single-season record two punt return touchdowns. Kicker Kris Brown set franchise records for points (124), field goals made (29) and field goal percentage (87.9). In 2007, the kickoff return unit featuring wide receiver's Jerome Mathis and Andre Davis became only the fourth team in NFL history to score four touchdowns on kickoff returns in a single season.

In between his time in Houston and Washington, Hightower spent the 2009 season as wide receivers coach at the University of Minnesota. Under his tutelage, wide receiver Eric Decker was named a First-Team All-Big Ten selection that season before being selected by the Denver Broncos in the third round (87th overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft.

A native of Houston, Hightower earned his bachelor's degree in marketing from the University of Texas where he was a three-year letterman and special teams standout for the Longhorns. He went to Austin as an academic scholar and later earned an athletic scholarship after walking on. Following his senior season, then-head coach Mack Brown and his staff voted Hightower the D. Harold Byrd Leadership Award winner.

Hightower and his wife, Lanet, have two sons, Jaxson and Kaden, and a daughter, Reagan.

Antwaan
ASSISTANT HEAD COACH / WIDE RECEIVERS

Hometown: Riverdale, Ill.

Antwaan Randle El enters his first season with the Bears in 2025.

A two-time Super Bowl champion, both as a player (Super Bowl XL) and coach (Super Bowl LV), Randle El was a nine-year NFL veteran at wide receiver, appearing in over 150 career games (postseason included), before commencing his coaching career in 2019.

Randle El returns to his hometown of Chicago after spending the last four seasons leading the wide receiver group of the Detroit Lions. Over his four seasons with Detroit, Randle El contributed to two NFC North Division titles, while aiding in the development of a wide receiver group that featured eventual two-time AP First-Team All-Pro and three-time Pro Bowler Amon-Ra St. Brown.

In 2024, Randle El's aid of the Lions' offense helped Detroit average a franchise-record 409.5 yards per game, as the team averaged a league-high 32.4 points per game and accumulated 68 total offensive touchdowns – the most by any team in the NFL. Randle El's wide receiver group helped the unit own the No. 2 passing offense in the NFL (263.2), as Detroit's 7 drops over the entire regular season were the fewest by any team in the NFL and the fewest by any team since 2019 (Atlanta, 7). St. Brown earned his second-straight AP First-Team All-Pro acknowledgment and third-straight Pro Bowl nod, becoming just third player in NFL history to record at least 115 receptions and 10 receiving touchdowns in consecutive seasons, including a career-high 12 receiving scores in 2024.

Randle El's work in 2023 helped the Lions reach the NFC Championship game after finishing the regular season with the No. 2 passing offense (258.9) and No. 3 total offense (394.8) in the NFL. Under Randle El's tutelage, St. Brown became just the third Lions wide receiver to earn AP First-Team All-Pro honors after leading the NFL in 100-yard receiving games (nine) and tying for the second-most receptions by any player in the league (1009).

Over his first two seasons in Detroit, Randle El aided in the development of St. Brown, while also grooming a group that would eventually earn two-straight division titles. In 2022, the Lions' wide receiving corps finished top-10 in receptions (383), receiving yards (4,444), receiving first downs (228), receiving touchdowns (29), receptions of over 25 yards (35) and yards after catch (2,217). Under Randle El's direction, the Lions were one of five teams to have six players record over 350 receiving yards. Over the 2021-22 seasons, St. Brown tied an NFL record by producing at least eight receptions in eight-straight games. In their first season together, Randle El helped St. Brown set a team-record with six-straight games of at least eight receptions, becoming the first rookie in NFL history to do so.

Prior to Detroit, Randle El spent two seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2019-20), working as an Offensive Assistant. In his second season, the Buccaneers defeated the Kansas City Chiefs in Super Bowl LV to claim his second World Championship, first as a coach. Over his two seasons with the Buccaneers, Randle El aided an offense that ranked No. 1 in the NFL in passing offense (307.8 yards per game) and totaled 119 offensive touchdowns, a league-high. He also worked Tampa Bay's wide receiver group, which featured WR Mike Evans securing over 1,000 receiving yards each season.

As a player, Randle El totaled 4,467 yards on 370 receptions (12.1 avg.) and 15 receiving touchdowns in 143 career games played (71 starts) in the regular season for the Pittsburgh Steelers (2002-05, '10) and with Washington (2006-09). In 2005, Randle El's career-high 15.9 yards per reception helped Pittsburgh reach the postseason, where he started all four postseason bouts for the Steelers en route to a World Championship by defeating the Seattle Seahawks in Super Bowl XL. Randle El, who added six passing touchdowns and six touchdowns via kickoff and punt returns, was selected by the Steelers in the second round of the 2002 NFL Draft.

Randle El, a former quarterback, prepped collegiately at Indiana University, earning first-team All-America and Big Ten Conference Most Valuable Player honors following his final season in 2001. Over his tenure in Bloomington, earned All-Big Ten honors on three occasions, leaving college as the FBS' all-time leader in rushing yards by a quarterback. A former Big Ten Freshman of the Year honoree, the annual award is now named after Randle El. Randle El also spent time on the basketball and baseball teams at Indiana, playing under Hall of Fame coach Bobby Knight on the hardwood. Randle El was inducted into the Indiana Athletic Hall of Fame in 2012.

Before entering the coaching ranks, Randle El served as the Athletic Director at Virginia Academy in Ashburn, Va., a Christian high school that he helped found.

A native of Riverdale, Ill., Randle El graduated from nearby Thornton Township High School in Harvey, Ill., and, in 1997, was selected by the hometown Chicago Cubs in the 14th round (424th overall) of the Major League Baseball Draft.

Randle El is married to his wife, Jaune, and they are parents to six children.

Matt
APONTE

Hometown: Staten Island, N.Y.

Aponte most recently served as Offensive Coordinator / Quarterbacks at the University of San Diego (2023-24), where he was the youngest Offensive Coordinator in Division I FCS. Over his two seasons leading the Toreros offense, Aponte's unit averaged over 360 net yards per game, second-most in the Pioneer Football League. Over his two seasons as Offensive Coordinator, 14 Toreros earned all-conference honors.

Last season, Aponte coordinated a San Diego offense that featured QB Grant Sergent totaling a conference-best 26 passing touchdowns, as well as WR Ja'seem Reed, who was named PFL Offensive Player of the Year after totaling 77 receptions for 1,052 yards and 12 receiving touchdowns. USD reached eight wins, the most victories by the program in a single season since 2019. In 2023, his first season leading the offense, Aponte was integral in the development of true freshman QB Don Nankil, who was ultimately named a finalist for the Jerry Rice Award, presented annually to the most outstanding player in the FCS. On the ground, the RB Isaiah Williams averaged 108.6 yards per game, ranking top-10 in the nation. Aponte was elevated to Offensive Coordinator / Quarterbacks after spending two seasons as Tight Ends Coach at San Diego.

In advance of his second season as Offensive Coordinator / Quarterbacks, Aponte was named to Coaching Network's 30 Under 30 Class for 2024.

Prior to San Diego, Aponte spent seven seasons at the University of Iowa (2014-20). Starting as a Player Personnel Assistant in 2014, Aponte served as an Offensive Assistant for the Hawkeyes (2017-18) over the latter half of his undergraduate tenure. Following graduation, Aponte was promoted to Assistant Quarterbacks Coach in 2019, a role he would hold for two seasons. Over his tenure in Iowa City, Aponte helped the Hawkeyes claim 60 victories, three-straight bowl wins (2017-19) and a Big Ten West title (2015).

Over his career, Aponte has also accumulated experience as a Scouting and Operations Intern, working with the Kansas City Chiefs in advance of the 2015 and 2016 seasons.

A native of Staten Island, N.Y., Aponte earned a bachelor's degree in Sport and Recreation Management from Iowa in 2018.

QUARTERBACKS

School: Ohio State University
Hometown: Wichita Falls, Texas

J.T. Barrett joins the Bears' staff in 2025 as Quarterbacks Coach. A former All-Big Ten quarterback, Barrett has spent the last three seasons on the offensive staff of the Detroit Lions, most recently serving as Assistant Quarterbacks Coach (2023-24).

Barrett arrives in Chicago after helping the Lions' offense average a franchise-record 409.5 yards per game in 2024, averaging a league-high 32.4 points per game and accumulating 68 total offensive touchdowns – the most by any team in the NFL. The Lions, led by QB Jared Goff, ranked No. 2 in the NFL in both total offense (409.5) and passing offense (263.2), as Barrett's work with Goff helped the veteran QB reach single-season career-highs in passer rating (111.8), completion percentage (72.4) and passing touchdowns (37) in 2024. Barrett was elevated to Assistant Quarterbacks Coach in 2023, where he helped Goff lead the NFL in passing first downs (227), throwing for the second-most passing yards by any QB in the NFL (4,575). Under Goff's leadership, the Lions captured their first division title since 1993 and reached the NFC Championship Game for the second time in team history. Over his last two seasons as Assistant QBs Coach (2023-24), no unit averaged more points per game (30.1) or net yards per game (402.2) than the Lions.

Over his three seasons in Detroit, the Lions captured two NFC North Division titles, earning an NFC Championship Game berth in 2023 and reached a franchise-record 15 regular-season wins in 2024.

Barrett joined the Lions in 2022 as an Offensive Assistant, working under first-year offensive coordinator, and current Bears Head Coach, Ben Johnson, and helping Detroit secure eight wins out of their final 10 games to close out the year.

Prior to entering the coaching ranks, Barrett was a three-time First-Team All-Big Ten Conference quarterback at Ohio State, earning Big Ten Quarterback of the Year honors on three occasions, including the 2016 season where he was named Big Ten Most Valuable Player. Over his four seasons of action Ohio State (2014-17), Barrett started 44-of-50 career games at quarterback for the Buckeyes, totaling the 104 passing touchdowns, 147 total offensive touchdowns and 12,697 total offensive yards – all Ohio State and Big Ten Conference all-time records.

Barrett became the first-ever three-time team captain in Ohio State history and is the only quarterback from either Ohio State or Michigan to go 4-0 against their rival in the storied annual game. Barrett was named Big Ten Freshman of the Year, Big Ten Quarterback of the Year in 2014 and Heisman Trophy finalist, leading the Buckeyes to an 11-1 record, before sustaining an injury. Ohio State would go on to secure the first College Football Playoff National Championship.

Eric
BIENIEMY
RUNNING BACKS

School: University of Colorado
Hometown: West Covina, Calif.

With 25 years of coaching experience and two Super Bowl titles, Bieniemy arrives in Chicago after most recently serving as Assistant Head Coach and Offensive Coordinator at UCLA in 2024, following one season in a similar capacity with the Washington Commanders in 2023.

Prior to Washington, Bieniemy spent 10 seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs, five years as Offensive Coordinator (2018-22) following a five-season tenure coaching the running backs (2013-17). In his time with the Chiefs, Bieniemy oversaw the development of QB Patrick Mahomes, aiding a staff that propelled Kansas City to the postseason on nine occasions, claiming seven AFC West Division titles, appearing in five-straight AFC Championship Games with three trips to the Super Bowl, winning two World Championships with victories in Super Bowl LIV and Super Bowl LVII.

In his final season with Kansas City (2022), Bieniemy helped the Chiefs lead the league in scoring (29.2 points per game), tie a franchise record with 14 wins, secure the AFC's No. 1 seed in the postseason and win Super Bowl LVII, as Mahomes earned his second AP NFL Most Valuable Player award after setting a new career-high with 5,250 passing yards to lead the NFL. Paired with 41 passing touchdowns, Mahomes became the second player in NFL history (Drew Brees) to secure multiple seasons with 5,000-yard passing yards and 40-plus touchdowns. TE Travis Kelce had the second-most receiving yards of his career (1,338), tallying his seventh straight 1,000-yard season, an NFL record by a tight end. In 2021, Bieniemy continued to lead the Kansas City Chiefs offense to finish in the top five in multiple NFL categories including, third down conversion percentage (1st: 52.2), first downs (1st: 419), yards per game (3rd: 396.8), points per game (4th: 28.2) and offensive touchdowns (5th: 53) en route to the team's sixth-straight AFC West title. QB Patrick Mahomes continued to add to his NFL resume, adding 4,839 passing yards on 436 completions and 37 touchdowns. WR Tyreek Hill (111) and TE Travis Kelce (92) each finished the season with more than 90 receptions, marking the first time in franchise history that a pair of teammates each recorded 90+ receptions in the same season. The 2020 Kansas City Chiefs offense led the NFL in multiple categories including, net passing yards per game (303.4), yards per game (415.8) and first downs (397), capturing the club's fifth-straight AFC West title and second-straight Super Bowl appearance. Mahomes became the fastest QB to record 100 career passing touchdowns, doing so in just 40 games. TE Travis Kelce set an NFL record for a tight end with 1,416 receiving yards, extending his NFL record to five-straight seasons with at least 1,000 yards receiving. WR Tyreek Hill had 1,276 receiving yards and 15 touchdown receptions, tying the franchise record, while rookie RB Clyde Edwards-Helaire recorded 803 rushing yards finishing fourth among all rookies.

Under Bieniemy, the Chiefs finished the season with a World Championship, the team's first Super Bowl victory in 50 years. The Super Bowl champion Chiefs offense finished in the top-10 in total yards per game (379.2), passing yards per game (281.1), yards per play (6.22) and points per game (28.2). In his second year as the starter, Mahomes became the fastest quarterback in NFL history to reach 9,000 passing yards and 75 touchdowns, doing so in just 30 games. Kelce became the fastest TE to reach 500 career receptions in NFL history, and became the first TE in NFL history to record back-to-back 1,200 receiving yards seasons. Hill became the fastest wide receiver in Chiefs history to record 4,000 career receiving yards, tallying 4,054 receiving yards in 58 games. In his first year as offensive coordinator, Bieniemy oversaw one of the most prolific offenses in Chiefs history as the club finished 12-4 in 2018, earning its third-consecutive AFC West Division title en route to hosting the first AFC Championship Game in team history. Mahomes was named the AP NFL Most Valuable Player after passing for 5,097 yards and 50 touchdowns in just his first season as a starting quarterback. Kelce ranked second among NFL tight ends with 1,336 receiving yards, and Hill's 1,479 single-season receiving yards ranked first in Chiefs history.

Under Bieniemy's tutelage in 2017, rookie RB Kareem Hunt rushed for an NFL-best 1,327 yards, setting a Chiefs rookie record. From 2013-15, he mentored RB Jamaal Charles, who, in 2014, recorded 1,000 rushing yards for the fifth time in his career. Charles became the all-time leading rusher in franchise history and finished his Chiefs career with 7,260 career rushing yards. In 2013, under Bieniemy, Charles led the NFL in touchdowns (19) and first downs (104) and ranked second in yards from scrimmage (1,980 yards), recording the most receiving yards by a running back in Chiefs history, leading the AFC in rushing (1,287 yards).

Prior to returning to the NFL coaching ranks, Bieniemy spent two seasons (2011-12) at his alma mater, the University of Colorado, which was preceded by a tenure coaching running backs with the Minnesota Vikings (2006-10). In his five seasons with Minnesota, the Vikings produced a 1,000-yard rusher each year, while his stable of running backs broke the 100-yard mark 31 times in 80 regular season games. In 2006, he coached RB Chester Taylor, who rushed for 1,216 yards. The following season, Taylor and RB Adrian Peterson combined for 2,185 yards (1,341 by Peterson, who was All-Pro as a rookie). Peterson set a then-Vikings record with 1,760 yards in 2008, earning the Bert Bell Award as the Pro Football Player of the Year. Overall, Peterson totaled 5,782 rushing yards and 52 touchdowns in four seasons under Bieniemy's guidance.

Bieniemy elevated to the NFL ranks after three seasons as the running backs coach at UCLA (2003-05). While at UCLA, Bieniemy tutored former NFL RB Maurice Jones-Drew for three seasons at UCLA, where Jones-Drew earned Freshman All-America honors in 2003, before rushing for 1,007 yards in 2004 and earning consensus All-America honors as a kick returner in 2005.

Following his NFL playing career, Bieniemy served as an assistant at Thomas Jefferson High in Denver, prior to securing his first job as running backs coach with Colorado. In his first two seasons coaching the position, the Buffaloes ranked in the top-10 in the nation in rushing.

A second-round selection (39th overall) by the San Diego Chargers in the 1991 NFL Draft, Bieniemy would go on to play nine seasons in the NFL, appearing in 142 career games for the Chargers (1991-94), Cincinnati Bengals (1995-98) and Philadelphia Eagles (1999). In 1994, Bieniemy helped lead the Chargers to an AFC Championship and an appearance in Super Bowl XXIX.

The West Covina, Calif., native is married to his wife, Mia, and the couple have two sons, Eric III and Elijah.

School: University of Alabama at Birmingham
Hometown: Birmingham, Ala.

Blevins brings 21 years of coaching experience, including a decade on NFL sidelines, to Chicago. Prior to spending a portion of the 2024 season with the Birmingham Stallions of the UFL, Blevins spent five years with the Arizona Cardinals (2013-17) as their Assistant Special Teams Coach, before a five-season tenure with the New York Giants (2018-22) in a variety of roles, working with the special teams units, linebackers and defensive backs over his tenure with New York.

Blevins aided a Birmingham Stallions defense that propelled the team to their third-straight league championship, first as a member of the United Football League. The Stallions started the 2024 season winning each of their first eight games, holding opponents to less than 20 points in each of their first five outings. Closing out the season strong, Birmingham's defense held the opposition again to less than 20 points in both postseason games, including a 25-0 shutout victory in the UFL Championship over the San Antonio Brahmas.

Over his five seasons with the Giants, Blevins occupied a variety of roles on New York's coaching staff. Bookending his tenure with the Giants in an assistant special teams capacity, Blevins transitioned to Assistant Defensive Backs Coach in 2020, before moving to tutor the linebackers in an Assistant Linebackers / Special Teams Assistant role in 2021. Returning to coach special teams for New York in 2022, Blevins aided a Giants team that made the postseason and defeated the Minnesota Vikings in an NFC Wild Card tilt to earn a berth in the NFC Divisional Round. In 2021, Blevins contributed to a linebackers group that featured LB Tae Crowder leading the team with 130 tackles, as rookie LB Azeez Ojulari set the franchise's rookie record with eight sacks. The Giants also held opponents to a league-low 17.8 yards per kickoff return, as Gano kicked a Giants-record seven field goals of 50+ yards. As Assistant Defensive Backs Coach in 2020, the Giants' pass defense jumped from 28th in the league in 2019 to a tie for 16th, as CB James Bradberry was selected to his first Pro Bowl after tying for second in the NFL with 18 passes defended.

Over his first two seasons with New York, the Giants were fourth and 10th, respectively, in the NFL in punt (9.8 yards) and kickoff (23.5 yards) return average, as his group led the league in 2019 by allowing an average return of just 18.1 yards per kickoff return and the punt coverage team was tied for fifth as opponents averaged only 5.7 yards a return. In his first season with New York, Blevins' unit featured K Aldrick Rosas, who was selected to the Pro Bowl and was named AP Second-Team All-Pro after making 32 of 33 field goal attempts. Blevins also helped mentor S Michael Thomas, who was selected to his first Pro-Bowl following the season.

Before his time with the Giants, Blevins spent five years with the Arizona Cardinals as a Coaching Assistant / Special Teams Coach. Blevins contributed to a staff that helped special teamer Justin Bethel get selected to three consecutive Pro Bowls (2013-15) after leading the team in special teams tackles each season. In 2013 and 2015, Bethel was named first-team All-NFL by the Pro Football Writers Association. All-Pro K Chandler Catanzaro tied the NFL record for the most consecutive field goals to begin a career (17) and established a franchise rookie record with 114 points in 2014. The following season, Catanzaro finished third in the NFL with 137 points, which was also the second-highest single-season total in franchise history. In 2017, Blevins coached rookie S Budda Baker, who was selected as the NFC special teams representative in the Pro Bowl. Baker led the Cardinals with 16 special teams tackles and was selected All-Pro by the AP and the Pro Football Writers Association.

Blevins spent the 2012 season as the Cornerbacks Coach at his alma mater, the University of Alabama at Birmingham, which followed three seasons at Tennessee State University (2009-11) where he coached special teams and tutored the cornerbacks. Over his tenure, Blevins also served as the Recruiting Coordinator at the University of Tennessee at Martin (2008), where he also led the cornerbacks group. Blevins entered the collegiate coaching ranks in 2005 at Mississippi State University, serving as a Graduate Assistant.

Returning to Chicago in 2025, Blevins previously took part in the NFL's Bill Walsh Minority Coaching Fellowship, spending time with the Bears in 2024 and 2008, as well as with the Cardinals (2010) and Indianapolis Colts (2011).

Blevins, who started his coaching career at Meadowcreek High School in Gwinnett, Ga., in 2003, played professionally for the Mobile Admirals of the Regional Football League (1999), the Birmingham Steeldogs of AFL2 (2000) and for the Birmingham Thunderbolts in the XFL from 2000-01.

A native of Birmingham, Ala., Blevins graduated from UAB in 1998 with a bachelor's degree in sociology and later earned a master's in instructional technology in 2006 from Mississippi State. In 2015, Blevins returned to Mississippi State, where he earned a PhD in instructional systems & workforce development.

Zach
CABLE

Hometown: Renton, Wash.

Zach Cable is in his third season with the Bears in 2025. Cable possesses seven years of coaching experience, including six seasons in the NFL. Prior to Chicago, Cable spent a year at Northern Colorado (2022) and had a four-year stint with the Raiders (2018-21). During the 2024 season, Cable worked primarily with an offense line that aided QB Caleb Williams to Bears rookie records across all major passing statistics. In 2023, Cable helped the Bears record 2,399 rushing yards on the season, ranking second amongst all NFL teams. Before joining the Bears, Cable worked as the outside linebackers coach at the University of Northern Colorado during the 2022 season. Prior to that, he gained his first years of NFL experience working as an offensive and defensive assistant with the Raiders from 2018-21, where he worked with the offensive line, tight ends and linebackers. In his final season in Las Vegas in 2021, the Raiders qualified for the playoffs for the second time since the 2003 season. Cable played defensive lineman at the University of Idaho. He graduated from Idaho with degrees in Organizational Sciences and General Studies with a minor in Psychology. He is the son of former NFL coach Tom Cable.

Hometown: Vacaville, Calif.

Last season, DeVan led an offensive front featuring Gerad Lichtenhan, who was named the top offensive lineman in the conference, and Joshua Gray, who was selected to play in the East-West Shrine Bowl. DeVan's group helped the Beavers start the 2024 slate with four victories in their first five outings.

Prior to returning to Corvallis, DeVan spent one season as the Associate Head Coach / Offensive Line / Run-Game Coordinator at Charlotte (2023). With DeVan's leadership, the 49ers would go on to average over 145 rushing yards per game in 2023, as offensive lineman Kevin Williams earned All-American Athletic Conference recognition.

Before Charlotte, DeVan led the offensive line at the University of Colorado, where his front allowed just 23 sacks on the season, the second-fewest sacks allowed by any team in the conference.

DeVan spent one season as an Offensive Analyst at the University of Michigan (2021), working with the offensive line. With DeVan's aid, the Wolverines offensive front earned the Joe Moore Award, which is presented annually to the nation's top offensive line, helping pave the way for the program's first College Football Playoff berth, finishing the season ranked No. 3 in the nation. In 2021, all five regular starting offensive linemen for Michigan finished the season with All-Big Ten Conference honors.

Prior to Michigan, DeVan had a two-year tenure as Run Game Coordinator / Offensive Line Coach at the University of Arizona (2019-20). DeVan led the offensive line and coordinated the run game for the Wildcats, as the unit averaged over 170 yards per game rushing in 2019, third-best in the conference. DeVan's first opportunity to lead an offensive line group occurred in 2016 at Ball State University, a role he would hold for three seasons (2016-18), adding Assistant Head Coach responsibilities for the final two seasons.

Following his playing career, DeVan entered the coaching ranks at Oregon State in 2013, working with the tight ends group as a Graduate Assistant, before spending one season at the University of Southern California (2014) and serving as Assistant Offensive Line Coach with the New Orleans Saints in 2015.

DeVan appeared in 40 regular-season games (26 starts), as well as four postseason starts, along the offensive front for the Indianapolis Colts (2009-10), Philadelphia Eagles (2011) and Tennessee Titans (2012) after entering the league as an undrafted free agent with Washington in 2008. A four-year letter-winning offensive lineman at Oregon State (2004-07), DeVan capped his tenure with the Beavers with three All-Pac-10 Conference recognitions, earning second-team honors in 2006. Oregon State went 38-24 over his tenure in Corvallis, appearing in four bowl games. DeVan was twice nominated for the Rimington Trophy, which is awarded to the top center in college football.

Jim
DRAY
TIGHT ENDS

School: Stanford University
Hometown: Paramus, N.J.

Jim Dray enters his fourth season with the club in 2025.

Dray enters his eighth season overall in coaching, having made additional stops with the Arizona Cardinals (2020-21), Cleveland Browns (2019) and at his alma mater, Stanford University (2018).

In 2024, Dray led a tight end group that served as an outlet helping rookie QB Caleb Williams set Bears all-time rookie and franchise passing records. TE Cole Kmet led the group with 474 receiving yards on 47 receptions, 25 going for first downs and four touchdown grabs. Among tight ends in Bears history, Kmet moved to second in receptions (258), second in first down receptions (129, since 1994), third in touchdowns (19) and fourth in receiving yards (2,592). TE Mercedes Lewis continued to be a veteran presence, breaking the all-time NFL record for games played at tight end, finishing the season with 285 career games played.

In his second year coaching the tight ends, Dray's unit saw a career year from fourth-year tight end Cole Kmet. He accounted for 719 receiving yards on 73 catches (9.8 avg.) with six receiving touchdowns. His 719 receiving yards were the second-most among Bears pass-catchers in 2023. On the season, Kmet set career-highs in catches (73) and yards (719). His six touchdowns were his second most in a season in his career (7, 2022). Among all tight ends in the NFL in 2023, Kmet ranked tied for second in receiving touchdowns (6), tied for seventh in receptions (73), eighth in first downs (36) and ninth in receiving yards (719). Dating back to the start of the 2000 season among Bears tight ends, Kmet 2023 season ranked second in receptions and third in receiving yards, touchdowns and in first downs (33). All-time among Bears tight ends, Kmet ranks third in receptions (211), and fourth in touchdowns (15), first downs (104) and receiving yards (2,118). Veteran tight end Mercedes Lewis also provided leadership to the group in 2023. With his start against the Cardinals, Lewis passed Aaron Rodgers for most the starts by an active player (225). He is one of only three tight ends in NFL history to start 200+ regular season games and post 400+ receptions (436) (Gonzales & Witten). He also ranks first in games played (268) among active players. Against the Falcons in Week 17, Lewis caught his first touchdown of the season and 40th of his career. He had four catches for 29 yards with one touchdown in 16 games with four starts.

Dray completed his first season as the Bears tight ends coach in 2022, where he aided in the development of Kmet, who finished the season with a career-best seven touchdown receptions -- tied for the third-most among all tight ends in the NFL. Kmet's seven touchdowns were also the fifth-most touchdown receptions by a Bears tight end in a single season. He also led the team in receiving yards, totaling 544 yards on 50 catches (10.9 avg.).

Prior to his arrival in Chicago, Dray completed his second season in Arizona in 2021 as an offensive quality control coach. The Cardinals finished 11-6 during the 2021 season, good for second in the NFC West, and earned an NFC wild card berth. The Cardinals' offense finished fifth in the NFC in points per game (26.4) and fourth in yards per game (373.6).

Dray began his coaching career at his alma mater, Stanford, as an offensive assistant in 2018 prior to working as an offensive quality control coach with the Cleveland Browns in 2019.

An eight-year NFL veteran, Dray was selected by the Cardinals in the seventh round (233rd overall) of the 2010 NFL Draft out of Stanford. He also played with Cleveland (2014-15), Buffalo (2016) and San Francisco (2016). He appeared in 94 career games (38 starts) and finished his career with 56 receptions for 605 yards (10.8 avg.) and three touchdowns.

Dray started 39 career games at Stanford and had 41 receptions for 455 yards and seven touchdowns, earning second-team All-Pac 10 honors as a senior while helping the Cardinals finish 11th in the nation in rushing yards per game that season (218.2).

A native of Paramus, N.J., Dray was named first team All-Bergen County, All-North New Jersey, all-league, as well as second-team All-State as a junior and senior at Bergen Catholic (Oradell, N.J.) High School. He finished his prep career with 66 receptions for 786 yards and five touchdowns, earning MVP honors in the 2003 state championship game.

Jeremy
GARRETT
DEFENSIVE LINE

School: Ole Miss University
Hometown: Senatobia, Miss.

A coaching veteran of over 15 years at the NFL, collegiate and high school levels, Garrett arrives in Chicago to lead the defensive line group after most recently serving as the Defensive Line Coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2024.

Last season, Garrett's work with the Jaguars front yielded immediate results, as DE Travon Walker totaled a career-high 10.5 sacks to lead the unit, as DE Josh Hines-Alen registered his fourth-straight season with at least 10 tackles for loss, the longest streak in franchise history, and DT DaVon Hamilton graded out as one of the best run defenders in the NFL. In a Week 5 win over Indianapolis, Walker collected a career-high three sacks, before logging the fourth-longest fumble recovery for a touchdown by a defensive lineman in club history (35 yards) in Week 9. At season's end, Hines-Alen reached 63 career tackles for loss, setting the all-time franchise record.

Prior to Jacksonville, Garrett spent two seasons at the collegiate level, first leading the defensive line at Liberty University (2022), before joining the staff at Auburn University (2023) as Defensive Line Coach for the Tigers. At Liberty, Garrett led a unit that led the country in tackles for loss (121), as DE Durrell Johnson collected 22.5 TFLs, the most by any player in the nation. Following his season at Liberty, Garrett led an Auburn front that featured DT Marcus Harris, who earned First-Team All-SEC recognition and DL Keldric Faulk, who was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team, as the Tigers ranked in the top-half of the conference in sacks.

Garrett spent two seasons as the Assistant Defensive Line Coach for the Cleveland Browns (2020-21), helping the Browns reach the postseason and earn an AFC Wild Card Round victory in 2020. In his two seasons with the Browns, DE Myles Garrett earned AP First-Team All-Pro honors, as his career-high 16.0 sacks in 2021 set a new franchise single-season record. As a unit, the Browns finished the season ranked top-five in the NFL in total defense (5th, 311.5 yards per game), the highest finish by a Browns defense since 1987.

Before entering the NFL ranks, Garrett spent one season as a Defensive Quality Control at Vanderbilt University (2019), where he worked with the Commodores' defensive front.

Garrett's coaching tenure began at the high school level, first at Southaven High School (Miss.), where he served as an assistant coach (2010), before spending eight years at Nashville's Ensworth High School (Tenn.), elevating to Head Coach in 2018. Garrett served in a variety of roles over his first seven years at Ensworth, including Associate Director of Admissions, Assistant Track and Field Coach and Fitness Department Chair, on top of being a Defensive Assistant Coach. In his one season as Head Coach, Garrett led Ensworth to the Quarterfinal Round of the Division II-AAA Playoffs.

A four-year letter-winning defensive lineman at Ole Miss (2004-07), Garrett collected Ole Miss Lifter of the Year and Chuck Mullins Courage Award honors during his time with the Rebels. Garrett graduated with a bachelor's degree in business from Ole Miss in 2007 and later earned his MBA from Harding University (Ark.) in 2010.

Garrett and his wife, Shay, has two sons - Jayden and Jacob - and one daughter - Grace.

GIORDANO
SAFETIES

School: University of California
Hometown: Clovis, Calif.

Matt Giordano enters his first season with the Bears in 2025.

A nine-year NFL veteran, Giordano joins the Bears as Assistant Defensive Backs / Safeties Coach after serving the last two seasons as a Defensive Assistant with the New Orleans Saints, primarily working with the secondary.

Prior to entering the NFL coaching ranks in 2023 with New Orleans, Giordano spent one season as a volunteer assistant at Fresno State University (2022). Giordano entered the coaching ranks at his alma mater, Buchanan High School in Clovis, Calif., where, after initially joining the staff in 2015 as Defensive Coordinator, elevated to Head Coach in 2016, where he led the program for the next six seasons. Over his six seasons at the helm, amassed a 51-16 record.

Before his coaching tenure, Giordano played nine seasons in the NFL as a defensive back. A fourth-round selection (134th overall) by the Indianapolis Colts in the 2005 NFL Draft, Giordano appeared in 116 career games for the Colts (2005-08), Green Bay Packers (2009), New Orleans Saints (2010), Oakland Raiders (2011-12) and St. Louis Rams (2013), totaling 202 tackles, one sack, 11 interceptions, including two returned for touchdowns, 16 passes defended, two forced fumbles, 52 special teams tackles and one coverage fumble recovery. Giordano also totaled seven postseason appearances over his playing career, including a World Championship in 2006 (Super Bowl XLI).

Giordano played two seasons at the University of California (2003-04), earning First-Team All-Pac-10 honors as a senior in 2004, after two seasons at Fresno City College (2001-02).

A native of Clovis, Calif., Giordano was inducted into the Fresno Athletic Hall of Fame in 2019. Giordano and his wife, Laura, have three children – Addison, Logan and Brooklyn.

HARRIS
DEFENSIVE BACKS

School: Texas A&M University Kingsville
Hometown: Pompano Beach, Fla.

Al Harris enters his first season with the Bears in 2025.

A 15-year NFL veteran in the secondary, earning All-Pro honors and two Pro Bowl selections as a cornerback, Harris has spent the last 13 seasons as a coach, most recently serving as Assistant Head Coach / Defensive Backs for the Dallas Cowboys in 2024, a role that he was elevated to after leading Dallas' secondary since 2020. Over the last four seasons, Harris' Cowboys defensive backs helped Dallas own the most interceptions by any team in the NFL over the four-year span, amassing a league-high 72 interceptions from 2021-24.

Harris' guidance helped the Cowboys own the No. 5 and No. 8-ranked pass defense in the NFL in 2023 (187.4) and 2022 (200.9), respectively. On top of success as a unit, Harris has been instrumental in the development of CB Trevon Diggs and the continued growth of CB DaRon Bland. Under Harris, Diggs accumulated two Pro Bowl selections and an AP First-Team All-Pro nod (2021), as Bland set an NFL record with five interceptions returned for a touchdown in 2023, while also leading the league in interceptions (nine). In 2021, Diggs secured an NFL-best 11 interceptions, tied for the most by any player in a single season in Cowboys history, en route to an All-Pro acknowledgement with Harris' support. Diggs became the first Cowboys cornerback to earn Pro Bowl recognition in back-to-back years since Hall of Famer Deion Sanders (1996-99). As a rookie in 2020, Diggs led all Cowboys defenders in interceptions (three) and passes defended (14).

Prior to Dallas, Harris spent one season as a Defensive Assistant at Florida Atlantic University (2019) following a six-year stretch with the Kansas City Chiefs. Starting as a Defensive Assistant in 2013, Harris contributed to a Chiefs team that went to the playoffs in five of his six seasons, collecting three AFC West Division titles, including an AFC Championship appearance in 2018. Coaching the defensive backfield, Harris oversaw a group that finished top-10 in the league in interception all but one of his six seasons, including a No. 1 ranking in 2016 (19 interceptions) and a top-three finish in both 2013 (T-3rd, 21), and 2015 (2nd, 22). Under Harris' guidance, Marcus Peters totaled 19 interceptions in his three seasons with the Chiefs (2015-17), the most by any player in the NFL over that span. Harris entered the coaching ranks in 2012 as a Coaching Intern with the Miami Dolphins.

Harris played 15 seasons in the NFL, appearing in over 200 career games (postseason included), tallying 21 interceptions for the Philadelphia Eagles (1998-2002), Green Bay Packers (2003-09), Miami Dolphins (2010) and St. Louis Rams (2011) after being selected by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1997. A member of the Green Bay Packers Hall of Fame, Harris earned two Pro Bowl selections (2007 and '08) and was an AP Second-Team All-Pro selection in 2007 in 2007 with the Packers. Harris started his career on the Tampa Bay practice squad in 1997, before signing with Philadelphia in 1998, appearing as the team's nickel cornerback for five years and playing in two NFC Championship games (2001 and 2002). Harris finished his playing career with one season each in Miami (2010) and with the St. Louis Rams (2011).

Prior to the NFL, Harris led the defensive backfield at Texas A&M-Kingsville (1995-96), where he was a first-team All-Lone Star Conference selection in 1996 after starting his tenure at Trinity Valley Community College in Athens, Texas, where he was a member of a National Championship team.

Bill
SENIOR DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT / DEFENSIVE LINE

School: Northwestern State University
Hometown: Monroe, La.

A veteran coach, Johnson has 45 years of coaching experience including 18 seasons coaching NFL defensive lines. Most recently he spent three seasons coaching in the USFL/UFL with the Birmingham Stallions and the Houston Roughnecks. He helped the Stallions capture two league championships, winning the USFL in 2022 and the UFL in 2024.

Before coaching in the professional spring leagues, Johnson spent three seasons at LSU, first as the defensive line coach (2019-21) then as a defensive analyst. During his three seasons in Baton Rouge, the Tigers went 26-12, highlighted by a 15-0 record en route to winning the College Football Playoffs National Championship. In 2019 he helped lead a group that finished third in the SEC. Johnson coached DL Rashard Lawrence to Second-Team All-SEC honors to anchor the group.

Johnson's last stint in the NFL came as the defensive line coach for the Rams (2017-18). In his two seasons with the Rams, they captured back-to-back division titles for the first time since 1978-79 and advanced to their first Super Bowl since 2002. In 2018, the Rams finished the season tied for the best record in the NFL (13-3) advancing all the way to Super Bowl LIII. In 2018, Rams DT Aaron Donald posted a career-high 20.5 sacks, tied for the eighth most in an NFL season since the stat became official in 1982. The historic season propelled him to his second consecutive Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year Award, becoming one of just eight players to win the award multiple times. Donald also won the award in 2017, becoming the first player in Rams history to be honored with that award and the first DT to be named DPOY since 1999.

Prior to his time with the Rams, Johnson spent eight years in charge of the Saints' defensive line (2009-16). In 2015, DE Cameron Jordan became the ninth player in team history to record multiple seasons with double-digit sacks. In addition, under Johnson's guidance, Jordan earned two Pro Bowl appearances. In his third NFL season in 2012, Jordan finished fifth in the NFL with 12.5 sacks. In Johnson's debut season with the Saints in 2009, DE Will Smith finished the year fifth in the NFL with a career-high 13.0 sacks en route to a Super Bowl XLIV victory.

In his stop before New Orleans, Johnson spent the 2007-08 seasons as the defensive line coach with the Denver Broncos and a six-year stint in Atlanta as defensive line coach of the Falcons (2001-06). With his help, the Falcons led the NFL in sacks during the 2004 season, eventually advancing to the NFC Championship game. Johnson led DE Patrick Kerney to three double-digit sack seasons and a 2004 Pro Bowl selection. He also led DT Rod Coleman to a 10.5 sack season and Pro Bowl appearance in 2005.

Before entering the NFL ranks, Johnson spent 21 seasons coaching at the collegiate level with his final 13 seasons in that stretch as a defensive line coach. His stops included: two seasons at Louisiana Tech (1988-89), three seasons over two stints at Arkansas (1990-91, 2000) and eight seasons at Texas A&M (1992-99). With the Aggies, he mentored nine defensive linemen who were drafted into the NFL. Johnson's prior coaching stops included Miami (Fla.) (1987), McNeese State (1985-86), and his alma mater Northwestern State (1980-84).

Before coaching, Johnson played offensive line at Northwestern State from 1976-79, including two seasons as the starting center. Johnson is a Monroe, La., native. Johnson and his wife, Dawn have two children – Billy, who works in the Rams personnel department and Abby who works for NBC.

Kevin
KOCH
ASSISTANT LINEBACKERS

School: Minnesota State University
Hometown: Elmhurst, Ill.

Kevin Koch enters his fourth season with the Bears and first as Assistant Linebackers Coach in 2025.

Prior to being elevated to Assistant Linebackers Coach in 2025, Koch spent the last two seasons with Chicago in a Defensive Quality Control capacity after initially joining the Bears as a Coaching Assistant in 2022.

Last season, Koch's work with the defense helped the Bears register five red-zone takeaways in 2024, tied for third-most by any team in the NFL. Chicago also finished the season ranking third in the NFL in opponent red-zone touchdown percentage (46.0). Primarily working with the linebackers, Koch aided a unit that featured LB Tremaine Edmunds and LB T.J. Edwards each logging over 100 total tackles, becoming one of just four pairs of duos to record at least 100 tackles on the same team each of the last two seasons (IND: Franklin/Speed, CIN: Pratt/Wilson, JAX: Lloyd/Oluokun). With Koch's assistance, Edmunds ranks No. 10 in the NFL in total tackles since 2018, as Edwards owns the second-most tackles by any NFC defender since the start of the 2023 season (282).

In 2023, his first year as a Defensive Quality Control, Koch aided a Bears defense that limited the opposition to an average of just 86.4 rushing yards per game, the No. 1 rushing defense in the NFL, and collected the most interceptions in the league (22). Edwards finished 2023 with a career-high 153 total tackles (90 solo), as he led or shared the lead in tackles for the Bears in 11 games, as Edmunds totaled four interceptions to go along with his 113 total tackles (69 solo). Developing the entire linebacker room, rookie LB Noah Sewell would appear in 13 games for the Bears.

Prior to elevating to Defensive Quality Control, Koch spent his first season with the Bears as a Coaching Assistant in 2022, serving as an integral part of the coaching staff's day-to-day operation and weekly game preparations.

Koch joined the Bears after five years at Northwestern University (2017-21). After spending his first two seasons as a Graduate Assistant, was promoted to Defensive Quality Control Analyst for his final three years with the Wildcats. Over his five seasons at Northwestern, the Wildcats reached the Big Ten Conference Championship Game twice (2018, '20) and earned three bowl victories. In his first season, Northwestern posted a 10-3 record with a victory in the Music City Bowl, before helping the Wildcats win the Big Ten West in 2018, adding a win in the Holiday Bowl to close out his second season with the program.

Before his tenure at Northwestern, Koch spent one season at Benedictine (Ill.) University (2016), serving as Special Teams Coordinator, while also coaching the running backs and tight ends. Koch also oversaw Benedictine's recruiting efforts in the Chicagoland area.

Koch entered the coaching ranks in 2012 as a Graduate Assistant at Robert Morris University (Ill.), before returning to his alma mater, Minnesota State University Moorhead, in 2014, spending two seasons working with the defensive backs and special teams units.

A native of Elmhurst, Ill., Koch earned a bachelor's degree in exercise science from Minnesota State University Moorhead, before achieving a master's in management of sports administration from Robert Morris University (Ill.), then later gaining a second Master's degree from Northwestern University in 2019.

Cannon
MATTHEWS
NICKELS

School: Ohio University
Hometown: Bedford Heights, Ohio

Most recently, Matthews spent the previous five years on the staff of the Dallas Cowboys, starting as a Defensive Quality Control in 2020, elevating to Assistant Defensive Backs Coach in 2023, then to Safeties Coach in 2024. Over the final four of his five years with Dallas, the Cowboys' secondary helped the unit total the most interceptions by any team in the NFL over the four-year span, amassing a league-high 72 interceptions from 2021-24. Matthews' work with the defensive backs helped the Cowboys own the No. 5 and No. 8-ranked pass defense in the NFL in 2023 (187.4) and 2022 (200.9), respectively. Individually, Matthews' group featured the development of CB Trevon Diggs, who accumulated two Pro Bowl selections and an AP First-Team All-Pro nod (2021) during his time with Matthews on staff, as well as the continued growth of All-Pro CB DaRon Bland, who, in 2023, set an NFL record for the most interceptions returned for a touchdown in a single season (five) while leading the league in interceptions. In 2021, Diggs secured an NFL-best 11 interceptions, tied for the most by any player in a single season in Cowboys history, en route to an All-Pro acknowledgment. As a rookie in 2020, Diggs led all Cowboys defenders in interceptions (three) and passes defended (14).

Prior to his time with Dallas, Matthews spent three years as a Quality Control / Defense with Washington following one season as Assistant Defensive Backs Coach with the Cleveland Browns (2016). With Cleveland, the secondary registered 10 interceptions, as the 2016 season marked Matthews' third tenure with the Browns after previously serving as a Defensive Intern with Cleveland in 2013, where the unit ranked top-10 in the NFL in total defense (9th, 332.4 yards per game), and first as a Personnel Intern in 2007. Between coaching stints with Cleveland, Matthews spent two seasons as a Defensive Quality Control with the Tennessee Titans (2014-15), working with the linebackers. In his first season with Tennessee, 18 different Titans registered a full sack, a single-season team record and NFL best. The following season, the Titans defense ranked seventh in the NFL in passing defense (229.9 yards per game).

Matthews spent the 2012 season as Running Backs Coach at Kentucky Christian University, as the Knights posted a 7-4 record, registering the first winning season in program history. After accumulating experience as a Personnel Intern in 2007 with the Buffalo Bills and the first part of 2008 as a Personnel Intern with the Arizona Rattlers of the AFL, Matthews spent four years on the coaching staff of the Buffalo Bills. Matthews joined Buffalo's staff as a Defensive / Special Teams Assistant in 2008, spending two seasons in that role, before moving to the offensive side as an Offensive Assistant in 2010, where he aided the Bills' offensive coaching staff for two seasons.

Kenny
DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

School: Azusa Pacific University
Hometown: Bellevue, Wash.

Kenny Norton III enters his third season with Chicago in 2025, serving in the role of Defensive Assistant.

Norton completed his second season with the Bears in 2024, and his first season as a Defensive Quality Control, after joining the team in 2023 as a Coaching Assistant. Over his two seasons with the Bears, Chicago's defense registered 33 interceptions, second-most by any unit in the NFL over the two-season span.

In 2024, Norton served as a Defensive Quality Control, aiding the coaching staff with the day-to-day operation, while helping tutor Chicago's secondary. As a defense, the Bears registered five red-zone takeaways in 2024, tied for third-most by any team in the NFL. The Bears also finished the season ranking third in the NFL in opponent red-zone touchdown percentage (46.0). Chicago's defended helped the Bears close out the season with a Week 18 road victory over the Green Bay Packers, one week after limiting the Seattle Seahawks to just six points scored on Thursday Night Football. A stalwart in the secondary, DB Jaylon Johnson was named to his second-straight Pro Bowl in 2024.

Norton joined the Bears in 2023 as a Coaching Assistant, tasked with providing integral assistance with weekly game preparations and practice plans, as well as with the day-to-day operation. Working with the defensive coaching staff and the defensive line, Norton helped a Bears unit that limited the opposition to an average of just 86.4 rushing yards per game, the No. 1 rushing defense in the NFL, and collected the most interceptions in the league (22).

Before his tenure with the Bears, Norton spent one season as a Football Analyst at UCLA (2022), following one season with the Seattle Seahawks (2021). With Seattle, Norton, who initially joined the staff as a Bill Walsh Coaching Fellow during Training Camp, earned a full-season role as Defensive Assistant. Norton entered the coaching ranks at La Salle College High School in Pasadena, Calif., where he served as Director of Football Operations for the program and worked with the secondary.

Norton prepped collegiately at Azusa Pacific University (2013-17), where he played defensive back. Over his final three seasons, Norton appeared in 33 games for the Cougars, graduating with a bachelor's degree in business administration and management. Norton would later earn a Master's degree in sports management from the University of San Francisco in 2020.

A native of Santa Monica, Calif., Norton attended Issaquah High School in Bellevue, Wash. Before entering the coaching ranks, Norton spent three years working for NFL Media as a production assistant (2019-21).

Robbie
PICAZO

School: Stanford University
Hometown: Rancho Santa Margarita, Calif.

Picazo owns 12 years of coaching experience, including three years in the NFL and nine at the collegiate level. Picazo came to the Bears after spending the previous two seasons as an offensive assistant with the Seattle Seahawks (2023) and Houston Texans (2022).

In 2024, Picazo helped QB Caleb Williams break the Bears rookie records in every major passing statistic. Williams threw just seven interceptions during his rookie campaign, tying the franchise record for fewest interceptions thrown in a season (min. 10 QB starts), it was also the fourth fewest by a rookie QB in NFL history (min. 13 QB starts). Picazo also helped lead a wide receiver room that produced three players with at least 700 receiving yards; WR DJ Moore (966), WR Keenan Allen (744) and rookie WR Rome Odunze (734).

Prior to his time in the NFL, Picazo spent four seasons with the Rice Owls in various roles. In his second season leading Rice's running backs in 2021, Picazo helped sixth-year senior tight end Jordan Myers earn honorable mention All-Conference USA honors after leading the team with nine total touchdowns and rank second with 646 all-purpose yards. Myers led the Owls with eight rushing scores and recorded 338 rushing yards on the year.). Former walk-on Ari Broussard added 569 yards on 116 carries, including a career-high 186 yards at Charlotte (11/6) that marked the program's second-highest total in conference play since joining C-USA in 2005.

Picazo came to Rice after five seasons (2013-17) at Stanford, first as a student assistant (2013) while completing his co-term degree program and four years (2014-17) as an offensive assistant, working with quarterbacks and wide receivers. Picazo supported the daily operations of the offense as the Cardinal won two Pac-12 titles (2013 and 2015) and appeared in five consecutive bowl games.

While coaching at Stanford in 2017, Picazo participated in a Bill Walsh NFL Minority Coaching Fellowship with the Atlanta Falcons during the team's mandatory spring minicamp.

Picazo attended Stanford University where he earned a bachelor's degree in management, science and engineering in 2013 and a master's degree in psychology in 2014. He played quarterback for the Cardinal from 2009-12, appearing in four games.

Dan ROUSHAR OFFENSIVE LINE

School: Northern Illinois University
Hometown: Clinton, Iowa

Entering his 41st season in the coaching profession, Roushar will lead the offensive line group for Chicago. Prior to joining the Bears, Roushar spent the last two seasons as the Offensive Line Coach at Tulane University, which followed a 10-year stretch with the New Orleans Saints. Over his coaching tenure, Roushar has held the role of Offensive Coordinator on five separate occasions, and in his final two seasons with the Saints, oversaw the run game coordinator for New Orleans' offense. Over his five seasons leading the Saints' offensive line (2016-20), New Orleans claimed NFC South Division titles on four occasions.

Roushar spent the last two seasons leading the offensive line unit at Tulane University (2023-24), a two-year span that helped the Green Wave reach the AAC Championship Game each season, totaling 20 wins over the two-year stretch. In his first season at Tulane, the Green Wave reached 11 wins, marking the first occurrence of back-to-back double-digit win seasons in program history.

Prior to Tulane, Roushar spent 10 seasons with the Saints, which included a five-year tenure as Offensive Line Coach and a timeline that featured the responsibilities of Running Backs Coach, Tight Ends Coach and Run Game Coordinator. During his five seasons as Offensive Line Coach, the Saints owned one of the highest-ranking offensive units in the NFL, ranking No. 1 in the NFL in scrimmage yards per game (399.8) with the highest points per game average in the league (29.5).

Over his final two seasons with the Saints, Roushar oversaw the run game for the offense, while also guiding a tight end group that featured Juwan Johnson, who led New Orleans with a career-high seven receiving touchdowns in 2022. Roushar was impactful in Johnson's transition from wide receiver to tight end. In 2020, Roushar coached what continued to be one of the NFL's most stable offensive lines under his supervision. With the help of Roushar and the offensive coaching staff, the Saints rushed for a franchise-record and NFL-high 30 touchdowns, tied for the then-sixth-highest NFL total all-time, ranked sixth in rushing yards per game (141.6), ranking No. 4 in the league in scoring offense (29.7). Under Roushar's guidance, the offensive line blocked for RB Alvin Kamara, who led the NFL with a franchise-record 21 total touchdowns, while leading the team in both rushing and receiving with a career-high 1,688 total yards from scrimmage. Roushar's unit in 2019 surrendered just 25 sacks, third-fewest in the league, as quarterbacks Drew Brees and Teddy Bridgewater combined to throw for 36 touchdowns and only six interceptions.

Roushar led a 2018 unit that led the NFL with 26 rushing touchdowns. Despite being forced to use nine different starting offensive linemen due to injuries, the Saints allowed just 20 sacks under Roushar's guidance, second-best in the NFL. The offensive line allowed just 20 sacks in 2017, second-fewest in the NFL, even though it opened with six different lineups. Roushar's group played an instrumental role as the Saints were the only offense in the NFL to finish top-five in both rushing and passing, ranking No. 2 in total offense (391.2 yards per game). The 3,094 combined total yards from scrimmage from Mark Ingram and Kamara was second-most by an NFL running back duo since the start of a 16-game season (1978). The 4,339 combined total yards from scrimmage by Ingram, Kamara and WR Michael Thomas, was the highest total by a skill position trio in Saints history.

In Roushar's first season leading the offensive line (2016), the Saints were the No. 1 total offense (426.0 yards per game) and top-ranked passing offense (317.1 yards per game) in the NFL. New Orleans produced the second-most points per game average (29.3). Behind the blocking, Brees set a then-NFL single-season record in completions (471) and led the league in passing yardage (5,208), earning a Pro Bowl selection. The line also paved the way for Ingram to surpass the 1,000-yard mark for the first time.

Roushar started with the Saints as Running Backs Coach in 2013, holding that role for two seasons. In his first season with New Orleans, running backs Pierre Thomas (77) and Darren Sproles (71) became the first running back duo in franchise history to secure at least 70 receptions in the same season, as Thomas' output led all NFL players at their position, propelling the Saints to a No. 4 ranking in total offense in 2013 (399.4 yards per game). The following season, Roushar was instrumental in the rushing offense moving from 25th in the NFL to 13th, as Ingram was selected to the first Pro Bowl of his career behind 964 rushing yards and nine rushing scores. After tutoring the running backs from 2013-14, Roushar moved to Tight Ends Coach in 2015, as the Saints finished the season with the second-ranked offense in the NFL (403.8 yards per game). Under Roushar's guidance, TE Benjamin Watson set career-highs in both receptions (74) and receiving yardage (825) and tied a career-best in receiving touchdowns (six).

Before his decade with the Saints, Roushar spent six seasons at Michigan State University (2007-12), the final two as Offensive Coordinator / Tight Ends Coach. In his final season with the Spartans, Roushar coordinated an offense that featured RB Le'Veon Bell, who would claim the Big Ten Conference's rushing title with 1,793 yards on the ground, the second-most in program history, en route to earning All-America honors. In Roushar's first season as coordinator (2011), Michigan State averaged 31.0 points per game, which ranked third in the conference, and school records for most points (434) and passing yards (3,535), while finishing second in net yardage (5,466). Prior to his promotion to coordinator, Roushar served four seasons as the Spartans' offensive line coach. In four seasons coaching the Michigan State front, Roushar's linemen earned All-Big Ten recognition on eight occasions. Prior to his time in East Lansing, Roushar spent two years as the Offensive Line Coach at the University of Cincinnati (2005-06).

Following two seasons as quarterback at Northern Illinois University (1982-83), Roushar aided the Huskies as a student assistant in 1984, before a seven-year stretch at Butler University (1986-92), capped by a four-season tenure as Offensive Coordinator and Offensive Line Coach. Roushar would then hold roles at the University of Rhode Island (1993), Ball State University (1994) and the University of Illinois (1995-96, 2003-04). Between his two stints at Illinois, Roushar returned to his alma mater, Northern Illinois, where he spent six seasons, the final five of which were as Offensive Coordinator / Quarterbacks Coach.

SMITH
LINEBACKERS

Hometown: Los Angeles, Calif.

Smith brings over 45 years of coaching experience, 37 of those years coming in the NFL. Most recently, Smith has led the linebackers group for the Indianapolis Colts from 2022-24, adding Run Game Coordinator responsibilities for the 2023 and 2024 seasons.

From 2022-24 in Indianapolis, Smith led the development of LB Zaire Franklin. In his first year under Smith's direction, the fifth-year linebacker broke the Colts single-season tackling record recording 166 takedowns (102 solo), far surpassing his old career high of 29 stops. Franklin then exceeded that total each of the next two seasons, resetting the franchise record to 179 tackles (107 solo) in 2023 and recording 173 tackles (93 solo) in 2024 earning him his first Pro Bowl Games selection. LB E.J. Speed also saw significant growth under Smith's direction, setting a new career high in tackles all three seasons under Smith; 55 (23 solo) in 2022, 100 (76 solo) in 2023 and 142 (93 solo) in 2024. The linebacking duo of Franklin and Speed are one of just four pairs of teammates to total at least 100 tackles in each of the past two seasons (CHI: Edmunds/Edwards, CIN: Pratt/Wilson, JAX: Lloyd/Oluokun).

Smith led the Raiders linebackers' group in 2021, where he guided veteran LB Denzel Perryman to a career-high 154 tackles (102 solo), the sixth-most in the NFL, earning his first Pro Bowl selection. Prior to his time with Las Vegas, Smith served as the linebackers coach for the Los Angeles Chargers for four seasons (2017-2020). During his time in Los Angeles, the Chargers secured a playoff spot in 2018 for the first time since 2013 and just the second time since 2010. In 2020, Smith guided rookie LB Kenneth Murray Jr. as he paced the team in tackles with 107, setting a franchise record for most tackles by a rookie and finishing second among rookies in his class. Smith was reunited with LB Thomas Davis Sr. in 2019, who he coached with the Carolina Panthers for two seasons. Under Smith's tutelage, Davis led the team with 112 tackles, while fourth-round rookie LB Drue Tranquill finished second on the squad with 75 tackles. Smith's group was instrumental to the defense's improvement against the run in 2018, as opponents averaged nearly 30 fewer rushing yards per game than the season before.

Smith spent two seasons as the defensive coordinator with the Atlanta Falcons (2015-16). Smith's unit helped the Falcons claim the 2016 NFC Championship to earn a spot in Super Bowl LI. Under Smith's guidance, DE Vic Beasley recorded a league-leading 15.5 sacks in 2016. In 2015, Smith helped Atlanta's defense see a major improvement, going from 32nd to 16th in total defense.

From 2011-14, Smith coached on four straight playoff teams as the Linebackers Coach in his second stint with the Denver Broncos, including a 2013 squad that won the AFC Championship and earned a berth in Super Bowl XLVIII. During his four seasons with Denver, the Broncos ranked third in the league in rushing defense, fourth in third-down defense and seventh in total defense over that span. Smith helped develop LB Von Miller, who has become one of the NFL's most dominant defenders. Miller earned three Pro Bowl selections during his time with Smith, earned was named the 2011 AP Defensive Rookie of the Year and was named first-team All-Pro in 2012.

Prior to joining the Broncos, Smith served as the Linebackers Coach with the Panthers for two seasons (2009-10). During his time in Carolina, the Panthers collected the third-most takeaways in the NFL. Smith also helped LB Jon Beason earn a Pro Bowl selection in 2009.

Smith had a three-year stint as the Defensive Coordinator for the Houston Texans (2006-08). During his time with the Texans, Smith's defense produced two Pro Bowlers and two second-team All-Pro performers in OLB DeMeco Ryans and DE Mario Williams. In 2005, Smith landed his first post as a Defensive Coordinator with the Miami Dolphins. That year, Miami finished the season ranked second in the NFL with 49 sacks.

Smith spent two seasons (2003-04) as the Assistant Head Coach and Linebackers Coach in Detroit after serving after coaching the linebackers in San Francisco from 1997-2002. During his six seasons with San Francisco, four 49ers linebackers earned Pro Bowl honors – Ken Norton Jr., Lee Woodall, Winfred Tubbs and Julian Peterson.

From 1993-96, Smith coached special teams in his first stint with the Broncos, spending the first two years (1993-94) with the added duty of Assistant Linebackers Coach. Smith entered the NFL coaching ranks with the Houston Oilers from 1988-1992, handling special teams, while also assisting with the tight ends, linebackers and offensive line. During his time with the Oilers, Smith worked closely with Pro Football Hall of Fame OL Bruce Matthews and OL Mike Munchak.

School: Marshall University
Hometown: Norman, Okla.

Taylor arrives in Chicago after spending the last three seasons as Offensive Coordinator of the Jacksonville Jaguars (2022-24). Over his three seasons with Jacksonville, Taylor coordinated a unit that helped the Jaguars reach the postseason and rank among some of the league's top passing offensive units, while also playing an instrumental role in the continued development of Pro Bowl QB Trevor Lawrence. In 2023, Taylor helped guide an offense that propelled Lawrence to throw for over 4,000 yards, as the Jaguars marked their second-straight season with a 4,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard receiver (WR Calvin Ridley) and 1,000-yard rusher (RB Travis Etienne Jr.), as Jacksonville ranked top-10 in the NFL in passing offense for the second-straight year. In his first season with the Jaguars, Taylor helped lead an offense that recorded the most scrimmage yards in a single season in franchise history (6,264), as Jacksonville secured an AFC South Division title and AFC Wild Card Round victory. As a unit, the Jaguars totaled the most first downs (352) in a single season in team history and accumulated the third-most points in club annals (404).

Prior to Jacksonville, Taylor spent one season as Senior Offensive Assistant (2021) with the Indianapolis Colts. In his lone season with the Colts, Taylor helped coach an offensive unit that featured AP First-Team All-Pro RB Jonathan Taylor, who led the NFL with 1,811 rushing yards and a league-best 18 rushing touchdowns. As a group, the Colts owned the No. 2-ranked rushing offense in the NFL in 2021 (149.4), finishing top-10 in the league in points per game (26.5).

Before Indianapolis, Taylor spent eight seasons in a variety of elevating roles with the Philadelphia Eagles, contributing to a staff that accumulated three NFC North Division titles for Philadelphia, including a World Championship in 2017 after defeating the New England Patriots in Super Bowl LII. Taylor began his tenure with the Eagles in an Offensive Quality Control capacity (2013-15), before adding the responsibility of Assistant Quarterbacks Coach in 2016, a role he would occupy for two seasons. Taylor was then elevated to Quarterbacks Coach in 2018 following the Eagles' World Championship, guiding the Eagles quarterbacks for three seasons with the addition of Passing Game Coordinator duties in 2020.

During his tenure with the Eagles, Taylor was instrumental in his work with quarterbacks Carson Wentz and Nick Foles. As Wentz's primary coach over three seasons, the signal-caller set single-season franchise records in passing yards (4,039 in 2019), pass completions (388 in 2019) and completion percentage (69.6 in 2018). Over their tenure together, Wentz would become just the sixth quarterback in NFL history to secure at least 20 passing touchdowns and 10 or fewer interceptions in three-consecutive seasons (2017-19). In his first season as Quarterbacks Coach, Taylor's tutelage helped Foles close out the regular season with three victories in five starts, including a Week 16 performance that featured 471 passing yards, four passing touchdowns and a 120.4 passer rating to earn NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors, and a Week 17 win at Washington that was highlighted by Foles' 25-straight pass completions.

In 2017, Taylor helped guide a room that started with Wentz completing 265-of-440 passes for 3,296 yards and 33 touchdowns, a single-season franchise record, to only seven interceptions, registering a 101.9 passer rating over his first 13 games. Following an injury to Wentz, Foles stepped into duty, leading the Eagles with three postseason performances of at least a 100.0 passer rating and guiding Philadelphia to a World Championship with a victory in Super Bowl LII. Wentz would later earn AP Second-Team All-Pro honors, as Foles was named Super Bowl LII Most Valuable Player.

As offensive quality control coach from 2013-15, Philadelphia ranked third in the NFL in total offense (392.8), fourth in rushing offense (131.1), sixth in scoring offense (23.9), sixth in total offensive touchdowns (132) and eighth in passing offense (261.5) during the three-season span. In 2014, the Eagles set single-season franchise records in points scored (474), touchdowns accumulated (54), passing yards (4,581) and first downs earned (356).

Prior to his eight seasons with the Eagles, Taylor served as a Graduate Assistant at Tulsa (2011-12), working with the quarterbacks. Taylor guided QB G.J. Kinne to over 3,000 passing yards and 28 passing touchdowns in 2011, before helping Tulsa claim a Conference USA Championship and Liberty Bowl victory in 2012.

A native of Norman, Okla., Taylor played quarterback at Marshall (2009-10) after starting his career at Butler (Kan.) Community College (2007-08), where he served as a team captain and led Butler to back-to-back Junior College National Championships with a 17-1 record as a starter.

SENIOR DIRECTOR OF

In his role, Rudd works directly with the head coach managing the football calendar and organizing the day-to-day operation of the team. He is the point of communication between the coaching staff and all supporting departments, and he manages the coaching budget, develops practice plans, builds practice schedules and oversees all coaching staff operations. Rudd also assists on the practice field during the week and the sideline on gameday.

Rudd arrives in Chicago after spending the last five seasons with the Dallas Cowboys, playing an instrumental role in football analytics and coaching operations elements. After joining the Cowboys in 2020 in a Video/Football Analytics capacity, spending three years in the specific role, Rudd was elevated to Coaching Operations Manager/Football Analytics in 2023, a capacity he would hold for the following two seasons. Over his five seasons with the Cowboys, Dallas secured two NFC East Division titles (2021 and 2023), with an appearance in the NFC Divisional Round in 2022, and won at least 12 games on three occasions. Rudd aided a Cowboys unit that ranked No. 6 in the NFL in passing yards per game and No. 7 in the league in scrimmage yards per game (380.6) over the five-season span, doing so with five different starting quarterbacks.

Prior to serving on Dallas' staff, Rudd had two tenures with DVSport, Inc. (2006-11 and 2012-19), a premier software platform used by personnel across the football spectrum, first as Operations/Senior Account Manager, then as Vice President of Sales & Marketing. Rudd's role also included direct interface and relations with coaching staffs and administrators across the NFL, CFL and NCAA, collaborating on reports, data, analytics and technology endeavors that connected analytics and coaching operations. Rudd also spent time as a Key Accounts Manager for Digitiz, Inc. (2011-12), an emerging audio/video systems design and integration company, where he engineered custom technological updates for teams across the NFL and NCAA.

Rudd spent four years at Rutgers University (2003-06), serving as Video Coordinator/Network Administrator, where he led, developed and guided a 13-person team overseeing video operations for the Scarlet Knights football team. Prior to his time at Rutgers, Rudd, served as a Quality Control/Video Assistant at the University of Pittsburgh in 2002.

A native of Montclair, NJ, Rudd graduated from the University of Massachusetts Amherst with a degree in sport management and minors in political science and Italian in 2001, also working closely with the football program and sports broadcasting department. Following graduation, Rudd spent time as a Quality Control/Video Assistant with the Carolina Panthers (2001) and Scottish Claymores of NFL Europe.

ADMINISTRATION

School: University of Alabama
Hometown: Montgomery, Ala.

Chavis Cook enters his second season with Chicago in 2025, serving as the team's Manager of Coaching Administration. Joining the Bears in 2024, Cook's role involves aiding the coaching staff's day-to-day operation and general planning and execution. Prior to his arrival in Chicago, Cook spent five seasons with the Cleveland Browns (2018-13). Cook joined the Browns in 2018 as an Operations Intern, a position he held for two seasons, before being elevated to the role of Coordinator of Team Logistics. Cook assisted in the planning and execution of the travel operation, orchestrating all logistical measures for all road trips, as well as aided in the facilitation of budgetary items. In 2023, Cook was promoted to Manager of Team Logistics, where he continued to coordinate all aspects of team travel for the Browns. Cook added the responsibility of working with the Head Coach to coordinate the team's daily schedule, as well as logistics surrounding practice operation and the communication of such schedules across the organization. Additionally, Cook provided football personnel with input in relationship-building tactics, aiming to increase player development within the organization. Cook earned his Bachelor of Arts in Advertising from the University of Alabama in 2017 before earning his Master of Science in Sports Business Management from Alabama in 2018. While in Tuscaloosa, he worked as a Student Manager for the football program under Head Coach Nick Saban. During his time at Alabama, Cook contributed to a program that won two CFP National Championships (2015 and '17), aiding the effort for a third CFP National Championship Game appearance (2016). A native of Montgomery, Ala., Cook is married to his wife, Mary Margaret.

Ryan
GENERAL MANAGER

Hometown: Canandaigua, N.Y.

Ryan Poles enters his fourth season with the Bears in 2025 after being named the club's seventh general manager in franchise history on Jan. 25, 2022. Upon his hire, Poles, embarked on an in-depth, comprehensive process to restructure the club's roster and develop all areas surrounding organizational culture and the football operation of the Chicago Bears. Poles was instrumental in striking a deal with the Carolina Panthers in advance of the 2023 NFL Draft, leading to a flurry of enhancements to the Bears' roster over the next two seasons. By acquiring Carolina's first-round pick, the Bears utilized the No. 1-overall selection of the 2024 NFL Draft to select quarterback Caleb Williams. Capitalizing on remaining draft capital, the Bears then selected wide receiver Rome Odunze with the ninth-overall selection, rounding out the first round of the 2024 NFL Draft with two top-10 selections. In the deal with Carolina, the Bears also acquired wide receiver DJ Moore, who has led the Bears in receiving yards during each of his two seasons in Chicago. Ahead of 2025, working with Head Coach Ben Johnson, Poles and his staff have continued to develop the roster via draft, free agency and trades.

During the 2024 season, rookie quarterback Williams set franchise rookie records across all major statistical passing categories. Williams' season included a string of 353 consecutive pass attempts without an interception, good for not only an NFL rookie record, but the fourth-longest single-season streak in NFL history. Fellow first-round rookie, Odunze, finished the season with the fourth-most receptions (61) and receiving yards (734) by a rookie in franchise history. While punter Tory Taylor, another member of the Bears 2024 draft class, set single-season franchise records in both gross (47.7) and net (41.6) punting average. On the defensive side of the ball, the Bears allowed touchdowns on just 46 percent of opponents redzone drives, the second-best rate in the NFL, while finishing top 10 in the NFL with 24 takeaways.

Poles comprised a roster in 2023 that helped lead Chicago with the league's top-ranked rush defense (86.4 yards per game) and finish the season with the No. 2 rushing offense in the NFL (141.1 yards per game). Defensively, the Bears ranked second in the league in fewest rushing touchdowns allowed (eight), putting forth a five-game span (Weeks 7-12) that the unit did not allow a single rushing touchdown. Conversely, Chicago's offense totaled the second-most first downs in the league (86). The Bears' four-win improvement from the 2022 season marked the largest year-over-year win improvement in over half a decade.

Poles and his staff oversaw a transition as the club went from from one of the oldest rosters in the NFL at the end of the 2021 season, to one of the youngest teams in the league. Holding the No. 1 pick entering the 2023 Draft, Poles struck a deal with the Carolina Panthers on March 15, which brought in wide receiver DJ Moore in addition to the No. 9-overall selection and the 61st-overall pick in 2023, as well as a 2024 first-round selection and a 2025 second-round pick. The roster additions continued in free agency as Poles and his staff acquired veteran contributors along the defensive front and among the linebacker corps to support the eventual top-ranked defense. The Bears completed their most notable in-season move ahead of the trade deadline in Week 9, acquiring defensive lineman Montez Sweat from the Washington Commanders via trade in exchange for a 2024 second-round pick.

With one of the youngest on-field rosters in 2022, the Bears posted a league-high 6,721 snaps from first-year players. Offensively, the club finished the 2022 season by setting a team rushing record with a league-best 3,019 rushing yards. Defensively, with the youngest on-field defense in the NFL, the club finished the season ranked among the top-10 in several categories: completions allowed (323, 6th), interception percentage (2.9 pct, 8th), interception yards (201, 9th) and fourth down conversions (six, 1st) to name a few. Chicago opened the 2022 season with several new pieces on the roster following a mix of trades, free agent signings and waiver claims. The Bears Week 1 roster featured 11 rookie debuts, the most by any team in the NFL int the 2022 season. The club's 2023 draft class also featured a large group with 10 total selections. The 2022-23 Bears draft classes were the first time since the start of the modern seven-round draft era that the Bears had consecutive classes with 10+ picks.

Prior to his arrival in Chicago, Poles spent 13 years within the front office of the Kansas City Chiefs, helping Kansas City comprise rosters that led to two Super Bowl appearances and a World Championship with a victory over the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl LIV. In his 13th and final season with the Chiefs in 2021, Poles was named the club's Executive Director of Player Personnel. Initially joining the Chiefs in 2009 as a Player Personnel Assistant, Poles demonstrated his development and ascension through the ranks with Kansas City through holding the roles of College Scouting Administrator (2010-12), College Scouting Coordinator (2013-16), Director of College Scouting (2017), Assistant Director of Player Personnel (2018-20), ultimately leading to serving as the Executive Director of Player Personnel in 2021, helping the Chiefs win their second-straight AFC Championship.

During his 13 years in Kansas City, the Chiefs captured seven AFC West division championships, as Poles oversaw all aspects of the college scouting across the country for the Chiefs while assisting with the pro personnel process and preparing for free agency. He also assisted General Manager Brett Veach with the coordination of the NFL Draft and overseeing the team's out-of-town area scouts. Poles was instrumental in helping the Chiefs land top draft prospects such as quarterback Patrick Mahomes and tight end Travis Kelce, who have gone on to receive multiple All-Pro recognitions. In 2021, the Chiefs tied for second in the NFL with six Pro Bowl selections in Mahomes, Kelce, wide receiver Tyreek Hill, offensive tackle Orlando Brown, defensive tackle Chris Jones and safety Tyrann Mathieu and tied for first in the NFL with seven selections in 2020. In total, from 2009-21, the Chiefs had 69 Pro Bowl selections with 28 different players.

Prior to joining the Chiefs, Poles served as a Recruiting Assistant at his alma mater, Boston College (2008-09). Upon culmination of his collegiate career, Poles signed with the Chicago Bears as an undrafted free agent in 2008.

The Canandaigua, N.Y., native played offensive tackle for five seasons for Boston College (2003-07), protecting former NFL quarterback Matt Ryan and playing alongside Bears Co-Director of Player Personnel Trey Kozlowski. Poles was honored with the Paul Cavanaugh Award in 2007 as the student-athlete with total commitment to football both on and off the field and for his dedication to volunteerism, ethics and community. He played his prep football at Canandaigua Academy in Canandaigua, N.Y.

Poles also was named to two '40 Under 40' lists in the past five years: Ingram's Magazine in 2019 and by The Athletic in 2021. He graduated from Boston College in 2007 with a degree in communications. He and his wife, Katie, have two children: Mason and Jordyn.

Ian
ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Ian Cunningham enters his third season in Chicago in 2024 after being named Assistant General Manager on Jan. 29, 2022.

Over his first two seasons with the Bears, serving as the top lieutenant to General Manager Ryan Poles, the Bears' personnel staff embarked on a comprehensive and strategic restructuring of the roster, as well as a development of processes throughout the football operations department. With foundational processes in place, the Bears completed a four-win improvement turnaround from 2022 to 2023. Chicago owned the league's top-ranked rush defense (86.4 yards per game), allowing the fewest rushing first downs in the league (88) and finished the season with the No. 2 rushing offense in the NFL (141.1 yards per game).

Prior to the 2023 season, the Bears completed a deal that granted Chicago with fortuitous draft capital for years to come, as well as wide receiver DJ Moore, who went on to lead the Bears with a career-best 1,364 receiving yards. That trade, ultimately, led to the No. 1-overall selection of quarterback Caleb Williams in the 2024 NFL Draft.

Entering 2024, Cunningham and the Bears' personnel staff extended All-Pro defensive back Jaylon Johnson, traded for six-time Pro Bowl wide receiver Keenan Allen and acquired a flurry of veteran players throughout free agency.

Cunningham arrived in Chicago with 14 years of NFL front office experience, having most recently served as Director of Player Personnel for the Philadelphia Eagles, a position he was promoted to at the beginning of the 2021 season. Prior to his promotion, Cunningham worked as the Assistant Director of Player Personnel (2019-20) and oversaw the college scouting department from 2017-18 as the Director of College Scouting.

A two-time Super Bowl Champion (XLVII and LII) as a member of the Baltimore Ravens' and Eagles' front office, Cunningham's NFL front office career began in 2008 when he was hired in Baltimore as a Player Personnel Assistant. After five seasons as an assistant, he worked as a Southeast Area Scout for the Ravens for two seasons (2013-14) before taking on additional responsibility as the Southeast/Southwest Area Scout from 2015-16.

As the Director of College Scouting during the 2017-18 seasons in Philadelphia, Cunningham was instrumental in both identifying and selecting several key members of the Eagles' current roster, including TE Dallas Goedert, CB Avonte Maddox, OL Jordan Mailata, DE Josh Sweat and undrafted free agent linebacker, T.J. Edwards. Collectively, the group has accounted for 236 games played and 138 starts over the past four seasons.

The 2019 season marked Cunningham's first as Philadelphia's Assistant Director of Player Personnel, a promotion he held for two seasons before the club named him Director of Player Personnel at the start of the 2021 season. The Eagles' 2021 Draft class featured two Top-40 picks in Devonta Smith (1st, 10th overall) and Landon Dickerson (2nd, 37th overall). Both emerged as key contributors to the Philadelphia offense making a combined 29 regular-season starts. Smith appeared in all 17 games and made 16 starts, immediately becoming the team's top target with team-leading figures in receptions (64), receiving yards (916) and receiving touchdowns (10). Smith's 916 receiving yards also broke an Eagles rookie record, passing Deshaun Watson's 912 receiving yards in 2008. Dickerson also proved worthy of being a top selection, making 14 starts on an offensive line that helped the Eagles average a league-best 159.7 rushing yards per game. Dickerson appeared in 859 offensive snaps and allowed just two sacks on the season.

Prior to joining the front office ranks, Cunningham was an offensive lineman who signed with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2008 as an undrafted free agent. He graduated from the University of Virginia in 2007 with a bachelor's degree in psychology, before going on to earn his master's in education in 2008. A four-year letter recipient for the Cavaliers, Cunningham tallied 31 starts and earned honorable mention freshman All-America accolades from Rivals.com as well as ACC All-Freshman Team recognition from The Sporting News.

Cunningham is originally from Carrollton, Texas, where he attended Hebron High School. The high school standout earned numerous all-state and all-area honors and participated in the 2003 U.S. Army All-American game. He and his wife, Justine, have three children.

Jeff
SENIOR DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Prior to being elevated to his current role, King spent the last two years serving as Co-Director of Player Personnel, helping the personnel department implement strategic practices related to roster construction and the enhancement and development of football operations. As a result, the Bears experienced a four-win improvement in 2023 compared to the season prior, while ranking among the league's leaders on both sides of the ball. Last season, Chicago owned the league's top-ranked rush defense (86.4 yards per game), allowing the fewest rushing first downs in the league (88) and finished the season with the No. 2 rushing offense in the NFL (141.1 yards per game).

King also supported a personnel department that made the decision to acquire eventual Pro Bowl defensive lineman Montez Sweat in-season before the 2023 trade deadline, as well as orchestrated a trade with the Carolina Panthers in advance of the 2023 NFL Draft that netted prominent draft pick compensation for years to come, as well as wide receiver DJ Moore who went on to lead the Bears with a career-high 1,364 receiving yards in 2023.

King's promotion to Co-Director of Player Personnel comes after spending the 2020-2021 seasons as Director of Pro Scouting with the Bears. After spending the 2015 season as a Scouting Intern for the Bears, King was hired full-time in 2016 as a Pro Scout before being elevated to Assistant Director of Pro Scouting in 2019. Over his decade with the Bears, King has been involved with the acquiring or retaining of players who went on to earn 13 total All-Pro selections and accumulate 20 cumulative Pro Bowl nods with Chicago.

A two-time All-ACC selection at Virginia Tech, King was selected by the Panthers in the fifth round of the 2006 NFL Draft. Displaying athletic versatility, King also spent one season on the basketball team at Virginia Tech, appearing in 16 games on the hardwood for the Hokies in the 2004-05 season. King contributed a season-high 21 minutes, adding seven points and four rebounds, in VT's upset over No. 7-ranked Duke.

The Pulaski, Va., native played seven seasons in the NFL, spending his first five in Carolina, followed by two with the Cardinals, appearing in 108 games (84 starts) and totaling 156 receptions for 1,323 yards (8.5 avg.) and 12 touchdowns.

(2017-2024)
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Trey Koziol enters his first season as Director of Player Personnel with the Bears in 2024 after joining the club as Co-Director of Player Personnel in 2022.

Over his last first two seasons with the Bears, Koziol and the personnel department have implemented strategic practices related to roster construction and the enhancement and development of football operations. As a result, the Bears experienced a four-win improvement in 2023 compared to the season prior, while ranking among the league's leaders on both sides of the ball. Last season, Chicago owned the league's top-ranked rush defense (86.4 yards per game), allowing the fewest rushing first downs in the league (88) and finished the season with the No. 2 rushing offense in the NFL (141.1 yards per game).

Koziol also supported a personnel department that made the decision to acquire eventual Pro Bowl defensive lineman Montez Sweat in-season before the 2023 trade deadline, as well as orchestrated a trade with the Carolina Panthers in advance of the 2023 NFL Draft that netted prominent draft pick compensation for years to come, as well as wide receiver DJ Moore who went on to lead the Bears with a career-high 1,364 receiving yards in 2023.

Upon returning to the Chicagoland area, Koziol brought over a decade of NFL front office experience to the Bears, most recently serving as the Director of College Scouting for the Kansas City Chiefs in 2021. Prior to his promotion, Koziol worked as a National Scout (2018-20) and Area Scout (2013-17) for the Chiefs. Over his nine seasons with Kansas City, Koziol and the personnel staff helped the Chiefs accumulate six AFC West Division titles, two AFC Championships and one World Championship after defeated the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl LIV in the 2019 season.

Before joining the Chiefs in 2013, Koziol spent four years as a Pro Scout for the Tennessee Titans (2009-12). He first began his NFL career in 2008, working as an intern for the Titans. With Tennessee, Koziol helped scout future Titans opponents and assessed talent in all professional leagues, including the NFL, the CFL and the AFL. He also helped coordinate free agent visits and tryouts and monitored NFL transactions.

A Hinsdale, Ill., native, Koziol attended Hinsdale Central High School before attending Boston College where he played tight end from 2003-07, playing alongside of General Manager Ryan Poles. Following his playing career, Koziol returned to Boston College, where he earned a bachelor's degree in history, serving the football program as a graduate assistant in 2008 before joining the Titans.

Prior to joining the Bears in 2022, Feinstein spent seven years as an integral piece of the NFL's Management Council. Feinstein was promoted to Director of Labor Operations following tenures as a Manager (2016-18), then Senior Manager (2018-22), for the league's primary council of governance.

In his six years in a managerial role for the NFL Management Council, Feinstein constructed quantitative models of collectively bargained roster and salary rules, refined and improved models for time-sensitive analyses and distilled results into summaries for senior management within the NFL, as well as Club management and ownership.

Feinstein joined the NFL Management Council in 2015, serving as an Analytics Assistant. In his initial role, Feinstein executed League-wide player transactions, reconciled salary caps and ensured compliance with League rules. He also worked to identify trends in player transactions, roster management, player contracts and club spending, among other tasks.

A graduate of the University of Michigan (2010), Feinstein earned his bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering. Prior to the NFL, Feinstein spent six years at Lux Research in New York, where he worked as an analyst (2010-13) before his promotion to Senior Analyst for his remaining three years with the organization (2013-15).

While serving as a Senior Analyst for Lux Research, Feinstein began his career in sports, contributing as a writer to Bloomberg Sports (2013-14).

Breck
ACKLEY
SCOUTING

Breck Ackley enters his second season as Director of College Scouting for the Chicago Bears and his 14th season overall with the club.

Prior to his promotion, Ackley served as the Assistant Director of College Scouting, a position he took over before the 2022 season. Ackley initially joined the Bears in 2012 as an Area Scout, covering the middle of the country for two seasons before spending eight seasons in the Southwest region. In 2022, Ackley was one of 10 NFL Scouts honored with the inaugural BART Award, recognizing the NFL's top scouts.

Before transitioning his career to the personnel side, Ackley spent two seasons as a graduate assistant coach, first at his alma mater, Southern University (2010), followed by one season at Southeastern Louisiana University (2011).

Ackley was a standout punter and kicker at Southern University (Baton Rouge, La.) from 2003-06, where he graduated as the program's all-time leading scorer. As a senior, Ackley was named First-Team I-AA All-American by the American Football Coaches Association as a punter and chosen First-Team All-Southwest Athletic Conference as a kicker.

HORD
DIRECTOR OF PRO SCOUTING

D.J. Hord enters his second season with the Chicago Bears in 2025 serving as the Director of Pro Scouting.

Hord joined the Bears in 2024 after spending seven seasons on the personnel staff of the Seattle Seahawks. In his final season with Seattle, Hord served as the Assistant Director of Pro Personnel. Hord initially joined the Seahawks as a Pro Scouting intern in 2017, a position he held for two seasons, before spending four seasons (2019-22) as a Pro Personnel Scout.

Prior to the NFL, Hord spend 2013-17 as the Director of Football Operations at the University of Northern Iowa where he served the football program in a number of capacities, after spending 2012-13 as a graduate assistant, working with wide receivers and returners.

A native of Kansas City, Mo. Hord began his college playing career as a wide receiver for Notre Dame (2006-07) where he received and undergraduate degree. Following his graduation from Notre Dame, Hord finished his playing career at Northern Iowa (2008-09) while he earned his master's degree.

SAINT PAUL
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

School: Northern Arizona University

Hometown: Los Angeles, Calif.

Francis Saint Paul enters his second season as Assistant Director of College Scouting for the Chicago Bears, and his 14th season overall with the club.

Saint Paul joined the Bears as an Area Scout in 2012, before being elevated to National Scout in 2016, Senior National Scout in 2022, then to his current role in 2024. Before joining the Bears, Saint Paul spent five seasons at his alma mater, Northern Arizona University, on the coaching staff. Saint Paul commenced his career as a graduate assistant in 2007, before earning a full-time role the following spring, working primarily with wide receivers.

After being drafted by the St. Louis Rams in the sixth-round of the 2001 NFL Draft, Saint Paul spent three seasons in the NFL with the Rams, Steelers, Jaguars and Panthers. Saint Paul's NFL career came after a standout career with Northern Arizona as a two-sport athlete. At the time of his graduation, Saint Paul ranked top-10 in receiving touchdowns, receptions and receiving yards in Lumberjack history. Along with his success on the football field, Saint Paul was a standout on the track winning the 2000 Big Sky Conference title in the 100-meter dash.

The Virginia Award is named after the late Virginia H. McCaskey, daughter of Bears founder George Halas. The recipient of the Virginia Award has demonstrated the characteristics and values of Mrs. McCaskey: grace, humility, loyalty and dedication. Over the past year, this employee has significantly contributed to the success of the Chicago Bears by providing exemplary service to the team, business partners and fans. This award is presented to the employee who not only exceeded the highest standards of achievement, but whose work set them apart from their peers and best embodied The Bears Way.

THE KATIE AWARD

A staff member of the Chicago Bears family for over 20 years, Katie Nagle was one-of-a-kind. Her ability to make everyone – from co-workers to fans – feel special was unmatched. To continue her legacy and love, starting in 2025, The Katie Nagle Award is presented to the employee who exemplified all that Katie Nagle was.

The recipient of this Award has demonstrated the characteristics of Katie Nagle – kindness, gratitude, generosity and selflessness. Over the past year, this employee has made our workplace better by providing a positive and warm atmosphere, lifted others around them, and showed gratitude and kindness on a consistent basis.

HISTORY

1920S

9/17/20 - George Halas, representing the Decatur Staleys, meets with representatives of 11 other clubs at Ralph Hay's Hupmobile showroom in Canton, Ohio, forming the American Professional Football Association - which later became the NFL. Membership is set at $100.

1920 - The Staleys shut out 10 of 13 foes, losing only to the Chicago Cardinals (7-6 at Normal Park), and post a 10-1-2 record. Each player is paid $1,900 for the season.

1921 - A. E. Staley gives Halas the club with $5,000 to keep the Staleys name for the year. Decatur Staleys become Chicago Staleys, play in Cubs Park (re-named Wrigley Field in 1926), and win the APFA title with 9-1-1 record. Halas makes Dutch Sternaman his partner.

1/28/22 - Franchise renamed Chicago Bears.

11/27/22 - First Chicago player deal: Bears buy tackle Ed Healey's contract from the Rock Island Independents for $100-twice the going rate for a franchise that season.

11/22/25 - Harold "Red" Grange signs with Bears and pro football leaves its cradle. His agent, C.C. (Cash & Carry) Pyle, negotiates a $100,000 deal with the Bears. Halas takes the Bears and Grange on a coast-to-coast tour that sees the club play 19 games from Nov. 26 through Jan. 31 interrupted only by a two-week rest. The Bears post a 13-5-1 record on the trip.

11/26/25 - Grange's first game-36,000 see Bears and Cardinals tie 0-0 in Cubs Park. Grange held to 36 yards.

1/16/26 - Grange scores two TDs as the Bears impress a crowd of 70,000 in the LA Coliseum, beating the LA Tigers 17-7.

1930S

1930 - After a 4-9-2 season in 1929, George Halas replaces himself as head coach with Ralph Jones. Jones posts a 24-10-7 record during his three seasons.

12/15/30 - Bears and Cardinals play football's first indoor game on an 80-yard field in Chicago Stadium. The exhibition aids unemployment; Bears win 9-7 before 10,000 fans.

1932 - Franchise loses $18,000, prompting Dutch Sternaman to sell his half of the Bears to George Halas.

12/18/32 - Bronko Nagurski hits Red Grange with a two-yard TD pass and the Bears top the Portsmouth Spartans 9-0 for the NFL championship. The game was played before 11,198, indoors at Chicago Stadium on an 80-yard field.

8/31/34 - A classic is born as 79,432 watch the NFL champion

Bears held to a scoreless tie by the first College All-Star team in a game sponsored by Chicago Tribune Charities at Soldier Field.

12/9/34 - Undeclared Bears slip before Giants in NFL title tilt at Polo Grounds 30-13 before 35,059. With Chicago leading 10-3 at the half, NY dons basketball sneakers and scores 27 points.

BEAR DOWN, CHICAGO BEARS

The Chicago Bears team fight song, "Bear Down, Chicago Bears," was introduced in 1941 by composer Al Hoffman under the pseudonym Jerry Downs. In a long-lasting and varied musical career, Hoffman earned immortality for writing words and music to "If I Knew You Were Coming I'd Have Baked a Cake" and "Mairzy Doats" among others.

Hoffman had little apparent connection to Chicago. He was born in Minsk, Russia in 1902. He grew up in Seattle after emigrating there with his family in 1908 and he moved to New York in the 1920s before starting a career as a music composer. Besides the aforementioned songs, he also wrote songs for Disney's original "Cinderella" cartoon, including "Bibbidi-Bobbidi-Boo," "A Dream Is A Wish Your Heart Makes," "The Work Song" and "So This Is Love."

The lyrics to "Bear Down, Chicago Bears":

WRIGLEY RECORD

The Bears' all-time record at Wrigley Field stands at 221-89-22, a total of 332 games, 330 as the home team. (Two of those victories came with the Bears as the "road" team: twice in 1920 against the Chicago Tigers). The 330 Bears home games at Wrigley Field appears to be a National Football League record, though unofficial. The Bears-Wrigley connection edges out Cleveland's Municipal Stadium as host for 324 home games of the Cleveland Browns, from 1950 through 1995. As the reincarnation of the Cleveland Browns play in a new stadium since their return in 1999, the Bears-Wrigley "record" appears safe.

In fact, Wrigley Field has hosted a total of 342 NFL games: 330 Bears home games, five home games of the Chicago Tigers in 1920, and seven home games of the Chicago Cardinals in 1931 and 1932. Besides the Browns' 324 home games at Cleveland's Municipal Stadium, the Cleveland Indians played two home games there in 1931, and the Cleveland Rams played sixteen home contests in 1937 and 1939-1941. Municipal Stadium appears to have hosted a total of 342 total NFL games—same as Wrigley Field.

BEARS STADIUM RECORD BREAKDOWN

The Bears regular season combined record at Soldier Field (old and new) stands at 220-161-1. The Bears have also played home games at Normal Park (multiple games, 1920, 1927, 1928); Decatur (1921, victory over Rock Island); Comiskey Park (multiple games, 1922, 1924); DePaul (1925, victory over Hammond); Mills (1930, tie versus Brooklyn); Loyola (1931, victory over Cleveland); Chicago Stadium (1932, victory over Portsmouth); Dyche Stadium (1970, victory over Philadelphia); Memorial Stadium in Champaign (2002) and Tottenham Stadium in London (2024, victory over Jacksonville).

HISTORY

Soldier Field underwent major renovations from 2002-03. As a result, the Bears played the 2003 season at Memorial Stadium in Champaign, Ill.

PRESERVING HISTORY

The historic colonnades and historic South Wall remained untouched as the new stadium was built within the existing exterior of Soldier Field. The Memorial Water Wall honors all soldiers who have served in the United States Armed Forces. The Wall serves as an educational piece for families and visitors of the museum campus. A Doughboy statue was erected at the entrance of Gate O and the south concourse features a Medal of Honor tribute.

It hosted the first boxing event which drew a gate of over $2.5 million (Dempsey-Tunney, 1927) and the first ski meet held in a stadium. The largest crowd for any event in Soldier Field was 260,000 on Sept. 8, 1954, for the Catholic Church's Marian Year Tribute.

The 100,000-seat stadium was dedicated November 27, 1926, with Army battling Navy to a 21-21 tie. The all-time collegiate attendance record of 123,000-plus was established Nov. 26, 1927 as Notre Dame beat Southern Cal 7-6. In the first professional game at the then-mammoth stadium, the Bears defeated the Chicago Cardinals 10-0 on November 11, 1926.

Plans for the stadium started in 1919 as a memorial to the soldiers of WWI. Soldier Field stood on a 10,000 pile foundations driving an average depth of 62.5 feet through fill that replaced the lake waters. The new stadium continues to be owned, maintained and operated by the Chicago Park District.

OTHER STADIUM NOTES SINCE THE BEARS MOVED TO SOLDIER FIELD:

- 1971 – September 19, Chicago defeats the Pittsburgh Steelers 17-15 before capacity crowd of 55,701 in the Bears' first game since moving from Wrigley.
- 1979 – The stadium undergoes major reconstruction and renovation prior to the season including new lighting, playing surface, and locker rooms; rebuilding of seating area (new chairbacks, arm rests, seats); and improvement of sightlines.
- 1982 – Additional rebuilding of seating areas was completed as well as new concourses with more restrooms and concession areas. A new press box, 60 deluxe skyboxes, and a new scoreboard were also built. Capacity is increased to 66,030.
- 1988 – Surface was changed from artificial turf to natural grass, and 56 skyboxes were added along south rim (increasing the total to 116). Capacity is increased to 66,946.
- 1992 – Four seats are added increasing the capacity to 66,950.
- 1994 – The Park District spends millions to refurbish the stadium for the World Cup tournament. Capacity is reduced by six to 66,944.
- 2000 – Mayor Daley announces Lakefront Redevelopment Project (11/15).
- 2001 – Project receives state and city approval.
- 2002 – Demolition begins on stadium immediately following playoff game (1/19).
- 2003 – Bears return to Soldier Field with Monday night re-opening on September 29.
- 2019 – Two days before kickoff the NFL's 100th season, statues of George Halas and Walter Payton were unveiled during a private ceremony outside the south end of Soldier Field.

On Sept. 5, 2019, the Bears hosted the official kick-off to the NFL's 100th season. Soldier Field provides one of the most stunning and iconic backdrops in the NFL with its unique sightlines of the city and lakefront.

On Sept. 3, 2019 - two days before the Bears kicked off their 100th season - two of the franchise's most legendary Hall of Famers and icons were honored outside Soldier Field when statues of George S. Halas and Walter Payton were unveiled during a private ceremony outside Gate 0 at the south end of the stadium. Created by sculptor Chad Fisher, the statues are 12-feet tall and weigh 3,000 pounds

Located on the west side of the stadium on the street-level main concourse, the bas-relief sculpture marks the gateway for a stadium visitor's trip through the history of the Chicago Bears.

Pure and simple, he loved this game that was as uncluttered and uncompromising as he was. Its requirements were courage, endurance, self-discipline and a competitive spirit. These were his prerequisites, too.

Often graced by a running back of exceptional ability, the Bears were always marked by a punishing defense that never stopped coming at you.

George Halas was a founder of the NFL and a pioneer of the Chicago Bears. His devotion to both over the decades helped them grow to prominence.

Hall of Famers date back from the 1920's when George Halas founded the Chicago Bears, and represent different decades of team history.

The tremendous energy and influence of the two large George Halas reliefs tells the story and balances all of the action. George S. Halas is without doubt the overriding presence in the sculpture.

THE BEARS DEN

THE DOUGHBOY STATUE

Just inside Gate O in the Grand Concourse stands the restored Doughboy Statue. Originally installed in Chicago's Garfield Park in the early 1930s, four decades later it was damaged, debased, but not forgotten. Chicago sculpture conservator Andrzej Dajnowski meticulously recast the missing parts and refurbished the entire statue and base to its original condition and it joins the other memorials to the American fighting men and women at Soldier Field.

THE MEMORIAL WATER WALL

The Memorial Water Wall, a 280-foot long wall of polished green granite with eight medallions honoring the different branches of the armed services, flanks the walkway that leads into the north entrance of the stadium. A veil of water continuously flows over the sculptured memorial.

The Chicago Bears moved into Halas Hall at Conway Park on March 3, 1997. The 38-acre complex is located in Lake Forest off of Route 60 just east of the Tri-State Tollway, approximately four miles from the former Halas Hall. The building is dedicated to Bears' founder, president and coach George Halas. The original Halas Hall, on the Lake Forest College campus, was dedicated by coach Halas in the name of his son, Mugs, in 1979.

The complex has undergone two major renovations since its original construction. The first coming after the 2012 season to expand and upgrade the Bears headquarters to enhance the football and business operations while providing new opportunities and experiences for fans.

The upgrade increased the 100,000-square facility with an additional 43,500-square feet of working space to accompany 2 1/2 outdoor practice fields equipped with 14 miles of underground heating tubes, enabling the grass to remain soft and growing into early winter, as well as five miles of drain tubing that can capture and disperse nine inches of rainfall per hour and 2.5 miles of cooling pipes for the grass roots.

The construction of 2013 expanded the weight room from 7,000 to 8,500-square feet and featured new lighting. The locker room was upgraded with additional and reconfigured lockers and new carpeting. Existing and newly created meeting rooms featured enhanced technology.

A state-of-the-art event center including a 4,000-square foot broadcast studio and conference center capable of hosting 200 people for both events and original programming. The two-level entryway to the event center was added featuring interactive digital displays, video monitors and memorabilia, including some never-before-featured pieces of Bears history such as the 1963 NFL championship trophy. A new press conference room and a relocated media courtyard were also added along with increased workspace for media members.

WALTER PAYTON CENTER

The team's indoor practice facility, the Walter Payton Center, was renovated during the summer of 2005 while construction of the Ed McCaskey Memorial Garden was completed in June, 2005.

The Walter Payton Center is a rigid structure, opposed to the inflated "bubble" the team used from 1990-96, and includes a full 100-yard field. The structure is 85 feet high, 200 feet wide and 400 feet long. The renovation included removal of the existing fabric roof and cladding on the outside of the building, replacement of the end walls and installation of a new, state-of-the-art synthetic turf and two-lane running track. A new heating and de-humidification system was also installed. The Bears renamed the indoor facility during a ceremony on Thursday, April 6, 2000.

Walter Payton Center

The previous Halas Hall on the campus of Lake Forest College had 32,000 square feet of space, while the new building was over 143,500. The entire former Halas Hall would fit into the basement of the current building. Furthermore, the old locker room was 1,400 square feet, while the new one sized up to about 3,000, features new lighting for the 75 lockers and four natural light wells. The weight room is expanded to almost five times the size of the 1,800-square foot workout area at the old building. The weight room features a 28 feet high glass wall overlooking the practice fields, providing ample natural light. A two-lane lap pool sits behind the weight room and its sixty-foot lanes have built-in resistance currents. The training room expanded to over five times the size of its predecessor and boasts a doctor's office, x-ray facility, medical records storeroom, casting room, whirlpool, cold-dip plunge, steam room and sauna. The football needs are met with large classrooms, two large meeting rooms/classrooms and a 150-seat auditorium.

The Bears also added a practice viewing suite on the second level of Halas Hall. The 40-person suite overlooks the team's practice fields and features many of the amenities of game suites at Soldier Field. A new kitchen and dining facility, including an outdoor patio was also added. The dining room was expanded to accommodate up to 100 people. Additional conference room and staff offices were also added throughout Halas Hall.

The Bears headquarters also added a new entry into the main lobby and 105 additional parking spaces. The architectural style is consistent with that of the original building. A main focal point is the entry point to the main lobby, featuring the classic Bears "C" on an impressive portico.

ED MCCASKEY MEMORIAL GARDEN AND KATIE'S GARDEN

Located south of Halas Hall, the Ed McCaskey Memorial Garden is a beautifully landscaped, clover-leaf-shaped garden bordered by a 30' stone seat wall and piers. A winding gravel road from Halas Hall leads to the opening of the garden where a variety of trees, shrubs and perennials have been planted.

Katie's Garden is located outside of Halas Hall's main entrance. Described as "The nicest person on the planet" by Bears Chairman George H. McCaskey, Katie Nagle was a longtime executive assistant with the Bears before passing away in September of 2024. The Garden was dedicated in April of 2025 to the memory of Katie's loyalty, kindness and gratitude.

In November 2017 the Bears announced a second major renovation to Halas Hall, partnering with global design and architecture firm HOK to design a 162,500-square-foot football operations addition to the already-existing 143,000-square-foot Halas Hall and a 30,600-square-foot remodeling project on the northeast side of the building.

Former Bears president and CEO Ted Phillips detailed what he described as "a significant expansion of Halas Hall".

"We're effectively going to double in size," Phillips said. "The ultimate facility will be on a par with the best in the NFL. This is being done to make our football operations, coaching and player personnel areas the best in the league."

The magnitude of the project will completely transform the look and feel of all existing team space and provide even greater resources for the team's training and performance needs. The initial phase of the expansion project will focus on enhancement of the team's football operations, including player training, education, performance, nutrition and rehabilitation. The project broke ground in March 2018 and was completed in summer of 2019.

While football operations, players and coaches area were most affected by the renovation, former Bears general manager Ryan Pace told employees that they, too, will benefit.

"It affects all of us because it equates to winning," Pace said. "This project is not about flash. It's about what it tangibly does to help us win games. So you'll see the way we train, the way we rehab, the way we recover, the way we educate our players, those are all areas that we're going to drastically improve in."

"We've seen the top facilities across the United States in pro and college football. This is going to put us right at the top among the elite. I'm proud of this. It shows a major commitment to winning from our ownership and leadership, and everyone in football operations recognizes this."

The addition features a 13,000-square-foot indoor turf space for training and walkthroughs with a 133x26 video projection wall and adjacent virtual reality room, in addition to a 2,000 square foot weight room expansion. Also included is an equipment room, recovery space and nutrition/fuel station that doubled the previous size while the sports medicine space grew four times larger than the previous area and features a hydrotherapy pool.

Position meeting rooms and the draft room both doubled in capacity, while coaches' offices increased by 50 percent and allow for improved collaboration. A 3,250-square-foot players' lounge and separate huddle space was created, along with an approximately 1,700-square-foot player locker room and a larger coaches/scouts locker room.

The team and staff café was expanded by 4,300 square feet to support the organization's growth, as well as providing new food offerings. Basement storage space was also be increased through the expansion.

Additionally, two additional football fields were added on the east side of the Walter Payton Center, which allows the team to spread out the field use over four fields throughout the offseason and during in-season practices. That project also added an addition of a training slope, a storage facility and a small practice viewing suite, similar to the viewing suite used at Halas Hall for corporate partners and other VIP guests.

HISTORY OF THE BEARS UNIFORM

The Chicago Bears, originally called the Decatur Staleys when founded in 1920, wore red jerseys with tan colored vertical striping in their inaugural season. The vertical stripes were actually strips of leather sewn onto the uniform to help the ball carrier secure the ball.

In 1935 the Bears introduced an orange jersey with black arm stripes and black helmet and by 1958 were wearing the familiar navy blue with burnt orange. The Bears unique "rounded" number style on the uniforms and numbers on the sides of the sleeves of the jerseys dates back to 1949. The Bears trademark 'C' logo appeared on helmets in 1962 and its use continues through present day although the mark has changed from white to orange and the shape has changed slightly. After 11 years, the white 'C' logo is colored orange with white trim in 1973 and still has the same look today. The initials GSH were added to the left sleeve in 1984 in honor of the late 'Papa Bear' George S. Halas, who passed away Oct. 31, 1983. The uniform has had a very consistent look from the 1970's with the exception of blue pants with white jersey introduced in 1984 as a road uniform. On Oct. 7, 2002 on a Monday Night Football game against Green Bay, the Bears wore their traditional home blue jerseys with the blue pants for the first time. On Nov. 25, 2004, for a Thanksgiving game at Dallas, the Bears wore a throwback orange jersey; then, on Nov. 13, 2005, introduced a new-look orange third jersey which the Bears wore from 2005-09 and 2011. The 2018 season saw a return of the orange jerseys for two games and again for two games during the 2019 season.

In 2010 the team unveiled its throwback uniform which is modeled after the 1940s Bears uniforms. The "Monsters of the Midway" of the '40s won four league titles in seven seasons and were led by eight Hall of Famers (Head Coach George Halas and players Danny Fortmann, Sid Luckman, George McAfee, George Musso, Bronko Nagurski, Joe Stydahar and Clyde "Bulldog" Turner). Then in 2019, the Bears unveiled a new classic uniform (pictured, right), a recreation of the one the team wore for one season in 1936. It features white jerseys, navy and orange stripes on the shoulders and sleeves, navy numbers and letters, navy pants and navy and orange striped socks.

GEORGE S. HALAS

FEBRUARY 2, 1895 – OCTOBER 31, 1983

Leading the Chicago Bears for more than a half-century, George S. Halas, the team's founder and head coach for 40 years, was one of the most enduring personalities in sports history. Halas was active with the Bears starting in 1920 when he founded the team as the Decatur Staleys.

Halas was born and raised on Chicago's west side and prepped at Crane Tech High School before attending the University of Illinois. In Champaign, he earned a B.S. degree while lettering in football, basketball and baseball. After graduation in 1918, Halas joined the Navy for the first of two tours of duty. He was named Player of the Game in the 1919 Rose Bowl, playing end on the Great Lakes team that beat the Marines 17-0. A commander when he left active duty in 1946, Halas retired as a captain in the Naval Reserve. He was also awarded the Distinguished Citizens Award—the highest honor the Navy can bestow on a civilian.

PLAYING CAREER: As a player, Halas set an NFL record (which stood 49 years, until 1972) when he took a Jim Thorpe fumble 98 yards for a TD in a 26-0 win over the Oorang Indians at Cubs Park (11/4/23) (re-named Wrigley Field in 1926). He played end for the Bears from 1920-29 and was named to the NFL all-pro squad of the 1920s.

GEORGE HALAS STATUE

The Bears unveiled a statue of George Halas on Sunday, Aug. 23, 2015, at a private ceremony outside Halas Hall, the team's training facility that's named after the legendary Hall of Famer.

The statue was created by sculptor Chad Fisher out of white bronze. It weighs 1,600 pounds, stands 8'8" on a granite base and features Halas with his right arm extended pointing his index finger.

A Chicago native who starred at the University of Illinois, Halas was a pro football pioneer. He helped create what would become the NFL when he joined representatives from 11 other teams in Canton, Ohio, in 1920 to found the American Professional Football Association.

Halas moved the Decatur Staleys to Chicago in 1921 and they were renamed the Chicago Bears in 1922. "Papa Bear" was named to the NFL's 1920s All-Decade Team as a player and later became the winningest coach in NFL history with 324 victories, a record since surpassed by Don Shula.

Serving as Bears coach for four separate 10-year stints, Halas led the franchise to six NFL championships in 1921, 1933, 1940, 1941, 1946 and 1963. He is a charter member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, having been enshrined in 1963.

COACHING CAREER: Three times Halas interrupted his coaching activities by his own volition. He first turned over the leadership to Ralph Jones from 1930 through 1932. In 1942 when he left for the Navy, Luke Johnsos and Heartley "Hunk" Anderson shared head coaching responsibilities through '45. John "Paddy" Driscoll coached in 1956-57.

Coincidentally, in '33 and again in '46 when Halas resumed coaching, his Bears won world championships. During the 1940s, his teams reached the height of their power with four straight Western Conference titles; three world championships; a fantastic four-season record (including pre-season games) of 62-7-1 (.899); scored 2,164 points and allowed just 842. The 1940 team, which defeated the Washington Redskins 73-0 for the world championship, was voted the greatest professional team of all-time by the National Academy of Sports Editors in 1963.

Resuming coaching in 1958, Halas needed five years to develop another champion, when in 1963 the Bears won their eighth championship. The Sporting News, APz and UPI named him Coach of the Year after the 1963 and 1965 seasons. Halas retired from coaching on May 27, 1968, with a career record of 324-151-31. His win total was the best in NFL history until Don Shula broke the mark in 1993. Halas is a charter member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

NAMING THE BEARS

George Halas originally named the team the Decatur Staleys after A.E. Staley, a starch manufacturer and enthusiastic sports fan who sponsored a semi-pro team and commissioned Halas to organize the new squad.

One year later, trying to match the profitability of Chicago's baseball franchises, Staley asked Halas if he would take the team off Staley's hands and move it to Chicago for $5,000, while keeping the name Staleys for another year. With the help of legendary baseball pioneers Bill Veeck, Sr. and William Wrigley, Halas soon acquired a lease to play at Wrigley Field then known as Cubs Park.

When Halas' obligation to Staley terminated in 1922, he considered re-naming the team the Chicago Cubs out of respect for Veeck and Wrigley who, according to Halas in his biography, "had been such a great help."

But, as Halas continued, "I noted football players are much bigger players than baseball players, so if baseball players are cubs, then football players must be bears!"

On January 28, 1922, the franchise was renamed the Chicago Bears.

In 1920 the team wore red, the color of the A.E. Staley company. The next year the team switched to navy blue and orange after those of Halas' alma mater, the University of Illinois. Halas lettered in football, basketball and baseball for the Fighting Illini, and is honored as one of U of I's most distinguished alumni in the Illini Union in Urbana-Champaign.

GEORGE S. HALAS, JR.

SEPTEMBER 4, 1925 – DECEMBER 16, 1979

George S. "Mugs" Halas was an integral part of the Bears before his untimely death in 1979. The son of pro football founder George S. Halas, Mugs spent 30 years in pro football. He joined the Bears' front office in 1950, was named treasurer in 1953, and became president of the club in 1963. He was also the first general manager in team history, serving in that capacity from 1963-74. In his first season as president, the Bears were NFL champions. Mugs was the second of just five presidents in the franchise history. He succeeded his father, George S. Halas, and was followed by Michael McCaskey, Ted Phillips and current team president Kevin Warren. His numerous contributions on a league level included membership on the executive committee of the NFL Management Council.

Mugs learned football at a young age, serving as a ballboy while growing up. He earned a business degree from Loyola in 1949, before entering pro football on a full-time basis. Mugs is remembered for his love and devotion to the game.

EDWARD W. MCCASKEY

APRIL 27, 1919 – APRIL 8, 2003

Edward (Ed) W. McCaskey served as an executive with the Bears for 36 years, serving as Chairman Emeritus of the club from 1999 until his death in 2003. He was the team's second Chairman of the Board, succeeding team founder George Halas in 1983 following 17 years as the team's Vice President and Treasurer. McCaskey married Halas' only daughter, Virginia, in 1943 and joined the team at Halas' request in 1967.

McCaskey was a popular figure within the NFL and was referred to by many as the conscience of the League, as well as a sounding board for many of its leaders. He contributed to numerous charitable and civic organizations on behalf of the Bears and served as the guiding force behind the Brian Piccolo Fund.

MICHAEL B. MCCASKEY

DECEMBER 11, 1943 – MAY 16, 2020

Michael B. McCaskey joined the family business in 1983, when he succeeded his grandfather, George S. Halas, as President & CEO and held that position until 1999 when he became the team's chairman. Under McCaskey's leadership, the Bears had eight playoff seasons, claimed six NFC Central division titles and were crowned Super Bowl XX Champions. Following the 1985 Super Bowl championship, his peers voted him NFL Executive of the Year. Michael also served as Chairman of the Board of the Bears from 1999-2011. In the spring of 1997, under Michael's guidance, the Bears moved from the original Halas Hall on the campus of Lake Forest College to a new state-of-the-art home and where the team still resides today.

Michael also was a co-founder of the team's charitable arm Bears Care in 2005, which has since granted nearly $25 million to over 100 agencies throughout the Chicagoland community through targeted programs supporting education, youth athletics, medical research and health awareness programs focusing on breast and ovarian cancer.

DOUBLE-DIGIT SACKS

Since sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982, the Bears have recorded 26 double-digit sack seasons by 13 different players.

Richard Dent, the Bears franchise record holder with 124.5 career sacks, also recorded the most double-digit sack seasons in franchise history with eight. The Bears single season record was set by Robert Quinn in 2021, when he collected 18.5

BEARS TEAM CAPTAINS

Since 2007, at the recommendation of the NFL's six-member player advisory council, NFL teams could name season-long captains. Captains are designated with a square patch with the letter "C" and four gold stars across the bottom. A player receives a gold star for each year he is a team captain. Teams are allowed to determine how they want to select their captains, some opting for weekly captains which do not wear the "C" patch. In 2014 then again from 2018-21 the Bears opted to name captains on a weekly basis therefore no Bears player wore the captain's "C" patch. In 2022 and 2023, there was additional fifth captain named every week.

WALTER PAYTON MAN OF THE YEAR

The Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award is the only NFL award that recognizes a player for his community service activities as well as his excellence on the field. Renamed in 1999 for the legendary Chicago Bears Pro Football Hall of Fame running back, the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award has been given annually since 1970.

Chicago Bears cornerback Charles Tillman was named the 2013 Walter Payton Man of the Year, marking the fifth Chicago Bears player to be honored with the award -- tied with the Kansas City Chiefs for the most among NFL franchises -- joining Payton (1977), Dave Duerson (1987), Mike Singletary (1990) and Jim Flanigan (2000).

All 32 nominees will receive up to a $55,000 donation and the winner will receive a $250,000 donation to the charity of his choice. Fans can vote directly at NFL.com/ManOfTheYear or post #WPMOYChallenge on X. The nominee who receives the most collective hashtag mentions and votes will win an additional $35,000 donation from Nationwide to the charity of their choice, with the runner-up receiving $10,000 and the third-place winner receiving $5,000.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

The Ed Block Courage Award Foundation is dedicated to improving the lives of abused, neglected and at-risk children and ending the cycle of abuse. The purpose is to raise Awareness and Prevention of child abuse. That objective is coupled with the Foundation's commitment to celebrating players of inspiration in the NFL.

The award recipient symbolizes professionalism, great strength and dedication. He is also a community role model. With this honor he enters into association which contrasts his fierce profession by becoming a major component of the Courage House national support network. He becomes a crusader for victims of abuse, violence and neglect.

Each year, the Ed Block Courage Awards honor those National Football League players who exemplify commitments to the principles of sportsmanship and courage. This award is unique in that the recipients are selected solely by a vote of their teammates. Every fall, each of the

The Ed Block Courage Award began in Baltimore in honor of Eddie Block, former head athletic trainer of the Baltimore Colts. Eddie Block and his wife dedicated their lives to helping children in distress as foster parents and advisers. There are 16 Courage Houses presently connected with NFL teams, locally the Maryville Academy in Des Plaines.

Ed McCaskey was the 1992 Honorary National Chairman of the 14th Annual Ed Block Courage Awards. Each offseason Maryville Academy hosts a luncheon to promote awareness for the award and its causes. The proceeds go to the Ed McCaskey scholarship winners at Maryville which has been the Chicago Courage House since 1992.

Since its inception, the Foundation, through its charter with the Courage House National Support Network for Kids, and an affiliation with the National Football League and Professional Football Athletics Trainers Society, has helped to provide hope to countless children and raised millions of dollars.

BRIAN PICCOLO AWARD

In memory of Brian Piccolo, each season since 1970 a Bears rookie has been honored with the Brian Piccolo Award. In 1992, the award was expanded to include a veteran as well. The Piccolo Award is a special honor voted on by Bears players only, who select a teammate they feel best exemplifies the courage, loyalty, teamwork, dedication and sense of humor of the late Brian Piccolo.

Brian Piccolo signed with the Bears as a free agent out of Wake Forest in 1965 - the same year Hall of Famer Gale Sayers was drafted. The two became roommates, and Piccolo's support of Sayers through a devastating knee injury, as well as Sayers' devotion when Piccolo was stricken with cancer in 1969, became the stuff of legend. Piccolo was in his fourth season when a chest x-ray revealed a malignancy. Several months later on June 16, 1970, he died at age 26 from embryonal cell carcinoma.

Following his death, the Brian Piccolo Cancer Research Fund was established and proceeds were sent to the Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center in New York for research on embryonal cell carcinoma. At the time Piccolo died, the disease was 100% fatal, but today the cure rate is more than 95%.

With that victory, proceeds from the Brian Piccolo Cancer Research Fund now benefits breast cancer research at Rush Medical Center and provides support to the Clearbrook Center for the developmentally disabled in Arlington Heights.

Since turning its attention to the fight against breast cancer, the Brian Piccolo Cancer Research Fund, as well as all those who have generously joined in its efforts, has raised over $10 million for research since 1991. The fund remains active and welcomes the interest of contributions of others who share its commitment to breast cancer research and to the memory of Brian Piccolo.

JEFF DICKERSON GOOD GUY AWARD

Each year, the Chicago Chapter of the Professional Football Writers of America presents an award to a Bears player, coach or administrator who has been exemplary in the way he has interacted with the media. The "Good Guy" is chosen by the writers based on his professionalism, courtesy and respect in dealings with the press in the past year. The Bears and the Chicago media have enjoyed a mutually beneficial relationship since team founder George S. Halas personally delivered press releases to Chicago newspaper offices in the 1930s.

The PFWA Chicago Chapter's Good Guy Award is named for Jeff Dickerson, who lost his battle with cancer in December 2021. No one embodied the term "Good Guy" more than JD. He was loved by everyone: family, friends, colleagues, coaches and players. Always a consummate professional, JD took a great deal of pride in his coverage of the Bears for 20 years and is missed every day.

All media members must check in at the guardhouse when entering Halas Hall. Security will direct you to the media parking lot located on the left when entering the complex. Media who need ADA parking should contact a member of the Chicago Bears Communications staff.

MEDIA AVAILABILITY AND PRACTICE VIEWING

Media availability and practice viewing schedules, compliant with PFWA guidelines, will be set and communicated prior to each week of the season and on other occasions throughout training camp, the season and offseason. Credentialed media members are asked to remain in the media workroom until availability or viewing begins. Members of the Bears communications staff will direct media members where availability and viewing will take place.

INTERNATIONAL PRESENCE

The Chicago Bears are committed to expanding the team's global presence and engaging with fans worldwide. As part of the NFL's Global Markets Program, the Bears have been awarded marketing rights in Spain and the United Kingdom, allowing the team to build deeper connections with international audiences through localized content, fan engagement events and strategic partnerships.

MINI MONSTERS

The Chicago Bears' Mini Monsters program is a cornerstone of the team's international youth football efforts, introducing kids aged 9-13 to the fundamentals of football through fun, skills-based clinics. Since expanding to Spain and the United Kingdom, Mini Monsters has impacted over 8,000 young athletes, providing them with hands-on coaching and opportunities to develop their teamwork, agility and football knowledge.

In the United Kingdom, Mini Monsters has traveled to 11 cities, including London, Manchester and Edinburgh, engaging over 5,000 kids from 50 different schools. In Spain, the Bears have hosted Mini Monsters clinics in Madrid, Badalona and Valencia, serving over 3,000 kids. The Mini Monsters program has become a key platform for introducing football and the Chicago Bears to young athletes. During the Chicago Bears' trip to UK for their 2024 London Game, the Bears hosted three Mini Monsters clinics in London.

FLAG FOOTBALL

The Chicago Bears are expanding access to girls flag football across the United Kingdom and Spain, creating opportunities for young female athletes to compete and develop their skills in the sport.

In the United Kingdom, the Bears operate flag football leagues in London, Manchester and Birmingham. In 2025, over 550 girls will participate in Bears' leagues. The Chicago Bears co-launched the first girls flag football league in London with the New York Jets in 2023. Interest in the sport has grown rapidly since. In 2024, the Bears began operating leagues independently and have expanded leagues to over 20 teams for the 2025 season.

In Spain, the Chicago Bears are set to launch the first season of girls flag football leagues. The Bears have established a 150-player girls flag division and will launch the leagues in Madrid and Badalona in Fall 2025. To date, the Chicago Bears have hosted several player and coaches clinics in the region.

TE Cole Kmet and WR DJ Moore celebrate a touchdown as the Bears take part in the 2024 NFL International Series in London, U.K.

INTERNATIONAL GAMES

The Bears first played outside the United States when they took on the New York Giants in a preseason bout in Toronto, Canada, in 1960. Chicago participated in the NFL's first "American Bowl" game, when they traveled to London to take on the Dallas Cowboys in 1986. Since that contest, the Bears have played exhibitions in Sweden, Germany and Ireland as well as a regular season game back in Canada.

The NFL officially launched the NFL International Series in 2007, with regular season games to be played overseas each season. The Bears have participated on three occasions, all in London, England, a 2011 tilt at Wembley Stadium and a pair of games at Tottenham Hotspur Stadium in 2019 and 2024.

SCHOOL SHOWS:

BEAR DOWN ON BULLIES

The "Bear Down on Bullies" assembly discusses 5 types of bullies (big-mouth bully, hands-on bully, butt-out bully, cyber-bully and all-around bully), and proper ways for your students to deal with bullying. Staley shares his own experiences with his very own bully, Fluffy. A strong emphasis is placed on a team concept approach to school, and how your students can help foster a positive learning environment. Additionally, each school will receive a player-autographed "Bear Down on Bullies" banner to display.

FIRST AND GOAL SHOW: HOW TO SCORE A TOUCHDOWN FOR A HEALTHY LIFE

The Chicago Bears are proud to present the most informative, hands-on, educational health and wellness assembly in the NFL! First and Goal was created by Staley to educate today's youth about the benefits of living a healthy life. Staley and his MC will jumpstart your child's desire to begin living a smarter and healthier life by combining education, comedy and super-cool prizes into this high-energy show!

TALES TO TACKLE

"Tales to Tackle" was created by Staley to promote his love and enthusiasm towards reading and learning. Students are encouraged to read as many teacher-approved books as they can each month to achieve different prizes. The top performing school within the program has the chance to win a $5,000 grant from the Chicago Bears!

ALL SCHOOL PEP RALLIES

Motivating students to excel in their studies can sometimes prove challenging. Staley has developed an assortment of assemblies designed to encourage students to give it their best. Staley will also work with school administrators to develop an interactive, high-energy, 45-minute show customized toward your school's specific needs. Assembly topics include: Staley's Back To School "Kick Off", PARCC/state test prep, Dance Express, and general field day/school picnic appearances.

STALEY DA BEAR

DRAFTED: 1st Round, Chicago Bears, 8/6/03

ABOUT STALEY: Staley is responsible for entertaining Bears fans young and old. Staley loves to "bust-a-move", and shake what his mama gave him. He is highly skilled with a fishing pole, enjoys playing the drums and exercising regularly. Staley is best friends with Pooh, Smokey and Yogi.

CHICAGO BEARS MEDIA INFORMATION

Chicago Bears training camp returned to Lake Forest, Ill., for the first time in 36 years in 2020, hosting training camp at Halas Hall, the team's start-of-the-art training facility. Previously, the Bears held training camp at Olivet Nazarene University in Bourbonnais, Ill., capping an 18-year tenure at the university in 2019. After hosting camp at the former Halas Hall on the campus of Lake Forest College, the Bears held camp at the University of Wisconsin-Platteville for 18 summers from 1984-2001.

2025 Chicago Bears Training Camp by LRS will take place at Halas Hall and all information pertaining to camp can be found at ChicagoBears.com/Camp, with additional media information available on the club's media site, housed on NFL.com.

All media information, including publications, press releases, schedules, transcripts and coverage materials, can be found on the Chicago Bears page on NFL.com. A member of the Bears Communications staff can supply log-in credentials. Please direct any additional questions to a member of Bears Communications.

CREDENTIALS:

Training Camp: All requests for credentials must be submitted to Bears Communications through NFL.com no later than 4 p.m. CT the day prior to best facilitate attendance.

Single-Game and Season: To submit a credential request to cover a Chicago Bears home game in 2025, please submit a formal request through the NFL's credential portal, Accredit (<https://nfl.accredit-solutions.com/Media/>). Please note: A submitted application does NOT guarantee admittance and clearance. The Bears reserve the right to deny access to any media outlet/media member at their discretion. The decision to issue credentials to a media outlet for the purposes of covering a Chicago Bears home game is determined by a variety of factors. It is the responsibility of the party submitting the credential request to confirm credential status.

All credential request MUST be accompanied by a forward-facing headshot and a signed NFL terms and conditions form through the Accredit portal.

Credentials will be left at the PRESS WILL CALL window (Window 10) located outside of Gate 10 on the southeast side of Soldier Field. PRESS WILL CALL opens 3 hours before kickoff. Press entry into Soldier Field is located at Gate 14 on the southeast side of the stadium. The press elevator is located across the concourse. Guests are NOT permitted in the press box and credentials are limited to working press only. For additional questions please email Ali Sayers.

PRESS BOX/PRESS GATE: The Soldier Field press box is located on Suite Level A in the southeast corner of the stadium. Entrance to the Press Box is at Gate 14 and is only accessible to persons holding a working press credential.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Credentials for sideline photographers are limited by the League to a certain number of spots per game. Free-lance photographers who are not on specific assignment by a recognized sports or news publication will not be credentialed due to space limitations.

PARKING: Media parking is limited at Soldier Field and is digital. Parking will be sent for no later than Thursday evening for a Sunday game.

SATELLITE TRUCK PARKING: Television stations seeking parking for satellite trucks on the day of Bears games should contact Emmett Finnegan, Director of Operations at Soldier Field at efinnegan@soldierfield.net.

ESPN 1000 (AM) and 100.3 HD2

ESPN 1000 enters their third season as the radio home of the Chicago Bears, as part of a multi-year radio broadcast rights agreement. ESPN 1000 will broadcast all three preseason, and all 17 regular-season, Bears games in 2025.

In addition to operating and distributing the Bears Radio Network, ESPN 1000 host pre-and post-game programming as well as unique content to air on its local shows.

Keith Williams, Market Manager of ESPN Chicago and Senior Vice President at Good Karma Brands said, "The Chicago Bears are a best-in-class organization, and we are excited to partner with a charter franchise of the NFL. We are dedicated to delivering a top-notch broadcast for our partners and fans around the Midwest and the world. Our teammates are eagerly anticipating the opportunity to get started and execute at the highest level."

Follow along on ESPN Chicago's social platforms and tune into ESPN 1000, 100.3 HD2 and the ESPN Chicago App to listen to all ESPN shows for more Bears coverage.

JEFF JONIAK: One of the most energetic and exciting voices of the National Football League, Jeff Joniak enters his 25th season behind the microphone as the play-by-play voice of the Chicago Bears. Joniak's passion for the game and for the Bears is linked to a 39-year association with Chicago sports fans. Joniak has hosted Chicago Bears game day broadcasts since 1997 and serves as WBBM Newsradio 780 and 105.9 FM's director of sports operations while maintaining his afternoon drive-time sports anchor shifts. Throughout the year, Joniak serves as master of ceremonies for many different events related to his work with the Bears including the National Football Foundation Scholarship Awards ceremony, the Ed Block Courage Award ceremony, Lurie Children's Hospital annual fundraising event and the annual Bears Care Gala. Before tackling Halas Hall, Joniak co-hosted the gameday broadcasts for the Chicago Bulls during their championship years from 1991 to 1996. For the gripping coverage of the death of Walter Payton, Joniak and his staff won a prestigious Peter Lisagor Award. He also won two Lisagor awards for his coverage of the NFL Draft, AP awards for his sportscasts and Bears pre-game features. In September 2019, Joniak was inducted into the Chicagoland Sports Hall of Fame.

TOM THAYER: Originally a Bears' fourth-round draft pick in 1983 after an All-America career at Notre Dame, Tom Thayer played for three seasons with the USFL's Chicago Blitz and Arizona Wranglers before joining the Bears. One of the team's strongest players, Thayer earned his starting role at right guard four games into the 1985 season and eventually compiled consecutive game and consecutive start streaks that led the Bears during the late 1980s. Thayer left the Bears in 1992 after a distinguished eight-year career at offensive guard. He retired in 1993 after one season with the Miami Dolphins. Before joining the Bears radio team in 1997, Thayer worked for two years as a Bears analyst on WFLD-TV's pro football programming. A former all-state lineman at Joliet Catholic High, Thayer resides in Chicago.

JASON MCKIE: Joining Jeff and Tom, former Bear and current local high school football coach Jason McKie serves as the Bears Radio Network Sideline Reporter for each home and away game. Having played at the highest level, McKie provides fans with a unique, inside look at what's happening on the field. McKie graduated from Temple University in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in Communications with an emphasis in Broadcasting. After a successful four-year collegiate career at Temple, McKie signed with the Dallas Cowboys as an undrafted free agent. He appeared in one game with the Cowboys in 2002 before the Bears claimed him off waivers in August of 2003. As a member of the Bears, McKie appeared in 87 games (46 starts), primarily playing fullback and select roles on special teams. In addition to broadcasting, McKie has also enjoys the coaching side, where he is excitedly preparing for his sixth season as head coach at Carmel Catholic High School in Mundelein, which is located about nine miles west of Halas Hall.

ADDITIONAL INFO

About Bears Care

Bears Care, the charitable arm of the Chicago Bears, conducts and partners in a variety of fundraising events throughout the year as part of its commitment to improving the lives of those in our community. Bears Care impacts thousands of Chicago area individuals and families annually, with grants to qualifying agencies that serve those in need. With the generous participation of Chicago Bears' players and staff, area businesses and organizations, as well as individual donors, Bears Care is able to bring together human and financial resources to help tackle the needs of Chicago.

BEARS CARE IN THE COMMUNITY

2025 Bears Care Gala

Raising over $1 million to be distributed to local breast and ovarian cancer research and treatment programs

Youth Athletics

Community Engagement

Providing Thanksgiving meals in North Lawndale with the Firehouse Community Arts Center

Education

Supporting Hope Chicago in providing students and their parents debt-free higher education and workforce pathways

Real Bears Fans Wear Pink

Raising funds to support programs serving cancer survivors and their families

Community Partnerships

Annual Holiday Giving Initiative at Leo High School in Auburn Gresham

Bears Care was established as a fund of the Robert R. McCormick Foundation in 1995, a partnership that continued until 2005 when Bears Care incorporated as a 501(c)(3) organization. Bears Care has issued grants totaling over $32 million to over 200 qualifying agencies since 2006.

For additional information on Bears Care programs and upcoming events, or if you wish to make a donation, visit ChicagoBears.com/bearscare.

The Chicago Bears Football Club is dedicated to making a difference in our community. Our organization inspires positive change and enriches the lives of others through outreach programs, initiatives, and partnerships. We are proud to give back to the community that has supported us since 1920.

EDUCATION

The Chicago Bears reach thousands of students each year through our educational programs. Through strategic collaboration with community and business partners, we offer and support initiatives that promote literacy, provide character education at the middle school and high school levels, and honor outstanding teachers in the Chicago area. It is our hope that these initiatives will help foster a love of learning and encourage students to stay in school and continue to pursue their education.

WR Tyler Scott

QB Caleb Williams

HEALTH & WELLNESS

The health and wellness of our fans has always been a top priority for the Chicago Bears. We encourage children to establish healthy eating and exercise habits that they will carry with them into adulthood. We also try to offer support to our fans who may be experiencing challenging times. We provide assistance in a variety of ways, including delivering teddy bears to young fans in the hospital, offering wish-granting opportunities, collecting coats during the winter season, and lending a helping hand to organizations and communities in need.

MILITARY

The Chicago Bears are dedicated to supporting the men and women in the United States Military. Our ties date back to when our founder, George S. Halas, served in the U.S. Navy during both World War I and World War II. We are proud to continue this tradition through numerous initiatives that provide support and show our sincere gratitude to those who serve our country and protect our freedom. Our efforts include honoring outstanding service during each home game at Soldier Field, sending care packages and providing unique Bears experiences to veterans, active members of the military and their families.

WR Rome Odunze and DB Kevin Byard

YOUTH FOOTBALL

The Chicago Bears have always taken an active role in offering and supporting a variety of youth football programs and opportunities. We host events that bring youth football coaches and leaders together to share ideas and promote safety and awareness which help build a healthy and strong foundation for youth football players. Our partnership with USA Football reiterates the importance of education and certification of coaches, concussion awareness, equipment fitting, proper tackling and heat and hydration. Through our tackle and flag leagues and skill development clinics, our goal remains the same – to teach and encourage children to play football.

DB Jaquan Brisker

HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL

The Chicago Bears are proud to support high school football in Illinois. Through several recognition programs, we honor high school boys tackle and girls flag coaches and players across the state who are making an impact on the field and in their communities. We also celebrate the accomplishment of the eight IHSAA state football champions and girls flag football state champions during a Bears home game in December. Additionally, the Bears provide funding to ensure that certified athletic trainers are available at Chicago Public School varsity football games and offer a variety of clinics and camps throughout the year to further players' development.

SOCIAL JUSTICE & CIVIC ENGAGEMENT

The Chicago Bears and Bears Care, alongside our players, have long supported local organizations who are inspiring positive change in the community and advancing our commitment to social justice. We continue to take action in our communities and, together, believe we can make a real difference. The players' social justice initiative has invested and raised more than $1 million through donations and matching grants from the team, Bears Care and NFL Foundation for various organizations. Additionally, the Bears regularly host members of those organizations at Halas Hall for practices and meet-and-greets with the team during the season.
